(a) Repealed by Session Laws 1985, c. 474, s. 4.

As a rehabilitative measure, the Secretary of the Department of Correction is 13 (b) 14 authorized to require any prisoner granted work-release privileges to make restitution or 15 reparation to an aggrieved party from any earnings gained by the defendant while on work release when the sentencing court recommends that restitution or reparation be 16 17 paid by the defendant out of any earnings gained by the defendant if he is granted 18 work-release privileges and out of other resources of the defendant, including all real 19 and personal property owned by the defendant and the income derived from such 20 property. The Except when restitution is recommended for a victim entitled to 21 restitution under Article 46 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes, the Secretary shall not be bound by such recommendation, but if they elect not to implement the 22 23 recommendation, they shall state in writing the reasons therefor, and shall forward the 24 same to the sentencing court.

25 (c)When an active sentence is imposed, the court shall consider whether, as a rehabilitative measure, it should recommend to the Secretary of Correction that 26 27 restitution or reparation be made by the defendant out of any earnings gained by the defendant if he is granted work-release privileges and out of other resources of the 28 29 defendant, including all real and personal property owned by the defendant, and income 30 derived from such property. If the court determines that restitution or reparation should not be recommended, it shall so indicate on the commitment. If, however, the court 31 32 determines that restitution or reparation should be recommended, the court shall make 33 its recommendation a part of the order committing the defendant to custody. The Administrative Office of the Courts shall 39 prepare and distribute forms which provide ample space to make restitution or reparation recommendations incident to commitments, which forms shall be 40 conveniently structured to enable the sentencing court to make its recommendation. 41

42 (d) The Secretary of the Department of Correction shall establish rules and 43 regulations to implement this section, which shall include adequate notice to the 44 prisoner that the payment of restitution or reparation from any earnings gained by the prisoner while on work release is being considered as a condition of any work-release 1 2 privileges granted the prisoner, and opportunity for the prisoner to be heard. Such rules 3 and regulations shall also provide additional methods whereby facts may be obtained to 4 supplement the recommendation of the sentencing court. When work release privileges 5 are granted to a prisoner who has been ordered to pay restitution to a victim entitled to 6 restitution under Article 46 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes, the amount to be deducted from the prisoner's work release earnings shall be determined as provided in 7 8 G.S. 15A-1340.35, 15A-1340.36, and 15A-1340.36.1, and that amount shall be so deducted." 9

When imposing restitution as a condition and setting up a payment schedule for the restitution, the Post-Release 19 20 Supervision and Parole Commission shall take into consideration the resources of the 21 defendant, including all real and personal property owned by the defendant and the income derived from such property, his ability to earn, and his obligation to support 22 23 dependents. The Except when restitution is recommended for a victim entitled to 24 restitution under Article 46 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes, the Post-Release Supervision and Parole Commission shall not be bound by such recommendation, but if 25 it elects not to implement the recommendation, it shall state in writing the reasons 26 27 therefor, and shall forward the same to the sentencing court.

If the court determines that 31 32 restitution or reparation should not be recommended, it shall so indicate on the 33 commitment. If, however, the court determines that restitution or reparation should be recommended, the court shall make its recommendation a part of the order committing 34 35 the defendant to custody.
