8 "(c) At any hearing at which the court finds that reasonable efforts to eliminate the 9 need for the juvenile's placement are not required or shall cease, the court shall direct 10 that a permanency planning hearing as required by G.S. 7B-907 be held within 30 11 calendar days after the date of the hearing and, if practicable, shall set the date and time
12 for the permanency planning hearing. At any hearing at which the court finds and orders 13 that reasonable efforts to reunify a family shall cease, the affected parent, guardian, or 14 custodian or that parent, guardian, or custodian's counsel may give notice to preserve

20 court refused to admit as evidence or to consider."

21 SECTION 2. G.S. 7B-602 reads as rewritten:

22 "§ 7B-602. Parent's right to counsel; guardian ad litem.

23 (a) In cases where the juvenile petition alleges that a juvenile is abused, 24 neglected, or dependent, the parent has the right to counsel and to appointed counsel in 25 cases of indigency unless that person waives the right. When a petition is filed alleging 26 that a juvenile is abused, neglected, or dependent, the clerk shall appoint provisional 27 counsel for each parent named in the petition and indicate the appointment on the

1 juvenile summons or attached notice. At the first hearing, the court shall dismiss the 2 provisional counsel if the respondent parent:

- 3 (1) Does not appear at the hearing;
- 4 (2) Does not qualify for court-appointed counsel;
- 5 (3) Has retained counsel; or
- 6 (4) Waives the right to counsel.

7 The court shall confirm the appointment of counsel if subdivisions (1) through (4) of 8 this subsection are not applicable to the respondent parent.

9 The court may reconsider a parent's eligibility and desire for appointed counsel at 10 any stage of the proceeding.

11 (b) In addition to the right to appointed counsel set forth above, a guardian ad

21 ad litem under this subsection shall not affect the minor parent's 22 entitlement to a guardian ad litem pursuant to G.S. 7B-601 in the event 23 that the minor parent is the subject of a separate juvenile petition.

24 (c) On motion of any party or on the court's own motion, the court may appoint a 25 guardian ad litem for a parent in accordance with G.S. 1A-1, Rule 17, if the court 26 determines that there is a reasonable basis to believe that the parent is incompetent or 27 has diminished capacity and cannot adequately act in his or her own interest. The 28 parent's counsel shall not be appointed to serve as the guardian ad litem.

29 (d) Communications between the guardian ad litem appointed under this section 30 and the parent and between the guardian ad litem and the parent's counsel shall be 31 privileged and confidential to the same extent that communications between the parent 32 and the parent's counsel are privileged and confidential.

33 (e) Guardians ad litem appointed under this section may engage in all of the 43 findings of fact and conclusions of law. The order shall be reduced to writing, signed, 44 and entered no later than 30 days following the completion of the hearing. If the order is

1 not entered within 30 days following completion of the hearing, the clerk of court for 2 juvenile matters shall schedule a subsequent hearing at the first session of court
3 scheduled for the hearing of juvenile matters following the 30-day period to determine 4 and explain the reason for the delay and to obtain any needed clarification as to the 5 contents of the order. The order shall be entered within 10 days of the subsequent 6 hearing required by this subsection."

7 SECTION 4. G.S. 7B-901 reads as rewritten:

12 reports or other evidence concerning the needs of the juvenile. The juvenile and the 13 juvenile's parent, guardian, or custodian shall have an opportunity to present evidence, 14 and they may advise the court concerning the disposition they believe to be in the best

16 evidence as defined in G.S. 8C-1, Rule 801, that the court finds to be relevant, reliable, 17 and necessary to determine the needs of the juvenile and the most appropriate 18 disposition. The court may exclude the public from the hearing unless the juvenile 19 moves that the hearing be open, which motion shall be granted."

20 SECTION 5. G.S. 7B-905 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

24 by emergency circumstances from doing so. Where emergency circumstances exist, the 34 review or providing for a different placement as is deemed to be in the best interests of 35 the juvenile. The order must be reduced to writing, signed, and entered within 30 days 36 of the completion of the hearing. If the order is not entered within 30 days following 37 completion of the hearing, the clerk of court for juvenile matters shall schedule a 38 subsequent hearing at the first session of court scheduled for the hearing of juvenile 39 matters following the 30-day period to determine and explain the reason for the delay 40 and to obtain any needed clarification as to the contents of the order. The order shall be 41 entered within 10 days of the subsequent hearing required by this subsection.

