8 9	the clerk may issue a stay of the order or judgment upon the appellant's posting of an appropriate bond set by the judge or clerk issuing the stay.
9 10	(c) Duty of Judge on Appeal. – Upon appeal, the judge may hear and determine all
11	matters in controversy in the civil action, unless it appears to the judge that any of the
11	following apply:
12	(1) The matter is one that involves an action that can be taken only by a
13	clerk.
15	(2) Justice would be more efficiently administered by the judge's disposing
16	of only the matter appealed.
17	When either subdivision (1) or subdivision (2) of this subsection applies, the judge shall
18	dispose of the matter appealed and remand the action to the clerk. When subdivision (1)
19	of this subsection applies, the judge may order the clerk to take the action.
20	(d) Judge's Concurrent Authority Not Affected. – If both the judge and the clerk
21	are authorized by law to enter an order or judgment in a matter in controversy, a party
22	may seek to have the judge determine the matter in controversy initially.
23	"§ 1-301.2. Transfer or appeal of special proceedings; exceptions.
24	(a) Applicability. – This section applies to special proceedings heard by the clerk
25	of superior court in the exercise of the judicial powers of that office. If this section
26	conflicts with a specific provision of the General Statutes, that specific provision of the
27	General Statutes controls.
28	(b) Transfer. – Except as provided in subsections (g) and (h) of this section, when
29	an issue of fact, an equitable defense, or a request for equitable relief is raised in a
30	pleading in a special proceeding or in a pleading or written motion in an adoption
31	proceeding, the clerk shall transfer the proceeding to the appropriate court. In court, the
32	proceeding is subject to the provisions in the General Statutes and to the rules that apply
33	to actions initially filed in that court.
34	(c) Duty of Judge on Transfer. – Whenever a special proceeding is transferred to a
35	court pursuant to subsection (b) of this section, the judge may hear and determine all
36	matters in controversy in the special proceeding, unless it appears to the judge that justice
37	would be more efficiently administered by the judge's disposing of only the matter
38	leading to the transfer and remanding the special proceeding to the clerk.
39	(d) Clerk to Decide All Issues. – If a special proceeding is not transferred or is
40	remanded to the clerk after an appeal or transfer, the clerk shall decide all matters in
41	controversy to dispose of the proceeding.
42	(e) Appeal of Clerk's Decisions. – A party aggrieved by an order or judgment of a
43	clerk that finally disposed of a special proceeding, may, within 10 days of entry of the

1	order or judgment enneel to the ennronriete court for a hearing do nove. Notice of
1	order or judgment, appeal to the appropriate court for a hearing de novo. Notice of
2	appeal shall be in writing and shall be filed with the clerk. The order or judgment of the
3	clerk remains in effect until it is modified or replaced by an order or judgment of a judge.
4	A judge of the court to which the appeal lies or the clerk may issue a stay of the order or
5	judgment upon the appellant's posting of an appropriate bond set by the judge or clerk
6	issuing the stay. Any matter previously transferred and determined by the court shall not
7	be relitigated in a hearing de novo under this subsection.
8	(f) Service. – Notwithstanding the service requirement of G.S. 1A-1, Rule 58 ,
9	orders of the clerk shall be served on other parties only if otherwise required by law.
10	(g) Exception for Incompetency and Foreclosure Proceedings. –
11	(1) Proceedings for adjudication of incompetency or restoration of
12	competency under Chapter 35A of the General Statutes shall not be 13	transferred even if an issue of fact, an equitable defense, or a request for
14	equitable relief is raised. Appeals from orders entered in these
15	proceedings are governed by Chapter 35A to the extent that the
16	provisions of that Chapter conflict with this section.
17	(2) Foreclosure proceedings under Article 2A of Chapter 45 of the General
18	Statutes shall not be transferred even if an issue of fact, an equitable
19	defense, or a request for equitable relief is raised. Equitable issues may
20	be raised only as provided in G.S. 45-21.34. Appeals from orders
21	entered in these proceedings are governed by Article 2A of Chapter 45
22	to the extent that the provisions of that Article conflict with this section.
23	(h) Exception for Partition Proceedings. – The issue whether to order the actual
24	partition or the sale in lieu of partition of real property that is the subject of a partition
25	proceeding shall not be transferred and shall be determined by the clerk. The clerk's
26	order determining this issue, though not a final order, may be appealed pursuant to
27	subsection (e) of this section.
28	" § 1-301.3. Appeal of estate matters determined by clerk.
29	(a) Applicability. – This section applies to matters arising in the administration of
30	testamentary trusts and of estates of decedents, incompetents, and minors. G.S. 1-301.2
31	applies in the conduct of a special proceeding when a special proceeding is required in a
32	matter relating to the administration of an estate.
33	(b) Clerk to Decide Estate Matters. – In matters covered by this section, the clerk
34	shall determine all issues of fact and law. The clerk shall enter an order or judgment, as
35	appropriate, containing findings of fact and conclusions of law supporting the order or
36	judgment.
37	(c) Appeal to Superior Court. – A party aggrieved by an order or judgment of the
38	clerk may appeal to the superior court by filing a written notice of the appeal with the
39	clerk within 10 days of entry of the order or judgment. The notice of appeal shall specify
40	the basis for the appeal. Unless otherwise provided by law, a judge of the superior court
41	or the clerk may issue a stay of the order or judgment upon the appellant's posting an
42	appropriate bond set by the judge or clerk issuing the stay. While the appeal is pending,

