GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA SESSION 2013

S

SENATE BILL 156* Corrected Copy 4/9/13

| | Short Title: | Clarify LEC Procedures/TC. | (Public) |
|----------|---------------|--|-------------------------|
| | Sponsors: | Senators Hartsell, Soucek, Newton (Primary Sponsors); Rabin. | Blue, Goolsby, and |
| | Referred to: | Rules and Operations of the Senate. | |
| | | March 4, 2013 | |
| 1 | | A BILL TO BE ENTITLED | |
| 2 | AN ACT TO | CLARIFY THE LEGISLATIVE ETHICS COMMITTEE | S INVESTIGATIVE |
| 3 | PROCED | URES AND TO MAKE OTHER TECHNICAL | CHANGES AS |
| 4 | RECOM | MENDED BY THE LEGISLATIVE ETHICS COMMITTEE. | |
| 5 | The General A | Assembly of North Carolina enacts: | |
| 6 | SI | ECTION 1. G.S. 120-103.1 reads as rewritten: | |
| 7 | | Investigations by the Committee. | |
| 8 | | stitution of Proceedings On its own motion, upon receipt b | |
| 9 | - | vorn allegation of unethical conduct by a legislator, or upon r | - |
| 10 | - | rom the State Ethics Commission under Chapter 138A of the | General Statutes, the |
| 11 | | hall conduct an investigation into any of the following: | |
| 12 | (1 | | the General Statutes |
| 13 | | and of this Article. | |
| 14 | (2 | | |
| 15 | (3 | | 6 |
| 16 | | legislator's official capacity as a participant in the lawma | • • |
| 17 | | omplaints on Its Own Motion. – An investigation initiated by | |
| 18 | | instituted under subsection (a) of this section shall be treated | - |
| 19 20 | | his section and need not be sworn or verified. Any requireme | |
| 20 21 | - | he Committee to notify the complainant shall not apply to co ee on its own motion. If the Committee is acting on a com- | |
| 21 | | y the Commission where the Commission was acting on | - |
| 23 | | all be deemed to have satisfied the notice requirements by pr | |
| 24 | | Any notice provided to the Commission under this section | |
| 25 | | isclosed by the Commission. | i is confidential and |
| 26 | | otice of Allegation. – Upon receipt by the Committee of a cor | nplaint or the referral |
| 27 | | nt, or upon the initation by the Committee of an inquiry und | - |
| 28 | | he Committee shall immediately provide written notice to the | |
| 29 | | allegation or inquiry. | |
| 30 | | itial Consideration of a Complaint All of the following | g shall apply to the |
| 31 | | initial consideration of a complaint: | |
| 32 | (1 |) The Committee may, in its sole discretion, request addi | tional information to |
| 33 | | be provided by the complainant within a specified peri- | od of time of no less |
| 34 | | than seven business days. | |

| General Assem | bly of North Carolina | Session 2013 |
|------------------|---|-----------------------------|
| (2) | The Committee may decline to accept or further investig determines that any of the following apply: | ate a complaint if it |
| | a. The complaint is frivolous or brought in bad faith. | |
| | b. The individuals and conduct complained of hav | |
| | subject of a prior complaint. | e uneury seen the |
| | c. The conduct complained of is primarily a matter and adequately addressed and handled by othe | r federal, State, or |
| | local agencies or authorities, including law enfor If other agencies or authorities are conducting an same actions or conduct involved in a complai | investigation of the |
| | section, the Committee may stay its complaint in final resolution of the other investigation. | vestigation pending |
| (3) | Repealed by Session Laws 2009-549, s. 1, effective Augu | ıst 28, 2009. |
| (4) | Notwithstanding any other provisions of this section, co | |
| | the Committee concerning the conduct of the Lieutenan | - |
| | referred to the State Ethics Commission under Chapter 1 | |
| (a) Invoc | Statutes without investigation by the Committee. tigation of Complaints. – The Committee shall investig | roto all complainte |
| | the Committee in a timely manner. If the Committee receiv | |
| | plaint while the General Assembly is in Regular Session, t | |
| | is subsection Within within 10 business days of receiving a | |
| - | ral. If the Committee receives a complaint or a referral of | - |
| | Committee shall proceed under this subsection within 2 | |
| | nplaint or the referral. of a complaint to the Committee, W | |
| | Committee shall do at least one of the following: | ninii ine uppileuoie |
| (1) | Dismiss the complaint. | |
| (2) | Initiate a preliminary investigation of the complaint. | |
| (3) | Refer the complaint for further investigation and a hea | aring in accordance |
| (-) | with subsection (i) of this section. | 6 |
| (4) | Make recommendations to the house in which the leg | gislator who is the |
| | subject of the complaint is a member without further inv | |
| | of the following apply: |   |
| | a. the The referral is from the State Ethics Commission | ion. |
| | b. The Committee determines it does not have ju | |
| | alleged conduct, but if true, the alleged conduct m | |
| (c1) Prelin | ninary Investigation The Committee may initiate a prelim | - |
| if it determines | that the complaint alleges facts sufficient to constitute a | violation of matters |
| over which the | Committee has jurisdiction as set forth in subsection (a) | of this section. In |
| U U | ether there is reason to believe that a violation has or ma | • |
| | Committee may take general notice of available inform | |
| • • | d to the Committee in the form of a complaint. The Comm | • |
| | ed investigator when conducting investigations. The Com | - |
| | ion of the initiation of an a preliminary investigation | |
| | legislator who is the subject of the complaint within 10 day | |
| | ision to initiate an investigation. The Commission Comm | |
| | nquiry within 20 business days.days of initiating the prelin | |
| • | the amount of time if the Committee determines it does | not have sufficient |
| - | roceed under subsection (g) or (h) of this section. | 000 |
| | aled by Session Laws 2009-549, s. 1, effective August 28, 2 | |
| | tigation by the Committee of Matters Other Than C | - |
| Commutee may | investigate matters other than complaints properly before wi | ium une junsuiction |

of the Committee under subsection (a) of this section. For any investigation initiated under this 1 2 subsection, the Committee may take any action it deems necessary or appropriate to further 3 compliance with this Article, including the initiation of a complaint, the issuance of an advisory 4 opinion under G.S. 120-104, or referral to appropriate law enforcement or other authorities 5 pursuant to subdivision (j)(2) of this section.