42 If at any time custody is restored to a parent, guardian, custodian, or caretaker the 43 court shall be relieved of the duty to conduct periodic judicial reviews of the 44 placement."

1           SECTION 7. G.S. 7B-907(c) reads as rewritten:

2           "(c) At the conclusion of the hearing, the judge shall make specific findings as to 3 the best plan of care to achieve a safe, permanent home for the juvenile within a

5 juvenile pursuant to G.S. 7B-600 or make any disposition authorized by G.S. 7B-903
6 including the authority to place the child in the custody of either parent or any relative 7 found by the court to be suitable and found by the court to be in the best interest of the 8 juvenile. If the juvenile is not returned home, the court shall enter an order consistent 9 with its findings that directs the department of social services to make reasonable efforts 10 to place the juvenile in a timely manner in accordance with the permanent plan, to 11 complete whatever steps are necessary to finalize the permanent placement of the 12 juvenile, and to document such steps in the juvenile's case plan. Any order shall be 13 reduced to writing, signed, and entered no later than 30 days following the completion 14 of the hearing. If the order is not entered within 30 days following completion of the 15 hearing, the clerk of court for juvenile matters shall schedule a subsequent hearing at the 16 first session of court scheduled for the hearing of juvenile matters following the 30-day
17 period to determine and explain the reason for the delay and to obtain any needed 18 clarification as to the contents of the order. The order shall be entered within 10 days of 19 the subsequent hearing required by this subsection.

20           If at any time custody is restored to a parent, or findings are made in accordance 38 solely based on receiving notice and an opportunity to be heard. Any 39 individual whose parental rights have been terminated shall not be 40 considered a party to the proceeding unless an appeal of the order

7 The initial review and all subsequent reviews shall be conducted pursuant to 8 G.S. 7B-908. Any individual whose parental rights have been terminated shall not be 22 this subsection."

23           SECTION 17. G.S. 7B-1110 reads as rewritten:

24           "§ 7B-1110. Disposition. Determination of best interests of the juvenile.

25           ~~(a) Should the court determine that any one or more of the conditions authorizing~~ 26 ~~a termination of the parental rights of a parent exist, the court shall issue an order~~ 27 ~~terminating the parental rights of such parent with respect to the juvenile unless the~~ 28 ~~court shall further determine that the best interests of the juvenile require that the~~ 29 ~~parental rights of the parent not be terminated. After an adjudication that one or more~~ 30 ~~grounds for terminating a parent's rights exist, the court shall determine whether~~ 31 ~~terminating the parent's rights is in the juvenile's best interest. In making this~~ 32 ~~determination, the court shall consider the following:~~

- 33           (1) The age of the juvenile.
- 34           (2) The likelihood of adoption of the juvenile.
- 35           (3) Whether the termination of parental rights will aid in the
- 36                 accomplishment of the permanent plan for the juvenile.
- 37           (4) The bond between the juvenile and the parent.
- 38           (5) The quality of the relationship between the juvenile and the proposed

44 juvenile matters shall schedule a subsequent hearing at the first session of court

1 scheduled for the hearing of juvenile matters following the 30-day period to determine
2 and explain the reason for the delay and to obtain any needed clarification as to the 3 contents of the order. The order shall be entered within 10 days of the subsequent 4 hearing required by this subsection.

5 (b) Should the court conclude that, irrespective of the existence of one or more 6 circumstances authorizing termination of parental rights, the best interests of the 7 juvenile require that rights should not be terminated, the court shall dismiss the petition 8 or deny the motion, but only after setting forth the facts and conclusions upon which the 9 dismissal or denial is based.

10 (c) Should the court determine that circumstances authorizing termination of 12 making appropriate findings of fact and conclusions.

13 (d) Counsel for the petitioner or movant shall serve a copy of the termination of