1	the clerk retains authority to enter orders affecting the administration of the estate, subject
2	to any order entered by a judge of the superior court limiting that authority.
3	(d) Duty of Judge on Appeal. – Upon appeal, the judge of the superior court shall
4	review the order or judgment of the clerk for the purpose of determining only the
5	following:
6	(1) Whether the findings of fact are supported by the evidence.
7	(2) Whether the conclusions of law are supported by the findings of facts.
8	(3) Whether the order or judgment is consistent with the conclusions of law
9	and applicable law.
10	It is not necessary for a party to object to the admission or exclusion of evidence before
11	the clerk in order to preserve the right to assign error on appeal to its admission or
12	exclusion. If the judge finds prejudicial error in the admission or exclusion of evidence,
13	the judge, in the judge's discretion, shall either remand the matter to the clerk for a
14	subsequent hearing or resolve the matter on the basis of the record. If the record is
15	insufficient, the judge may receive additional evidence on the evidentiary issue in
16	question. The judge may continue the case if necessary to allow the parties time to
17	prepare for a hearing to receive additional evidence.
18	(e) Remand After Disposition of Issue on Appeal. – The judge, upon determining
19	the matter appealed from the clerk, shall remand the case to the clerk for such further
20	action as is necessary to administer the estate.
21	(f) Recording of Estate Matters. – In the discretion of the clerk or upon request by
22	a party, all hearings and other matters covered by this section shall be recorded by an
23	electronic recording device. A transcript of the proceedings may be ordered by a party,
24	by the clerk, or by the presiding judge. If a recordation is not made, the clerk shall
25	submit to the superior court a summary of the evidence presented to the clerk."
26	Section 2. G.S. 1-174, 1-272, 1-273, 1-274, 1-275, 1-276, 1-399, and 36A-28
27 28	are repealed.
28 29	PART II. CONFORMING AND CLARIFYING AMENDMENTS
29 30	Section 3. G.S. 1-242 reads as rewritten:

Section 9. G. S. 36A-33 reads as rewritten:

26 "§ 36A-33. Appointment of successors to deceased or incapacitated trustees.