6 Legislator Cooperation with Investigation. – Legislators shall promptly and fully (f)7 cooperate with the Committee in any Committee-related investigation. Failure to cooperate 8 fully with the Committee in any investigation shall be grounds for sanctions under this section.

9 Dismissal of Complaint After Preliminary Investigation. - If the Committee 10 determines at the end of its preliminary investigation that the complaint does not allege facts 11 sufficient to constitute a violation of matters over which the Committee has jurisdiction as set 12 forth in subsection (a) of this section, the Committee shall dismiss the complaint and provide 13 written notice of the dismissal to the individual who filed the complaint and to the legislator 14 against whom the complaint was filed.

15 Probable Cause Determination. Determination and Notice of Hearing. - If at the end (h) 16 of its preliminary investigation, the Committee determines that probable cause exists to proceed 17 with further investigation into the conduct of a legislator, the Committee shall determine the 18 charges that will be the basis for further investigation of the complaint and provide written 19 notice to the individual who filed the complaint and the legislator that the Committee will 20 conduct further investigation and the charges against the legislator. The legislator shall be given 21 an opportunity to file a written response to the charges with the Committee.

22 (h1) Consideration of Response and Notice of Hearing. The Committee shall give full 23 and fair consideration to the complaint and to the legislator's response to the complaint. 24 HExcept as provided in subsection (h2) of this section, if the Committee determines that the 25 complaint cannot be resolved without further investigation and a hearing, or if the legislator 26 requests a public hearing, the Committee shall hold a hearing on the charges against the 27 legislator. The Committee shall send a notice of the hearing to the complainant and to the 28 legislator. The notice shall contain the charges against the legislator and the time and place for 29 the hearing. The Committee shall begin the hearing no sooner than 15 days and no later than 90 30 days after the date of the notice of hearing.

31 Private Admonishment. - The Committee may issue a private admonishment (h2) 32 without holding a hearing, subject to the requirements of subsection (k) of this section.

- 33 Hearing. – All the following shall apply to any hearing on a complaint held by the (i) 34 Committee: 35
 - (1)-(3) Repealed by Session Laws 2009-549, s. 1, effective August 28, 2009.
 - (4) Oral evidence shall be taken only on oath or affirmation.
 - (5) The hearing shall be open to the public, except for matters that could otherwise be considered in closed session under G.S. 143-318.11, matters involving minors, or matters involving a personnel record. In any event, the deliberations by the Commission-Committee on a complaint may be held in closed session.
 - The legislator being investigated shall have the right to present evidence, call (6) and examine witnesses, cross-examine witnesses, introduce exhibits, and be represented by counsel.

45 Disposition of Investigations. Investigations After Hearing. - Except as permitted (i) under subsections (b) and (g) of this section, after the hearing, the Committee shall dispose of 46 47 the matter before the Committee under this section, in any of the following ways:

48 49

36

37

38

39

40

41

42

43

44

- If the Committee finds that the alleged violation is not established by clear (1)and convincing evidence, the Committee shall dismiss the complaint.
- 50 (2)If the Committee finds that the alleged violation is established by clear and 51 convincing evidence, the Committee shall do one or more of the following:

