8 SECTION 1. G.S. 14-112.2 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

9 "(f) If a person is charged with a violation of this section that involves funds, assets, or 10 property valued at more than five thousand dollars ($5,000), the district attorney may file a 11 petition in the superior court of the county in which the defendant has been charged to freeze 12 the funds, assets, or property of the defendant in an amount equal to but not greater than the 13 alleged value of funds, assets, or property in the defendant's pending criminal proceeding for 14 purposes of restitution to the victim. The burden of proof required to freeze the defendant's 15 funds, assets, or property shall be by a preponderance of the evidence. The procedure for 16 petitioning the court under this subsection shall be governed by G.S. 14-112.3."

17 SECTION 2. Article 19 of Chapter 14 of the General Statutes is amended by 18 adding the following new section to read:

19 "§ 14-112.3. Asset freeze or seizure; ex parte proceeding.

20 (a) For purposes of this subsection, the term "assets" includes funds and property as 21 well as other assets that may be involved in a violation of G.S. 14-112.2.

22 (b) Whenever it appears that there is probable cause to believe that any defendant used, 23 is using, is about to use, or is intending to use assets in any way that constitutes or would 24 constitute an offense under G.S. 14-112.2, the district attorney may make an ex parte 25 application to the superior court with jurisdiction over the pending charges to freeze or seize 26 assets in an amount to be determined as provided in G.S. 14-112.2(f). Upon a showing of 27 probable cause in the ex parte hearing, the superior court shall issue an order to freeze or seize 28 the assets of the defendant in the amount calculated pursuant to G.S. 14-112.2(f). A copy of the 29 freeze or seize order shall be served upon the defendant whose assets have been frozen or 30 seized.

31 (c) At any time within 30 days after service of the order to freeze or seize assets, the 32 defendant or any person claiming an interest in the assets may file a motion to release the 33 assets. The court shall hold a hearing on the motion no later than 10 days from the date the 34 motion is filed.

35 (d) In any proceeding to release assets, the burden of proof shall be by a preponderance 36 of evidence and shall be on the State to show that the defendant used, was using, is about to

1 use, or is intending to use any assets in any way that constitutes or would constitute an offense
2 under G.S. 14-112.2. If the court finds that any assets were being used, are about to be used, or 3 are intended to be used in any way that constitutes or would constitute an offense under 4 G.S. 14-112.2, the court shall order the assets frozen or held until further order of the court.

5 (e) If the prosecution of the charge under G.S. 14-112.2 is permanently terminated or 6 indefinitely discontinued without any judgment of conviction, or if a judgment of acquittal is 7 entered, the court shall vacate the order to freeze or seize the assets.

8 (f) Any person holding any interest in the frozen or seized assets may commence a 9 separate civil proceeding in the manner provided by law."

10 SECTION 3. This act becomes effective December 1, 2013, and applies to 11 criminal proceedings filed in court on or after that date.