27 Upon the death or incapacity of a trustee, a new trustee may be appointed on application by any beneficiary, or other interested persons, by petition to the clerk of the 28 29 superior court of the county in which the instrument under which the deceased or 30 incapacitated trustee claimed is registered, making all necessary parties defendants. The clerk shall docket the cause as a special proceeding and issue summons for the 31 32 defendants, and the procedure shall be the same as in other special proceedings. If any of 33 the defendants be nonresidents, summons may be served by publication; and if any be infants, a guardian ad litem must be appointed. The beneficiaries, creditors, or any other 34 35 persons interested in the trust estate shall have the right to answer the petition and to offer evidence why the prayer of the petition should not be granted. After hearing the matter, 36 37 the clerk may appoint the person so named in the petition, or he may appoint some other 38 fit and suitable person or corporation to act as the successor of the deceased or 39 incapacitated trustee; and the clerk shall require the person so appointed to give bond as required in G.S. 36A-31; provided, that where by the terms of the instrument upon which 40 the deceased or incapacitated trustee claimed, said trustee was not required to give bond 41 42 and did not give bond and an intent is expressed in the creating instrument that a successor trustee shall serve without bond, or where the clerk upon due investigation, 43 finds that bond is not necessary for the protection of the estate, the requirement of a bond 1 2 for the successor trustee may be waived as provided in G.S. 36A-31. Any party in interest 3 may appeal from the decision order or judgment of the clerk as provided in G.S. 36A-27 4 and 36A-28. Article 27A of Chapter 1 of the General Statutes. 5 Nothing in this section shall be construed to limit the authority of the clerk of superior 6 court to appoint a successor trustee to a deceased or incapacitated trustee upon his own 7 motion." 8 Section 10. G.S. 44A-4(b)(1) reads as rewritten: 9 If the property upon which the lien is claimed is a motor vehicle that is "(1) 10 required to be registered, the lienor following the expiration of the relevant time period provided by subsection (a) shall give notice to the 11 12 Division of Motor Vehicles that a lien is asserted and sale is proposed and shall remit to the Division a fee of ten dollars ($10.00). The 13 14 Division of Motor Vehicles shall issue notice by registered or certified 15 mail, return receipt requested, to the person having legal title to the 16 property, if reasonably ascertainable, to the person with whom the lienor 17 dealt if different, and to each secured party and other person claiming an 18 interest in the property who is actually known to the Division or who can be reasonably ascertained. The notice shall state that a lien has been 19 20 asserted against specific property and shall identify the lienor, the date 21 that the lien arose, the general nature of the services performed and materials used or sold for which the lien is asserted, the amount of the 22 23 lien, and that the lienor intends to sell the property in satisfaction of the 24 lien. The notice shall inform the recipient that the recipient has the right to a judicial hearing at which time a determination will be made as to 25 the validity of the lien prior to a sale taking place. The notice shall 26 27 further state that the recipient has a period of 10 days from the date of receipt in which to notify the Division by registered or certified mail, 28 29 return receipt requested, that a hearing is desired and that if the recipient 30 wishes to contest the sale of his property pursuant to such lien, the recipient should notify the Division that a hearing is desired. The notice 31 32 shall state the required information in simplified terms and shall contain 33 a form whereby the recipient may notify the Division that a hearing is desired by the return of such form to the Division. The Division shall 34 35 notify the lienor whether such notice is timely received by the Division. 36 In lieu of the notice by the lienor to the Division and the notices issued by the Division described above, the lienor may issue notice on a form 37 38 approved by the Division pursuant to the notice requirements above. If 39 notice is issued by the lienor, the recipient shall return the form requesting a hearing to the lienor, and not the Division, within 10 days 40 from the date the recipient receives the notice if a judicial hearing is 41 42 requested. Failure of the recipient to notify the Division or lienor, as specified in the notice, within 10 days of the receipt of such notice that a 43 hearing is desired shall be deemed a waiver of the right to a hearing prior to the sale of the property against which the lien is asserted, and the lienor may proceed to enforce the lien by public or private sale as provided in this section and the Division shall transfer title to the property pursuant to such sale. If the Division or lienor, as specified in the notice, is notified within the 10-day period provided above that a hearing is desired prior to sale, the lien may be enforced by sale as provided in this section and the Division will transfer title only pursuant to the order of a court of competent jurisdiction.

If the registered or certified mail notice has been returned as undeliverable, or if the name of the person having legal title to the vehicle cannot reasonably be ascertained and the fair market value of the vehicle is less than eight hundred dollars ($800.00), the lienor may institute a special proceeding in the county where the vehicle is being held, for authorization to sell that vehicle. Market value shall be determined by the schedule of values adopted by the Commissioner under G.S. 105-187.3.

In such a proceeding a lienor may include more than one vehicle, but the proceeds of the sale of each shall be subject only to valid claims against that vehicle, and any excess proceeds of the sale shall escheat to the State and be paid immediately to the treasurer for disposition pursuant to Chapter 116B of the General Statutes. A vehicle owner or possessor claiming an interest in such proceeds shall have a right of action under G.S. 116B-38.