| as it applies to legislators, except the Lieutenant Governor, and these interpretations are binding on all legislators upon publication." SECTION 3. Section 2 of this act becomes effective January 1, 2007, and applies | | General Assembly of North CarolinaSession 2013 |
|---|---|---|
| referral to the district attorney for possible prosecution or the appropriate house for appropriate action, or both, if the Committee finds substantial evidence of a violation of a criminal statute. c. Refer the matter to the appropriate house for appropriate action which may include censure and expulsion. (3) If the Committee issues an admonishment as provided in subdivision (2)a. of this subsection, the legislator affected may, upon written request to the Committee, have the matter referred as provided under subdivision (2)c. of this subsection, the Committee Admonishment. – If the Committee dismisses a complaint or issues a private admonishment prior to commencing a hearing under subsection (i) of this section, the Committee shall retain its records or findings in confidence, unless the legislator under inquiry requests in writing that the records and findings be made public. If the Committee later finds that a legislator's subsequent unethical activities were similar to and the subject of an earlier private admonishment, then the Committee may make public the earlier admonishment and the records and findings related to it. (1) Confidentiality. – Except as provided under subsection (k) of this section shall be confidential and not matters of public record, except as otherwise provided in this section or when the legislator under inquiry requests in writing that the complaint response, and findings be made public. Once a hearing under subsection (i) of this sectior commences the complaint, response, Committee's report to the house, and all other documents offered at the hearing in conjunction with the complaint, response, and committee shall public necords. If no hearing is held, at such time as the complaint, response, and committee shall public house of which the legislator is a member, the committee records and the number of complaints filed with or considered by the Committee, including the number of complaints filed, the number of complaints dismissed, | | · · · |
| appropriate house for appropriate action, or both, if the Committee finds substantial evidence of a violation of a criminal statute. c. Refer the matter to the appropriate house for appropriate action which may include censure and expulsion. (3) If the Committee issues an admonishment as provided in subdivision (2)a. of this subsection, the legislator affected may, upon written request to the Committee, have the matter referred as provided under subdivision (2)c. of this subsection. (k) Effect of Dismissal or Private Admonishment. – If the Committee dismisses a complaint or issues a private admonishment prior to commencing a hearing under subsection (i) of this section, the Committee shall retain its records or findings in confidence, unless the legislator under inquiry requests in writing that the records and findings be made public. If the Committee later finds that a legislator's subsequent unethical activities were similar to and the subject of an earlier private admonishment, then the Committee may make public the earlier admonishment and the records and findings related to it. (1) Confidentiality. – Except as provided under subsection (k) of this section, the The complaint, response, records, and findings of the Committee connected to an inquiry under this section or when the legislator under inquiry requests in writing that the complaint response, and findings be made public. Once a hearing under subsection (i) of this section commences the complaint, response, Committee's report to the house, and all other documents offered at the hearing in conjunction with the complaint, that are not otherwise privileged or confidential under law, shall be public records. If no hearing is held, at such time as the Committee recommends sanctions to the house of adaction by the Committee under this section shall not limit the right of each house of the General Assembly to discipline or to expe its members. (n) Reports. – The Committee shall | | |
| finds substantial evidence of a violation of a criminal statute. c. Refer the matter to the appropriate house for appropriate action which may include censure and expulsion. (3) If the Committee issues an admonishment as provided in subdivision (2)a. of this subsection, the legislator affected may, upon written request to the Committee, have the matter referred as provided under subdivision (2)c. of this subsection. (k) Effect of Dismissal or Private Admonishment. – If the Committee dismisses a complaint or issues a private admonishment prior to commencing a hearing under subsection (i) of this section, the Committee shall retain its records or findings be made public. If the Committee later finds that a legislator's subsequent unethical activities were similar to and the subject of an earlier private admonishment, then the Committee may make public the earlier admonishment and the records and findings related to it. (1) Confidentiality. – Exceept as provided under subsection (k) of this section, the The complaint, response, records, and findings of the Committee connected to an inquiry under this section shall be confidential and not matters of public record, except as otherwise provided in this section commences the complaint, response, Committee's report to the house, and all other documents offered at the hearing in conjunction with the complaint, that are not otherwise privileged or confidential and, shall be public. To a house of which the legislator is a member, the committee recommends sanctions to the house of which the legislator is a member, the complaint, response, and Committee's report to the house of which the legislator is a member, the complaint, response, and Committee's report to a shall be made public. (n) Concurrent Jurisdiction. – Any action or lack of action by the Committee under this section shall be the under of complaints response, and committee shall publish annual statistics on complaints filed with or c | | |
| c. Refer the matter to the appropriate house for appropriate action which may include censure and expulsion. (3) If the Committee issues an admonishment as provided in subdivision (2)a. of this subsection, the legislator affected may, upon written request to the Committee, have the matter referred as provided under subdivision (2)c. of this subsection. (k) Effect of Dismissal or Private Admonishment. – If the Committee dismisses a complaint or issues a private admonishment prior to commencing a hearing under subsection (if of this section, the Committee shall retain its records or findings in confidence, unless the legislator under inquiry requests in writing that the records and findings be made public. If the Committee later finds that a legislator's subsequent unethical activities were similar to and the subject of an earlier private admonishment, then the Committee may make public the earlier admonishment and the records and findings of the Committee connected to an inquiry under this section shall be confidential and not matters of public record, except as otherwise provided in this section (i) of this section complaint, response, records, and findings of the Committee subsection (i) of this sectior commences the complaint, response, Committee's report to the house, and all other documents offered at the hearing in conjunction with the complaint, that are not otherwise privileged or confidential under law, shall be public records. If no hearing is held, at such time as the Committee recommends sanctions to the house of which the legislator is a member, the complaint, response, and Committee's report to the house, and all other documents is rembers. (n) Reports. – The Committee shall publish annual statistics on complaints filed with or complaints referred to the appropriate house of the General Assembly to discipline or to expet is members. (a) Reports. – The Committee shall publish annual statistics on complaints filed with or complaints ref | | |
