SECTION 1. Clay County may, upon terms and conditions that it considers appropriate, and without being subject to the requirements of G.S. 143-128, 143-129, 143-131, and 143-132, enter into contracts and/or leases that would contain provisions requiring lessees to renovate and/or restore Clay County's old courthouse building located on the square in the Town of Hayesville so that the same can be leased and/or used as a multipurpose facility.

SECTION 2. This act is effective when it becomes law and expires June 30, 2015.