25 The application to the clerk in such a special proceeding shall contain the notice of sale information set out in subsection (f) hereof. If 26 the application is in proper form the clerk shall enter an order 27 28 authorizing the sale on a date not less than 14 days therefrom, and the 29 lienor shall cause the application and order to be sent immediately by 30 first-class mail pursuant to G.S. 1A-1, Rule 5, to each person to whom notice was mailed pursuant to this subsection. Following the authorized 31 sale the lienor shall file with the clerk a report in the form of an 32 affidavit, stating that the lienor has complied with the public or private 33 34 sale provisions of G.S. 44A-4, the name, address, and bid of the high 35 bidder or person buying at a private sale, and a statement of the disposition of the sale proceeds. The clerk then shall enter an order 36 directing the Division to transfer title accordingly. 37

- If prior to the sale the owner or legal possessor contests the sale or lien in a writing filed with the clerk, the proceeding shall be handled in accordance with G.S. 1-399. G.S. 1-301.2."
  - 41 Section 11. G.S. 48-2-607(b) reads as rewritten:
- 42 "(b) A party to an adoption proceeding may appeal a final decree of adoption by 43 giving notice of appeal as provided in G.S. 1-272 and G.S. 1-279.1. A party to an

1	adoption proceeding may appeal a final decree of adoption entered by a clerk of superior
2	court to district court by giving notice of appeal as provided in G.S. 1-301.2. A party to
3	an adoption proceeding may appeal a judgment or order entered by a judge of district
4	court by giving notice of appeal as provided in G.S. 1-279.1."
5	Section 12. G. S. 65-75(a) reads as rewritten:
6	"(a) If the consent of the landowner cannot be obtained, any person listed in G.S.
7	65-74(1), (2), or (3) may commence a special proceeding by petitioning the clerk of
8	superior court of the county in which he-the petitioner has reasonable grounds to believe

Section 14. G.S. 105-374(h) reads as rewritten:

19 "(h) Joint Foreclosure by Two or More Taxing Units. – Liens of different taxing 20 units on the same parcel of real property, representing taxes in the hands of the same tax 21 collector, shall be foreclosed in one action. Liens of different taxing units on the same 22 parcel of real property, representing taxes in the hands of different tax collectors, may be 23 foreclosed in one action in the discretion of the governing bodies of the taxing units.

24 The lien of any taxing unit made a party defendant in any foreclosure action shall be alleged in an answer filed by the taxing unit, and the tax collector of each answering unit 25 shall, prior to judgment ordering sale, file a certificate of subsequent taxes similar to that 26 27 filed by the tax collector of the plaintiff unit, and the taxes of each answering unit shall be of equal dignity with the taxes of the plaintiff unit. Any answering unit may, in case of 28 29 payment of the plaintiff unit's taxes, continue the foreclosure action until all taxes due to 30 it have been paid, and it shall not be necessary for any answering unit to file a separate foreclosure action or to proceed under G.S. 105-375 with respect to any such taxes. 31

32 If a taxing unit properly served as a party defendant in a foreclosure action fails to answer and file the certificate provided for in the preceding paragraph, all of its taxes 33 shall be barred by the judgment of sale except to the extent that the purchase price at the 34 35 foreclosure sale (after payment of costs and of the liens of all taxing units whose liens are properly alleged by complaint or answer and certificates) may be sufficient to pay such 36 37 taxes. However, if a defendant taxing unit is plaintiff in another foreclosure action 38 pending against the same property, or if it has begun a proceeding under G.S. 105-375, its answer may allege that fact in lieu of alleging its liens, and the court, in its discretion, 39 may order consolidation of such actions or such other disposition thereof (and such 40 disposition of the costs therein) as it may deem advisable. Any such order may be made 41 42 by the clerk of the superior court-court, subject to appeal in the same manner as appeals are taken from other orders of the clerk. as provided in G.S. 1-301.1." 43

1 2	Section 15. G. S. 105-374(k) reads as rewritten:
23	"(k) Judgment of Sale. – Any judgment in favor of the plaintiff or any defendant taxing unit in an action brought under this section shall order the sale of the real property
4	or so much thereof as much as may be necessary for the satisfaction of: of all of the
5	following:
6	(1) Taxes adjudged to be liens in favor of the plaintiff (other than taxes the