| which may include censure and expulsion. (3) If the Committee issues an admonishment as provided in subdivision (2)a. of this subsection, the legislator affected may, upon written request to the Committee, have the matter referred as provided under subdivision (2)c. of this subsection. (k) Effect of Dismissal or Private Admonishment. – If the Committee dismisses a complaint or issues a private admonishment prior to commencing a hearing under subsection (i) of this section, the Committee shall retain its records or findings in confidence, unless the legislator under inquiry requests in writing that the records and findings be made public. If the Committee later finds that a legislator's subsequent unethical activities were similar to and the subject of an earlier private admonishment, then the Committee may make public the earlier admonishment and the records and findings related to it. (l) Confidentiality. – Except as provided under subsection (k) of this section, the The complaint, response, records, and findings of the Committee connected to an inquiry under this section shall be confidential and not matters of public record, except as otherwise provided in this section or when the legislator under inquiry requests in writing that the complaint response, and findings be made public. Once a hearing under subsection (i) of this sectior commences the complaint, response, Committee's report to the house, and all other documents offered at the hearing in conjunction with the complaint, that are not otherwise privileged or confidential under law, shall be public records. If no hearing is held, at such time as the complaint, response, and Committee's report to the house shall be made public. (m) Concurrent Jurisdiction. – Any action or lack of action by the Committee under this section shall not limit the right of each house of the General Assembly to discipline or to expet its members. (n) Reports. – The Committee shall publish annual statistics on complaints fi | | |
| (3) If the Committee issues an admonishment as provided in subdivision (2)a. of this subsection, the legislator affected may, upon written request to the Committee, have the matter referred as provided under subdivision (2)c. of this subsection. (k) Effect of Dismissal or Private Admonishment. – If the Committee dismisses a complaint or issues a private admonishment prior to commencing a hearing under subsection (i) of this section, the Committee shall retain its records or findings be made public. If the Committee later finds that a legislator's subsequent unethical activities were similar to and the subject of an earlier private admonishment, then the Committee may make public the earlier admonishment and the records and findings related to it. (1) Confidentiality. – Except as provided under subsection (k) of this section, the The complaint, response, records, and findings of the Committee connected to an inquiry under this section shall be confidential and not matters of public record, except as otherwise provided in this section or when the legislator under inquiry requests in writing that the complaint response, and findings be made public. Once a hearing under subsection (i) of this sectior commences the complaint, response, Committee's report to the house, and all other documents offered at the hearing in conjunction with the complaint, that are not otherwise privileged or confidential under law, shall be public records. If no hearing is held, at such time as the Committee recommends sanctions to the house of which the legislator is a member, the complaint, response, and Committee shall publish annual statistics on complaints filed with or complaints referred to the appropriate house of the General Assembly to discipline or to expet its members. (n) Reports. – The Committee shall publish annual statistics on complaints filed with or complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appr | | |
| this subsection, the legislator affected may, upon written request to the Committee, have the matter referred as provided under subdivision (2)c. of this subsection. (k) Effect of Dismissal or Private Admonishment. – If the Committee dismisses a complaint or issues a private admonishment prior to commencing a hearing under subsection (i) of this section, the Committee shall retain its records or findings in confidence, unless the legislator under inquiry requests in writing that the records and findings be made public. If the Committee later finds that a legislator's subsequent unethical activities were similar to and the subject of an earlier private admonishment, then the Committee may make public the earlier admonishment and the records and findings related to it. (1) Confidentiality. – Except as provided under subsection (k) of this section, the The complaint, response, records, and findings of the Committee connected to an inquiry under this section or when the legislator under inquiry requests in writing that the complaint response, and findings be made public. Once a hearing under subsection (i) of this sectior commences the complaint, response, Committee's report to the house, and all other documents offered at the hearing in conjunction with the complaint, that are not otherwise privileged or confidential under law, shall be public records. If no hearing is held, at such time as the Committee recommends sanctions to the house of which the legislator is a member, the consplaint, response, and Committee's report to the house shall be made public. (m) Reports. – The Committee shall publish annual statistics on complaints filed with or considered by the Committee, including the number of complaints filed, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the | | |
| Committee, have the matter referred as provided under subdivision (2)c. of this subsection. (k) Effect of Dismissal or Private Admonishment. – If the Committee dismisses a complaint or issues a private admonishment prior to commencing a hearing under subsection (i) of this section, the Committee shall retain its records or findings in confidence, unless the legislator under inquiry requests in writing that the records and findings be made public. If the Committee later finds that a legislator's subsequent unethical activities were similar to and the subject of an earlier private admonishment, then the Committee may make public the earlier admonishment and the records and findings related to it. (1) Confidentiality. – Except as provided under subsection (k) of this section, the The complaint, response, records, and findings of the Committee connected to an inquiry under this section shall be confidential and not matters of public record, except as otherwise provided in this section or when the legislator under inquiry requests in writing that the complaint response, and findings be made public. Once a hearing under subsection (i) of this sectior commences the complaint, response, Committee's report to the house, and all other documents offered at the hearing in conjunction with the complaint, that are not otherwise privileged or confidential under law, shall be public records. If no hearing is held, at such time as the Committee recommends sanctions to the house of which the legislator is a member, the complaint, response, and Committee's report to the house shall be made public. (m) Concurrent Jurisdiction. – Any action or lack of action by the Committee under this section shall not limit the right of each house of the General Assembly to discipline or to expe- its members. (n) Reports. – The Committee shall publish annual statistics on complaints filed with or complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred for criminal prosecution, and the number of com | | |
| this subsection. (k) Effect of Dismissal or Private Admonishment. – If the Committee dismisses a complaint or issues a private admonishment prior to commencing a hearing under subsection (i) of this section, the Committee shall retain its records on findings in confidence, unless the legislator under inquiry requests in writing that the records and findings be made public. If the Committee later finds that a legislator's subsequent unethical activities were similar to and the subject of an earlier private admonishment, then the Committee may make public the earlier admonishment and the records and findings related to it. (1) Confidentiality. – Except as provided under subsection (k) of this section, the The complaint, response, records, and findings of the Committee connected to an inquiry under this section shall be confidential and not matters of public record, except as otherwise provided ir this section or when the legislator under inquiry requests in writing that the complaint response, and findings be made public. Once a hearing under subsection (i) of this sectior commences the complaint, response, Committee's report to the house, and all other documents offered at the hearing in conjunction with the complaint, that are not otherwise privileged or confidential under law, shall be public records. If no hearing is held, at such time as the Committee recommends sanctions to the house of which the legislator is a member, the complaint, response, and Committee's report to the house shall be made public. (m) Concurrent Jurisdiction. – Any action or lack of action by the Committee under this section shall not limit the right of each house of the General Assembly to discipline or to expe its members. (a) Reports. – The Committee shall publish annual statistics on complaints filed with or considered by the Committee, including the number of complaints pending action by the Committee." SECTION 2. G.S. 120-104(e) reads as rewritten: "(e) The Committee may interpret this Article and Chapter 138A of the General | | |
