GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA SESSION 2015

H HOUSE BILL 701*

the issues related to staffing the public schools with an adequate number of school nurses to meet the needs of students. The LRC may consider at least the following in its study: (1) The current staffing levels of nurses in the public schools. (2) The appropriate goals for providing an adequate number of school nurses in each local school administrative unit depending on various factors, such as size of the unit, geographic location, and the number of students with special medical needs. (3) Any current initiatives on the State or local level to address a shortage of school nurses. (4) Funding options for increasing the number of school nurses to serve public schools, including the variation and amount of funding that comes from	Short Title:	School Nurses/LRC Study.	Public)
Referred to: Rules, Calendar, and Operations of the House. April 15, 2015 A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE LEGISLATIVE RESEARCH COMMISSION TO STUDY ISSUES RELATED TO STAFFING THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS WITH AN ADEQUATE NUMBER OF SCHOOL NURSES TO MEET THE NEEDS OF STUDENTS. The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts: SECTION 1. The Legislative Research Commission (LRC) is authorized to study the issues related to staffing the public schools with an adequate number of school nurses to meet the needs of students. The LRC may consider at least the following in its study: (1) The current staffing levels of nurses in the public schools. (2) The appropriate goals for providing an adequate number of school nurses in each local school administrative unit depending on various factors, such as size of the unit, geographic location, and the number of students with special medical needs. (3) Any current initiatives on the State or local level to address a shortage of school nurses. (4) Funding options for increasing the number of school nurses to serve public schools, including the variation and amount of funding that comes from	Sponsors:	Representatives Adcock, Glazier, Meyer, and Gill (Primary Sponsors).
A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE LEGISLATIVE RESEARCH COMMISSION TO STUDY ISSUES RELATED TO STAFFING THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS WITH AN ADEQUATE NUMBER OF SCHOOL NURSES TO MEET THE NEEDS OF STUDENTS. The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts: SECTION 1. The Legislative Research Commission (LRC) is authorized to study the issues related to staffing the public schools with an adequate number of school nurses to meet the needs of students. The LRC may consider at least the following in its study: (1) The current staffing levels of nurses in the public schools. (2) The appropriate goals for providing an adequate number of school nurses in each local school administrative unit depending on various factors, such as size of the unit, geographic location, and the number of students with special medical needs. (3) Any current initiatives on the State or local level to address a shortage of school nurses. (4) Funding options for increasing the number of school nurses to serve public schools, including the variation and amount of funding that comes from		For a complete list of Sponsors, refer to the North Carolina General Assembly Web S	Site.
A BILL TO BE ENTITLED AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE LEGISLATIVE RESEARCH COMMISSION TO STUDY ISSUES RELATED TO STAFFING THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS WITH AN ADEQUATE NUMBER OF SCHOOL NURSES TO MEET THE NEEDS OF STUDENTS. The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts: SECTION 1. The Legislative Research Commission (LRC) is authorized to study the issues related to staffing the public schools with an adequate number of school nurses to meet the needs of students. The LRC may consider at least the following in its study: (1) The current staffing levels of nurses in the public schools. (2) The appropriate goals for providing an adequate number of school nurses in each local school administrative unit depending on various factors, such as size of the unit, geographic location, and the number of students with special medical needs. (3) Any current initiatives on the State or local level to address a shortage of school nurses. (4) Funding options for increasing the number of school nurses to serve public schools, including the variation and amount of funding that comes from	Referred to:	Rules, Calendar, and Operations of the House.
AN ACT TO AUTHORIZE THE LEGISLATIVE RESEARCH COMMISSION TO STUDY ISSUES RELATED TO STAFFING THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS WITH AN ADEQUATE NUMBER OF SCHOOL NURSES TO MEET THE NEEDS OF STUDENTS. The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts: SECTION 1. The Legislative Research Commission (LRC) is authorized to study the issues related to staffing the public schools with an adequate number of school nurses to meet the needs of students. The LRC may consider at least the following in its study: (1) The current staffing levels of nurses in the public schools. (2) The appropriate goals for providing an adequate number of school nurses in each local school administrative unit depending on various factors, such as size of the unit, geographic location, and the number of students with special medical needs. (3) Any current initiatives on the State or local level to address a shortage of school nurses. (4) Funding options for increasing the number of school nurses to serve public schools, including the variation and amount of funding that comes from	April 15, 2015
ISSUES RELATED TO STAFFING THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS WITH AN ADEQUATE NUMBER OF SCHOOL NURSES TO MEET THE NEEDS OF STUDENTS. The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts: SECTION 1. The Legislative Research Commission (LRC) is authorized to study the issues related to staffing the public schools with an adequate number of school nurses to meet the needs of students. The LRC may consider at least the following in its study: (1) The current staffing levels of nurses in the public schools. (2) The appropriate goals for providing an adequate number of school nurses in each local school administrative unit depending on various factors, such as size of the unit, geographic location, and the number of students with special medical needs. (3) Any current initiatives on the State or local level to address a shortage of school nurses. (4) Funding options for increasing the number of school nurses to serve public schools, including the variation and amount of funding that comes from	A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
