8 The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

9 Section 1. G.S. 1-109 reads as rewritten:

10 "§ 1-109. Bond required of plaintiff for costs.

11 At any time after the issuance of summons, the clerk or judge, upon motion of the 12 defendant, ~~shall may, upon a showing of good cause,~~ require the plaintiff to do one of the 13 following things and the failure to comply with such order within 30 days from the date
14 thereof shall constitute grounds for dismissal of such civil action or special proceeding:

15 (1) Give an undertaking with sufficient surety in the sum of two hundred 16 dollars, with the condition that it will be void if the plaintiff pays the 17 defendant all costs which the latter recovers of him in the action.

18 (2) Deposit two hundred dollars ($200.00) with him as security to the 19 defendant for these costs, in which event the clerk must give to the

1                    plaintiff and defendant all costs which the latter recovers of him in the 2                    action.

3            (3)    File a copy of an order from a superior or district court judge or clerk of 4                    a superior court authorizing the plaintiff to sue as an indigent.

5            The requirements of this section shall not apply to the State of North Carolina or any 6 of its agencies, commissions or institutions, or to counties, drainage districts, cities and
7 towns; provided, further, that the State of North Carolina or any of its agencies,
8 commissions or institutions, and counties, drainage districts, cities and towns may 9 institute civil actions and special proceedings without being required to give a 10 prosecution bond or make deposit in lieu of bond."

11            Section 2. This act becomes effective October 1, 1999, and applies to all 12 causes of action commenced on or after that date.