| (k) Effect of Dismissal or Private Admonishment. – If the Committee dismisses a complaint or issues a private admonishment prior to commencing a hearing under subsection (i) of this section, the Committee shall retain its records or findings in confidence, unless the legislator under inquiry requests in writing that the records and findings be made public. If the Committee later finds that a legislator's subsequent unethical activities were similar to and the subject of an earlier private admonishment, then the Committee may make public the earlier admonishment and the records and findings related to it. (1) Confidentiality. – Except as provided under subsection (k) of this section, the The complaint, response, records, and findings of the Committee connected to an inquiry under this section shall be confidential and not matters of public record, except as otherwise provided in this section or when the legislator under inquiry requests in writing that the complaint response, and findings be made public. Once a hearing under subsection (i) of this sectior commences the complaint, response, Committee's report to the house, and all other documents offered at the hearing in conjunction with the complaint, that are not otherwise privileged or confidential under law, shall be public records. If no hearing is held, at such time as the complaint, response, and Committee's report to the house shall be made public. (m) Concurrent Jurisdiction. – Any action or lack of action by the Committee under this section shall not limit the right of each house of the General Assembly to discipline or to experits members. (n) Reports. – The Committee shall publish annual statistics on complaints filed with or considered by the Committee, including the number of complaints filed, the number of complaints dismissed, the number of complaints resulting in admonishment, the number of complaints efferted to referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred for criminal pro | | |
| complaint or issues a private admonishment prior to commencing a hearing under subsection (i) of this section, the Committee shall retain its records or findings in confidence, unless the legislator under inquiry requests in writing that the records and findings be made public. If the Committee later finds that a legislator's subsequent unethical activities were similar to and the subject of an earlier private admonishment, then the Committee may make public the earlier admonishment and the records and findings related to it. (1) Confidentiality. – Except as provided under subsection (k) of this section, the The complaint, response, records, and findings of the Committee connected to an inquiry under this section or when the legislator under inquiry requests in writing that the complaint response, and findings be made public. Once a hearing under subsection (i) of this sectior commences the complaint, response, Committee's report to the house, and all other documents offered at the hearing in conjunction with the complaint, that are not otherwise privileged or confidential under law, shall be public records. If no hearing is held, at such time as the Committee recommends sanctions to the house of which the legislator is a member, the section shall not limit the right of each house of the General Assembly to discipline or to expet its members. (n) Reports. – The Committee shall publish annual statistics on complaints filed with or considered by the Committee, including the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate | | |
| of this section, the Committee shall retain its records or findings in confidence, unless the legislator under inquiry requests in writing that the records and findings be made public. If the Committee later finds that a legislator's subsequent unethical activities were similar to and the subject of an earlier private admonishment, then the Committee may make public the earlier admonishment and the records and findings related to it. (1) Confidentiality. – Except as provided under subsection (k) of this section, the The complaint, response, records, and findings of the Committee connected to an inquiry under this section shall be confidential and not matters of public record, except as otherwise provided ir this section or when the legislator under inquiry requests in writing that the complaint response, and findings be made public. Once a hearing under subsection (i) of this sectior commences the complaint, response, Committee's report to the house, and all other documents offered at the hearing in conjunction with the complaint, that are not otherwise privileged or confidential under law, shall be public records. If no hearing is held, at such time as the Committee recommends sanctions to the house of which the legislator is a member, the complaint, response, and Committee's report to the house shall be mode public. (m) Concurrent Jurisdiction. – Any action or lack of action by the Committee under this section shall not limit the right of each house of the General Assembly to discipline or to expet its members. (a) Reports. – The Committee shall publish annual statistics on complaints filed with or complaints referred for criminal prosecution, and the number of complaints pending action by the Committee." SECTION 2. G.S. 120-104(e) reads as rewritten: "(e) The Committee may interpret this Article and Chapter 138A of the General Statutes as it applies to legislators, except the Lieutenat Governor, and these interpretations are binding on all legislators upon publication." SECTION 3. Section 2 of this act | | |
| legislator under inquiry requests in writing that the records and findings be made public. If the Committee later finds that a legislator's subsequent unethical activities were similar to and the subject of an earlier private admonishment, then the Committee may make public the earlier admonishment and the records and findings related to it. Confidentiality. – Except as provided under subsection (k) of this section, the The complaint, response, records, and findings of the Committee connected to an inquiry under this section shall be confidential and not matters of public record, except as otherwise provided in this section or when the legislator under inquiry requests in writing that the complaint response, and findings be made public. Once a hearing under subsection (i) of this sectior commences the complaint, response, Committee's report to the house, and all other documents offered at the hearing in conjunction with the complaint, that are not otherwise privileged or confidential under law, shall be public records. If no hearing is held, at such time as the Committee recommends sanctions to the house of which the legislator is a member, the complaint, response, and Committee's report to the house shall be made public. Concurrent Jurisdiction. – Any action or lack of action by the Committee under this section shall not limit the right of each house of the General Assembly to discipline or to experits members. Reports. – The Committee shall publish annual statistics on complaints filed with or complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred to t | | |
| Committee later finds that a legislator's subsequent unethical activities were similar to and the subject of an earlier private admonishment, then the Committee may make public the earlier admonishment and the records and findings related to it. (1) Confidentiality. – Except as provided under subsection (k) of this section, the The complaint, response, records, and findings of the Committee connected to an inquiry under this section shall be confidential and not matters of public record, except as otherwise provided in this section or when the legislator under inquiry requests in writing that the complaint response, and findings be made public. Once a hearing under subsection (i) of this sectior commences the complaint, response, Committee's report to the house, and all other documents offered at the hearing in conjunction with the complaint, that are not otherwise privileged or confidential under law, shall be public records. If no hearing is held, at such time as the Committee recommends sanctions to the house of which the legislator is a member, the complaint, response, and Committee's report to the house shall be made public. (m) Concurrent Jurisdiction. – Any action or lack of action by the Committee under this section shall not limit the right of each house of the General Assembly to discipline or to experits members. (n) Reports. – The Committee shall publish annual statistics on complaints filed with or complaints dismissed, the number of complaints resulting in admonishment, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred for criminal prosecution, and the number and age of complaints pending action by the Committee." SECTION 2. G.S. 120-104(e) reads as rewritten: "(e) The Committee may interpret this Article and Chapter 138A of the General Statutes as it applies to legislators, except the Lieutenant Governor, and these interpretations are binding on all legislators upon publication." SECTION 3. Section 2 of this act becomes effect | | • |