NUMBER OF SCHOOL NURSES TO MEET THE NEEDS OF STUDENTS. The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts: SECTION 1. The Legislative Research Commission (LRC) is authorized to study the issues related to staffing the public schools with an adequate number of school nurses to meet the needs of students. The LRC may consider at least the following in its study: (1) The current staffing levels of nurses in the public schools. (2) The appropriate goals for providing an adequate number of school nurses in each local school administrative unit depending on various factors, such as size of the unit, geographic location, and the number of students with special medical needs. (3) Any current initiatives on the State or local level to address a shortage of school nurses. (4) Funding options for increasing the number of school nurses to serve public schools, including the variation and amount of funding that comes from	AN ACT TO	O AUTHORIZE THE LEGISLATIVE RESEARCH COMMISSION TO S'	TUDY
The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts: SECTION 1. The Legislative Research Commission (LRC) is authorized to study the issues related to staffing the public schools with an adequate number of school nurses to meet the needs of students. The LRC may consider at least the following in its study: (1) The current staffing levels of nurses in the public schools. (2) The appropriate goals for providing an adequate number of school nurses in each local school administrative unit depending on various factors, such as size of the unit, geographic location, and the number of students with special medical needs. (3) Any current initiatives on the State or local level to address a shortage of school nurses. (4) Funding options for increasing the number of school nurses to serve public schools, including the variation and amount of funding that comes from	ISSUES RELATED TO STAFFING THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS WITH AN ADEQUATE section 1. The Legislative Research Commission (LRC) is authorized to study the issues related to staffing the public schools with an adequate number of school nurses to meet the needs of students. The LRC may consider at least the following in its study: (1) The current staffing levels of nurses in the public schools. (2) The appropriate goals for providing an adequate number of school nurses in each local school administrative unit depending on various factors, such as size of the unit, geographic location, and the number of students with special medical needs. (3) Any current initiatives on the State or local level to address a shortage of school nurses. (4) Funding options for increasing the number of school nurses to serve public schools, including the variation and amount of funding that comes from	NUMBER OF SCHOOL NURSES TO MEET THE NEEDS OF STUDENTS.
the issues related to staffing the public schools with an adequate number of school nurses to meet the needs of students. The LRC may consider at least the following in its study: (1) The current staffing levels of nurses in the public schools. (2) The appropriate goals for providing an adequate number of school nurses in each local school administrative unit depending on various factors, such as size of the unit, geographic location, and the number of students with special medical needs. (3) Any current initiatives on the State or local level to address a shortage of school nurses. (4) Funding options for increasing the number of school nurses to serve public schools, including the variation and amount of funding that comes from	The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:
meet the needs of students. The LRC may consider at least the following in its study: (1) The current staffing levels of nurses in the public schools. (2) The appropriate goals for providing an adequate number of school nurses in each local school administrative unit depending on various factors, such as size of the unit, geographic location, and the number of students with special medical needs. (3) Any current initiatives on the State or local level to address a shortage of school nurses. (4) Funding options for increasing the number of school nurses to serve public schools, including the variation and amount of funding that comes from	SECTION 1. The Legislative Research Commission (LRC) is authorized to study
 The current staffing levels of nurses in the public schools. The appropriate goals for providing an adequate number of school nurses in each local school administrative unit depending on various factors, such as size of the unit, geographic location, and the number of students with special medical needs. Any current initiatives on the State or local level to address a shortage of school nurses. Funding options for increasing the number of school nurses to serve public schools, including the variation and amount of funding that comes from
 (2) The appropriate goals for providing an adequate number of school nurses in each local school administrative unit depending on various factors, such as size of the unit, geographic location, and the number of students with special medical needs. (3) Any current initiatives on the State or local level to address a shortage of school nurses. (4) Funding options for increasing the number of school nurses to serve public schools, including the variation and amount of funding that comes from 	· · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·
each local school administrative unit depending on various factors, such as size of the unit, geographic location, and the number of students with special medical needs. (3) Any current initiatives on the State or local level to address a shortage of school nurses. (4) Funding options for increasing the number of school nurses to serve public schools, including the variation and amount of funding that comes from	`	, school nurses. (4) Funding options for increasing the number of school nurses to serve public schools, including the variation and amount of funding that comes from	(2	each local school administrative unit depending on various factors, s size of the unit, geographic location, and the number of students with s	uch as
(4) Funding options for increasing the number of school nurses to serve public schools, including the variation and amount of funding that comes from	(3		age of schools, including the variation and amount of funding that comes from · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·	(4		-

SECTION 2. The Legislative Research Commission shall report on the study to the 2015 General Assembly when it reconvenes in 2016.

SECTION 3. This act is effective when it becomes law.