8	penalties, interest, and costs thereon; and thereon.
9	(2) Taxes adjudged to be liens in favor of other taxing units (other than 10	taxes the amount of which has not yet been definitely determined) if
11	those taxes have been alleged in answers filed by the other taxing units,
12	together with penalties, interest, and costs thereon.
13	The judgment shall appoint a commissioner to conduct the sale and shall order that the
14	property be sold in fee simple, free and clear of all interests, rights, claims, and liens
15	whatever except that the sale shall be subject to taxes the amount of which cannot be
16	definitely determined at the time of the judgment, taxes and special assessments of taxing
17	units which are not parties to the action, and, in the discretion of the court, taxes alleged
18	in other tax foreclosure actions or proceedings pending against the same real property.
19	In all cases in which no answer is filed within the time allowed by law, and in cases in
20	which answers filed do not seek to prevent sale of said property, the clerk of the superior
21	court may render enter the judgment, subject to appeal in the same manner as appeals are taken from other indements of the slock of provided in $C \ge 1.201.1$
22 23	taken from other judgments of the clerk. as provided in G.S. 1-301.1." Section 16. G.S. 105-374(p) reads as rewritten:
23 24	"§ 105-374. Foreclosure of tax lien by action in nature of action to foreclose a
24 25	mortgage.
26	(p) Judgment of Confirmation. – At any time after the expiration of 10 days from
27	the time the commissioner files his report, if no exception or increased bid has been filed,
28	the commissioner may apply for judgment of confirmation, and in like manner he may
29	apply for such a judgment after the court has passed upon exceptions filed, or after any
30	necessary resales have been held and reported and 10 days have elapsed. The judgment of
31	confirmation shall direct the commissioner to deliver the deed upon payment of the
32	purchase price. This judgment may be rendered entered by the clerk of superior court
33	subject to appeal in the same manner as appeals are taken from other judgments of the clerk. as
34	provided in G.S. 1-301.1."
35	Section 17. G.S. 156-29 reads as rewritten:
36	"§156-29. Report filed; appeal and jury trial.
37	A report signed by two of the persons appointed as viewers shall be entered by the
38	clerk as the report of the viewers, and from the report any viewers. Any landowner affected
39	thereby by the report, and the person, firm, or corporation digging or cutting such drainway
40	shall have the drainway, has the right of appeal and the right to have any issue arising
41	upon the report tried by a jury, provided exceptions shall be filed to the report within 20
42	days after the filing of the report with the clerk, in which exceptions so filed may be a
43	demand for a jury trial. If a jury trial be-is demanded, the clerk shall transfer the proceedings to the civil-issue docket docket, and it shall be heard as other civil actions. If 1 2 no jury trial be is demanded, the clerk shall hear the parties upon the exceptions filed, and 3 appeal may be had as in special proceedings, proceedings except as modified by this 4 section, but no jury trial shall-may be had unless demanded as herein provided for. 5 provided in this section." 6 Section 18. G.S. 156-30 reads as rewritten: 7 "§ 156-30. Confirmation of report. Unless an appeal shall be taken by any person affected by the report, or by the person, 8 9 firm, or corporation cutting or digging the drainway, and a jury trial demanded within 20 10 days after the report shall be filed with the clerk, in all of which appeals exceptions shall be filed, the clerk of the superior court shall confirm the report of the jury; if exceptions 11 12 shall be filed and no demand for a jury trial shall be made, the clerk shall hear the 13 exceptions as in other cases of special proceedings, and judgment entered accordingly. If 14 the report of the viewers be confirmed by the clerk because no exceptions or demand for 15 a jury trial were filed within 20 days, the judgment of confirmation shall be the judgment of the court, and any judgment herein entered against the person, firm, or corporation 16 17 cutting or digging the drainway shall be a judgment against the person, firm, or 18 corporation and the surety on its bond given as hereinabove provided. Unless an appeal is taken, the clerk of superior court shall confirm the report of the viewers. If exceptions 19 20 are filed and no jury trial is demanded, the clerk shall hear the exceptions and enter 21 judgment as in other special proceedings.