| subject of an earlier private admonishment, then the Committee may make public the earlier admonishment and the records and findings related to it. (1) Confidentiality. – Except as provided under subsection (k) of this section, the The complaint, response, records, and findings of the Committee connected to an inquiry under this section shall be confidential and not matters of public record, except as otherwise provided in this section or when the legislator under inquiry requests in writing that the complaint response, and findings be made public. Once a hearing under subsection (i) of this sectior commences the complaint, response, Committee's report to the house, and all other documents offered at the hearing in conjunction with the complaint, that are not otherwise privileged or confidential under law, shall be public records. If no hearing is held, at such time as the Committee recommends sanctions to the house of which the legislator is a member, the complaint, response, and Committee's report to the house shall be made public. (m) Concurrent Jurisdiction. – Any action or lack of action by the Committee under this section shall not limit the right of each house of the General Assembly to discipline or to experits members. (n) Reports. – The Committee shall publish annual statistics on complaints filed with or considered by the Committee, including the number of complaints filed, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complai | | |
| admonishment and the records and findings related to it. (1) Confidentiality. – Except as provided under subsection (k) of this section, the The complaint, response, records, and findings of the Committee connected to an inquiry under this section shall be confidential and not matters of public record, except as otherwise provided in this section or when the legislator under inquiry requests in writing that the complaint response, and findings be made public. Once a hearing under subsection (i) of this sectior commences the complaint, response, Committee's report to the house, and all other documents offered at the hearing in conjunction with the complaint, that are not otherwise privileged or confidential under law, shall be public records. If no hearing is held, at such time as the Committee recommends sanctions to the house of which the legislator is a member, the complaint, response, and Committee's report to the house shall be made public. (m) Concurrent Jurisdiction. – Any action or lack of action by the Committee under this section shall not limit the right of each house of the General Assembly to discipline or to expec- its members. (n) Reports. – The Committee shall publish annual statistics on complaints filed with or complaints dismissed, the number of complaints resulting in admonishment, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred for criminal prosecution, and the number and age of complaints pending action by the Committee." SECTION 2. G.S. 120-104(e) reads as rewritten: "(e) The Committee may interpret this Article and Chapter 138A of the General Statutes as it applies to legislators, except the Lieutenant Governor, and these interpretations are binding on all legislators upon publication." SECTION 3. Section 2 of this act becomes effective January 1, 2007, and applies to Advisory Opinions issued by the Legislative Ethics Committee on or after that date. The | | |
| Confidentiality. – Except as provided under subsection (k) of this section, the The complaint, response, records, and findings of the Committee connected to an inquiry under this section shall be confidential and not matters of public record, except as otherwise provided in this section or when the legislator under inquiry requests in writing that the complaint response, and findings be made public. Once a hearing under subsection (i) of this sectior commences the complaint, response, Committee's report to the house, and all other documents offered at the hearing in conjunction with the complaint, that are not otherwise privileged or confidential under law, shall be public records. If no hearing is held, at such time as the Committee recommends sanctions to the house of which the legislator is a member, the complaint, response, and Committee's report to the house shall be made public. (m) Concurrent Jurisdiction. – Any action or lack of action by the Committee under this section shall not limit the right of each house of the General Assembly to discipline or to experits members. (n) Reports. – The Committee shall publish annual statistics on complaints filed with or considered by the Committee, including the number of complaints filed, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred to legislators, except the Lieutenant Governor, and these interpretations are binding on all legislators upon publication." SECTION 3. Section 2 of this act becomes effective January 1, 2007, and applies to Advisory Opinions issued by the Legislative Ethics Committee on or after that date. The committee of publication." | | |
| complaint, response, records, and findings of the Committee connected to an inquiry under this section shall be confidential and not matters of public record, except as otherwise provided in this section or when the legislator under inquiry requests in writing that the complaint response, and findings be made public. Once a hearing under subsection (i) of this sectior commences the complaint, response, Committee's report to the house, and all other documents offered at the hearing in conjunction with the complaint, that are not otherwise privileged or confidential under law, shall be public records. If no hearing is held, at such time as the Committee recommends sanctions to the house of which the legislator is a member, the complaint, response, and Committee's report to the house shall be made public. (m) Concurrent Jurisdiction. – Any action or lack of action by the Committee under this section shall not limit the right of each house of the General Assembly to discipline or to experits members. (n) Reports. – The Committee shall publish annual statistics on complaints filed with or considered by the Committee, including the number of complaints filed, the number of complaints dismissed, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred for criminal prosecution, and the number and age of complaints pending action by the Committee as a statutes as it applies to legislators, except the Lieutenant Governor, and these interpretations are binding on all legislators upon publication." SECTION 3. Section 2 of this act becomes effective January 1, 2007, and applies to Advisory Opinions issued by the Legislative Ethics Committee on or after that date. The | | 0 |
| section shall be confidential and not matters of public record, except as otherwise provided in this section or when the legislator under inquiry requests in writing that the complaint response, and findings be made public. Once a hearing under subsection (i) of this sectior commences the complaint, response, Committee's report to the house, and all other documents offered at the hearing in conjunction with the complaint, that are not otherwise privileged or confidential under law, shall be public records. If no hearing is held, at such time as the Committee recommends sanctions to the house of which the legislator is a member, the complaint, response, and Committee's report to the house shall be made public. (m) Concurrent Jurisdiction. – Any action or lack of action by the Committee under this section shall not limit the right of each house of the General Assembly to discipline or to experit is members. (n) Reports. – The Committee shall publish annual statistics on complaints filed with or considered by the Committee, including the number of complaints filed, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred for criminal prosecution, and the number and age of complaints pending action by the Committee." (e) The Committee may interpret this Article and Chapter 138A of the General Statutes as it applies to legislators, except the Lieutenant Governor, and these interpretations are binding on all legislators upon publication." SECTION 3. Section 2 of this act becomes effective January 1, 2007, and applies to Advisory Opinions issued by the Legislative Ethics Committee on or after that date. The | | |
