5	SECTION 1. Effective January 1, 2013, Section 3 of Article II of the North
6	Carolina Constitution reads as rewritten:
7	"Sec. 3. Senate districts; apportionment of Senators.
8	The Senators shall be elected from districts. The General Assembly, at the first regular 9	session convening The Independent Redistricting Commission, beginning as soon as practical
10	after the return of every decennial census of population taken by order of Congress, shall revise
11	the senate districts and the apportionment of Senators among those districts, subject to the 12	following requirements: so that, to the extent possible, those districts meet the following goals:
13	(1) Each Senator shall represent, as nearly as may be, an equal number of inhabitants,
14	the number of inhabitants that each Senator represents being determined for this purpose by 15	dividing the population of the District that he represents by the number of Senators apportioned
16	to that district;
17	(2) Each senate district shall at all times consist of contiguous territory;
18	(3) No county shall be divided in the formation of a senate district;

20	(1) The goal of compactness, to avoid elongated and irregularly shaped districts.
21	(2) The goal of one person, one vote to ensure each voter's vote.
22	(3) The goal of minimizing the number of split counties, municipalities, and other
23	communities of interest.
24	Precincts shall not be split in the preparation of a plan for State Senate districts. All districts
25	shall be contiguous.
26	When established, the senate districts and the apportionment of Senators shall remain
27	unaltered until the return of another decennial census of population taken by order of 28	Congress."
29	SECTION 2. Effective January 1, 2013, Section 5 of Article II of the North
30	Carolina Constitution reads as rewritten:
31	"Sec. 5. Representative districts; apportionment of Representatives.
32	The Representatives shall be elected from districts. The General Assembly, at the first
33	regular session convening The Independent Redistricting Commission, as soon as practical
34 25	after the return of every decennial census of population taken by order of Congress, shall revise
35	the representative districts and the apportionment of Representatives among those districts,

SECTION 5. Effective January 1, 2013, Chapter 163 of the General Statute	s is amended by adding a new Article to read:
"Article 17A.
"§ 163-207.1. Selection of Hamilton C. Horton Jr. Independent Redistricting Commissi	on.
(a) Purpose. – All participants in the selection process set forth in this section s work to ensure that each stage of the process promotes the goal of achieving a membershi the Hamilton C. Horton Jr. Independent Redistricting Commission that is composed	a provided in Section 25 of Article II of the North Carolina Constitution that becomes effect	tiv beginning with any redistricting on or after January 1, 2013.
(b) Screening Process. – A screening panel of 10 current or retired county elec	tio directors or election board members shall establish an application and screening process of	pe to all North Carolina registered voters. This screening panel shall be nominated by the N	ort Carolina Election Directors Association and the North Carolina Election Boards Associa meeting jointly. Those organizations shall make their nominations no later than December each year ending in the number zero, except in 2013 those nominations shall be made or before February 1 of that year. Those organizations shall adopt rules that are publicly disclo for appointing qualified panelists and for selecting alternatives in the event that a panelist unable to carry out his or her duties. Those organizations shall submit the names of t nominees for screening panelists to the President Pro Tempore of the Senate, the mino leader of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the minority leade the House of Representatives. They shall have five days to object to the composition of	th screening panel. Otherwise, the screening panel shall immediately convene.
Of the 10 screening panelists, four shall be affiliated by voter registration with the lar	- political party in North Carolina based on party registration, four shall be affiliated by v registration with the second largest political party in North Carolina based on party registrat and two shall not be affiliated by voter registration with either of those parties. Each pane minority leader of the Senate, the Speaker of the House of Representatives, and the minority leader of the House of Representatives may each strike up to two candidates from each part

General Assembly of North Carolina

subpool. The four legislative leaders shall make every effort to strike so as not to result in a 1 2 pool of candidates that is not representative of this State's diversity as provided in Section 25 of 3 Article II of the North Carolina Constitution. After all four legislative leaders have exercised 4 their strikes, the Principal Clerk of the House of Representatives shall present the remaining 5 pool of candidates to the State Board of Elections. The State Board of Elections shall establish and implement a public and auditable process 6 7 of randomly drawing four names from each of the political party subpools and three names 8 from the subpool of those not affiliated with the two largest parties. 9 The names of the 11 individuals drawn for the Commission shall be presented to the 10 President Pro Tempore of the Senate, the minority leader of the Senate, the Speaker of the 11 House of Representatives, and the minority leader of the House of Representatives. Each of those four legislative leaders shall have five days to object to the composition of the 12 13 Commission on the grounds of lack of representation of the State's diversity as required by 14 Section 25 of Article II of the North Carolina Constitution. If objections are raised by three of 15 those legislative leaders, the State Board of Elections shall return all names to the pool for another round of random drawing. The State Board of Elections may draw up to three times. 16 17 Upon the completion of this process, the 11 individuals so chosen shall take office. 18 Vacancies. - Any vacancies on the Commission shall be filled from the pool (d) 19 through a public and auditable process of randomly drawing names from the same pool selected 20 in subsection (b) of this section. The vacancy shall be filled with a member of the same partisan affiliation as the vacating member. The random drawing process shall be established and 21 22 implemented by the State Board of Elections." 23 SECTION 6. The amendments set out in Sections 1 through 4 of this act shall be 24 submitted to the qualified voters of the State at the statewide general election in November of 25 2012, which election shall be conducted under the laws then governing elections in the State. 26 Ballots, voting systems, or both may be used in accordance with Chapter 163 of the General 27 Statutes. The question to be used in the voting systems and ballots shall be: "[] FOR [] AGAINST 28 29 A constitutional amendment providing for an Independent Redistricting 30 Commission to redistrict the State for the purpose of electing members of the General 31 Assembly and members of the United States House of Representatives." 32 SECTION 7. If a majority of votes cast on the question are in favor of the 33 amendments set out in Sections 1 through 4 of this act, the State Board of Elections shall certify 34 the amendments to the Secretary of State. The amendments become effective upon this 35 The Secretary of State shall enroll the amendments so certified among the certification. 36 permanent records of that office. Section 5 of this act is effective only if the amendments are 37 approved by the qualified voters as provided in this section.
