1 A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE TUSKEGEE AIRMEN AND 2 EXPRESSING APPRECIATION FOR THEIR SERVICE DURING WORLD WAR
3 II.

4       Whereas, during World War II, the armed forces in the United States were 5 still segregated by race; and

6       Whereas, in 1941 the federal government established the 66th Air Force 7 Flying School at Tuskegee Institute to train African-American pilots for the war; and

8       Whereas, from 1941 through 1946, almost 1,000 African-Americans trained 9 at the Tuskegee Army Air Field in Tuskegee, Alabama; and

10       Whereas, 450 of the men who completed training at the Tuskegee Army Air 11 Field were sent overseas for combat duty; and 12       Whereas, pilots trained at Tuskegee Institute were known as "Tuskegee 13 Airmen", although this phrase also later included navigators, bombardiers, instructors, 14 and maintenance and support staff; and

15       Whereas, the 99th Fighter Squadron, the first class trained at Tuskegee
16 Institute, was sent to North Africa in the Spring of 1943 for combat duty and in 1944,
17 they were joined by other African-American squadrons to form the 332nd Fighter 18 Squadron, which flew missions over Sicily, the Mediterranean, and North Africa; and 19       Whereas, the Tuskegee Airmen compiled an outstanding record, which 20 included completing more than 1,500 missions, destroying 260 enemy aircraft, sinking 21 an enemy destroyer, and demolishing other enemy installation areas; and

22       Whereas, the Tuskegee Airmen achieved an exceptional record for escorting 23 bomber crews and earned the respect of their fellow bomber crews and their military 24 leaders; and

25       Whereas, the Tuskegee Airmen were nicknamed "Red-Tail Angels" after the 26 red tail markings on their aircraft; and

27       Whereas, during the war, 66 Tuskegee Airmen were killed in action and 32 28 were held as prisoners of war; and

1           Whereas, the success of the Tuskegee Airmen helped end segregation in the 2 military; and

3           Whereas, in 1948, by Executive Order, President Harry S. Truman 4 desegregated the military; and

5           Whereas, the Tuskegee Airmen were awarded numerous honors, including 6 the Distinguished Flying Cross (150), Legion of Merit (1), Silver Star (1), Purple Heart
7 (8), Soldier Medal (2), Air Medal and Clusters (744), and the Bronze Star (14); and

8           Whereas, in 1945, the 332nd Fighter Squadron received a Distinguished Unit 9 Citation for "outstanding performance and extraordinary heroism"; and

10          Whereas, the Tuskegee Airmen received the Congressional Medal of Honor 11 during a ceremony with President George W. Bush on March 29, 2007; and

12          Whereas, Tuskegee Airmen came from all over the United States, including 13 the following members who were either born in North Carolina or are currently residing 14 in the State:

15           Harvey R. Alexander, Guilford County