| this section or when the legislator under inquiry requests in writing that the complaint response, and findings be made public. Once a hearing under subsection (i) of this sectior commences the complaint, response, Committee's report to the house, and all other documents offered at the hearing in conjunction with the complaint, that are not otherwise privileged or confidential under law, shall be public records. If no hearing is held, at such time as the Committee recommends sanctions to the house of which the legislator is a member, the complaint, response, and Committee's report to the house shall be made public. (m) Concurrent Jurisdiction. – Any action or lack of action by the Committee under this section shall not limit the right of each house of the General Assembly to discipline or to experits members. (n) Reports. – The Committee shall publish annual statistics on complaints filed with or considered by the Committee, including the number of complaints filed, the number of complaints dismissed, the number of complaints resulting in admonishment, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred for criminal prosecution, and the number and age of complaints pending action by the Committee." SECTION 2. G.S. 120-104(e) reads as rewritten: "(e) The Committee may interpret this Article and Chapter 138A of the General Statutes as it applies to legislators, except the Lieutenant Governor, and these interpretations are binding on all legislators upon publication." SECTION 3. Section 2 of this act becomes effective January 1, 2007, and applies to Advisory Opinions issued by the Legislative Ethics Committee on or after that date. The | | |
| response, and findings be made public. Once a hearing under subsection (i) of this section commences the complaint, response, Committee's report to the house, and all other documents offered at the hearing in conjunction with the complaint, that are not otherwise privileged of confidential under law, shall be public records. If no hearing is held, at such time as the Committee recommends sanctions to the house of which the legislator is a member, the complaint, response, and Committee's report to the house shall be made public. (m) Concurrent Jurisdiction. – Any action or lack of action by the Committee under this section shall not limit the right of each house of the General Assembly to discipline or to expe- its members. (n) Reports. – The Committee shall publish annual statistics on complaints filed with or considered by the Committee, including the number of complaints filed, the number of complaints dismissed, the number of complaints resulting in admonishment, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred for criminal prosecution, and the number and age of complaints pending action by the Committee." SECTION 2. G.S. 120-104(e) reads as rewritten: "(e) The Committee may interpret this Article and Chapter 138A of the General Statutes as it applies to legislators, except the Lieutenant Governor, and these interpretations are binding on all legislators upon publication." SECTION 3. Section 2 of this act becomes effective January 1, 2007, and applies to Advisory Opinions issued by the Legislative Ethics Committee on or after that date. The | | |
| commences the complaint, response, Committee's report to the house, and all other documents offered at the hearing in conjunction with the complaint, that are not otherwise privileged of confidential under law, shall be public records. If no hearing is held, at such time as the Committee recommends sanctions to the house of which the legislator is a member, the complaint, response, and Committee's report to the house shall be made public. (m) Concurrent Jurisdiction. – Any action or lack of action by the Committee under this section shall not limit the right of each house of the General Assembly to discipline or to expe- its members. (n) Reports. – The Committee shall publish annual statistics on complaints filed with or considered by the Committee, including the number of complaints filed, the number of complaints dismissed, the number of complaints resulting in admonishment, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred for criminal prosecution, and the number and age of complaints pending action by the Committee." SECTION 2. G.S. 120-104(e) reads as rewritten: "(e) The Committee may interpret this Article and Chapter 138A of the General Statutes as it applies to legislators, except the Lieutenant Governor, and these interpretations are binding on all legislators upon publication." SECTION 3. Section 2 of this act becomes effective January 1, 2007, and applies to Advisory Opinions issued by the Legislative Ethics Committee on or after that date. The | | |
| offered at the hearing in conjunction with the complaint, that are not otherwise privileged or confidential under law, shall be public records. If no hearing is held, at such time as the Committee recommends sanctions to the house of which the legislator is a member, the complaint, response, and Committee's report to the house shall be made public. (m) Concurrent Jurisdiction. – Any action or lack of action by the Committee under this section shall not limit the right of each house of the General Assembly to discipline or to expe- its members. (n) Reports. – The Committee shall publish annual statistics on complaints filed with or considered by the Committee, including the number of complaints filed, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred for criminal prosecution, and the number and age of complaints pending action by the Committee." SECTION 2. G.S. 120-104(e) reads as rewritten: "(e) The Committee may interpret this Article and Chapter 138A of the General Statutes as it applies to legislators, except the Lieutenant Governor, and these interpretations are binding on all legislators upon publication." SECTION 3. Section 2 of this act becomes effective January 1, 2007, and applies to Advisory Opinions issued by the Legislative Ethics Committee on or after that date. The | | |
| confidential under law, shall be public records. If no hearing is held, at such time as the Committee recommends sanctions to the house of which the legislator is a member, the complaint, response, and Committee's report to the house shall be made public. (m) Concurrent Jurisdiction. – Any action or lack of action by the Committee under this section shall not limit the right of each house of the General Assembly to discipline or to experits members. (n) Reports. – The Committee shall publish annual statistics on complaints filed with or considered by the Committee, including the number of complaints filed, the number of complaints dismissed, the number of complaints resulting in admonishment, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred for criminal prosecution, and the number and age of complaints pending action by the Committee." SECTION 2. G.S. 120-104(e) reads as rewritten: "(e) The Committee may interpret this Article and Chapter 138A of the General Statutes as it applies to legislators, except the Lieutenant Governor, and these interpretations are binding on all legislators upon publication." SECTION 3. Section 2 of this act becomes effective January 1, 2007, and applies to Advisory Opinions issued by the Legislative Ethics Committee on or after that date. The | | |
| Committee recommends sanctions to the house of which the legislator is a member, the complaint, response, and Committee's report to the house shall be made public. (m) Concurrent Jurisdiction. – Any action or lack of action by the Committee under this section shall not limit the right of each house of the General Assembly to discipline or to experits members. (n) Reports. – The Committee shall publish annual statistics on complaints filed with or considered by the Committee, including the number of complaints filed, the number of complaints dismissed, the number of complaints resulting in admonishment, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred for criminal prosecution, and the number and age of complaints pending action by the Committee." SECTION 2. G.S. 120-104(e) reads as rewritten: "(e) The Committee may interpret this Article and Chapter 138A of the General Statutes as it applies to legislators, except the Lieutenant Governor, and these interpretations are binding on all legislators upon publication." SECTION 3. Section 2 of this act becomes effective January 1, 2007, and applies to Advisory Opinions issued by the Legislative Ethics Committee on or after that date. The | | |
| complaint, response, and Committee's report to the house shall be made public. (m) Concurrent Jurisdiction. – Any action or lack of action by the Committee under this section shall not limit the right of each house of the General Assembly to discipline or to experits members. (n) Reports. – The Committee shall publish annual statistics on complaints filed with or considered by the Committee, including the number of complaints filed, the number of complaints dismissed, the number of complaints resulting in admonishment, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred for criminal prosecution, and the number and age of complaints pending action by the Committee." SECTION 2. G.S. 120-104(e) reads as rewritten: "(e) The Committee may interpret this Article and Chapter 138A of the General Statutes as it applies to legislators, except the Lieutenant Governor, and these interpretations are binding on all legislators upon publication." SECTION 3. Section 2 of this act becomes effective January 1, 2007, and applies to Advisory Opinions issued by the Legislative Ethics Committee on or after that date. The | | |
| (m) Concurrent Jurisdiction. – Any action or lack of action by the Committee under this section shall not limit the right of each house of the General Assembly to discipline or to experits members. (n) Reports. – The Committee shall publish annual statistics on complaints filed with or considered by the Committee, including the number of complaints filed, the number of complaints dismissed, the number of complaints resulting in admonishment, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred for criminal prosecution, and the number and age of complaints pending action by the Committee." SECTION 2. G.S. 120-104(e) reads as rewritten: "(e) The Committee may interpret this Article and Chapter 138A of the General Statutes as it applies to legislators, except the Lieutenant Governor, and these interpretations are binding on all legislators upon publication." SECTION 3. Section 2 of this act becomes effective January 1, 2007, and applies to Advisory Opinions issued by the Legislative Ethics Committee on or after that date. The | | |
| section shall not limit the right of each house of the General Assembly to discipline or to experits members. (n) Reports. – The Committee shall publish annual statistics on complaints filed with or considered by the Committee, including the number of complaints filed, the number of complaints dismissed, the number of complaints resulting in admonishment, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred for criminal prosecution, and the number and age of complaints pending action by the Committee." SECTION 2. G.S. 120-104(e) reads as rewritten: "(e) The Committee may interpret this Article and Chapter 138A of the General Statutes as it applies to legislators, except the Lieutenant Governor, and these interpretations are binding on all legislators upon publication." SECTION 3. Section 2 of this act becomes effective January 1, 2007, and applies to Advisory Opinions issued by the Legislative Ethics Committee on or after that date. The | | |
| its members. (n) Reports. – The Committee shall publish annual statistics on complaints filed with or considered by the Committee, including the number of complaints filed, the number of complaints dismissed, the number of complaints resulting in admonishment, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred for criminal prosecution, and the number and age of complaints pending action by the Committee." SECTION 2. G.S. 120-104(e) reads as rewritten: "(e) The Committee may interpret this Article and Chapter 138A of the General Statutes as it applies to legislators, except the Lieutenant Governor, and these interpretations are binding on all legislators upon publication." SECTION 3. Section 2 of this act becomes effective January 1, 2007, and applies to Advisory Opinions issued by the Legislative Ethics Committee on or after that date. The | | |
| (n) Reports. – The Committee shall publish annual statistics on complaints filed with or considered by the Committee, including the number of complaints filed, the number of complaints dismissed, the number of complaints resulting in admonishment, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred for criminal prosecution, and the number and age of complaints pending action by the Committee." SECTION 2. G.S. 120-104(e) reads as rewritten: "(e) The Committee may interpret this Article and Chapter 138A of the General Statutes as it applies to legislators, except the Lieutenant Governor, and these interpretations are binding on all legislators upon publication." SECTION 3. Section 2 of this act becomes effective January 1, 2007, and applies to Advisory Opinions issued by the Legislative Ethics Committee on or after that date. The | | |
| considered by the Committee, including the number of complaints filed, the number of complaints dismissed, the number of complaints resulting in admonishment, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred for criminal prosecution, and the number and age of complaints pending action by the Committee." SECTION 2. G.S. 120-104(e) reads as rewritten: "(e) The Committee may interpret this Article and Chapter 138A of the General Statutes as it applies to legislators, except the Lieutenant Governor, and these interpretations are binding on all legislators upon publication." SECTION 3. Section 2 of this act becomes effective January 1, 2007, and applies to Advisory Opinions issued by the Legislative Ethics Committee on or after that date. The | | |
| complaints dismissed, the number of complaints resulting in admonishment, the number of complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred for criminal prosecution, and the number and age of complaints pending action by the Committee." SECTION 2. G.S. 120-104(e) reads as rewritten: "(e) The Committee may interpret this Article and Chapter 138A of the General Statutes as it applies to legislators, except the Lieutenant Governor, and these interpretations are binding on all legislators upon publication." SECTION 3. Section 2 of this act becomes effective January 1, 2007, and applies to Advisory Opinions issued by the Legislative Ethics Committee on or after that date. The | | |
| complaints referred to the appropriate house for appropriate action, the number of complaints referred for criminal prosecution, and the number and age of complaints pending action by the Committee." SECTION 2. G.S. 120-104(e) reads as rewritten: (e) The Committee may interpret this Article and Chapter 138A of the General Statutes as it applies to legislators, except the Lieutenant Governor, and these interpretations are binding on all legislators upon publication." SECTION 3. Section 2 of this act becomes effective January 1, 2007, and applies to Advisory Opinions issued by the Legislative Ethics Committee on or after that date. The | | |
| referred for criminal prosecution, and the number and age of complaints pending action by the Committee." SECTION 2. G.S. 120-104(e) reads as rewritten: "(e) The Committee may interpret this Article and Chapter 138A of the General Statutes as it applies to legislators, except the Lieutenant Governor, and these interpretations are binding on all legislators upon publication." SECTION 3. Section 2 of this act becomes effective January 1, 2007, and applies to Advisory Opinions issued by the Legislative Ethics Committee on or after that date. The | | |
| Committee." SECTION 2. G.S. 120-104(e) reads as rewritten: "(e) The Committee may interpret this Article and Chapter 138A of the General Statutes as it applies to legislators, except the Lieutenant Governor, and these interpretations are binding on all legislators upon publication." SECTION 3. Section 2 of this act becomes effective January 1, 2007, and applies to Advisory Opinions issued by the Legislative Ethics Committee on or after that date. The | | |
| "(e) The Committee may interpret this Article and Chapter 138A of the General Statutes as it applies to legislators, except the Lieutenant Governor, and these interpretations are binding on all legislators upon publication." SECTION 3. Section 2 of this act becomes effective January 1, 2007, and applies to Advisory Opinions issued by the Legislative Ethics Committee on or after that date. The | | |
| as it applies to legislators, except the Lieutenant Governor, and these interpretations are binding on all legislators upon publication." SECTION 3. Section 2 of this act becomes effective January 1, 2007, and applies to Advisory Opinions issued by the Legislative Ethics Committee on or after that date. The | | SECTION 2. G.S. 120-104(e) reads as rewritten: |
| on all legislators upon publication." SECTION 3. Section 2 of this act becomes effective January 1, 2007, and applies to Advisory Opinions issued by the Legislative Ethics Committee on or after that date. The | | "(e) The Committee may interpret this Article and Chapter 138A of the General Statutes |
| SECTION 3. Section 2 of this act becomes effective January 1, 2007, and applies to Advisory Opinions issued by the Legislative Ethics Committee on or after that date. The | | as it applies to legislators, except the Lieutenant Governor, and these interpretations are binding |
| to Advisory Opinions issued by the Legislative Ethics Committee on or after that date. The | | on all legislators upon publication." |
| | | SECTION 3. Section 2 of this act becomes effective January 1, 2007, and applies |
| remainder of the act is effective when it becomes law. | | to Advisory Opinions issued by the Legislative Ethics Committee on or after that date. The |
| | | remainder of the act is effective when it becomes law. |
| | Ļ | Temander of the act is effective when it becomes faw. |