

1           (5) Making determinations regarding the preventability of maternal deaths.

2           (6) Making recommendations for the prevention of maternal deaths.

3           (7) Disseminating findings and recommendations to policy makers, health care
4           providers, health care facilities, and the general public. Reports shall include 5           aggregated, non-individually identifiable data.

6           (d) Licensed health care providers, health care facilities, and pharmacies shall provide 7           reasonable access to the committee to all relevant medical records associated with a case under 8           review by the committee. A health care provider, health care facility, or pharmacy providing 9           access to medical records pursuant to this Part shall not be held liable for civil damages or be 10           subject to any criminal or disciplinary action for good faith efforts to provide such records.

11           (e) Information, records, reports, statements, notes, memoranda, or other data collected
12           pursuant to this Part shall not be permissible as evidence in any action of any kind in any court 13           or before any other tribunal, board, agency, or person, nor shall they be exhibited nor their 14           contents disclosed in any way, in whole or in part, by any officer or representative of the 15           Department or any other person, except as may be necessary for the purpose of furthering the 16           committee's review of the case to which they relate. No person participating in such review 17           shall disclose, in any manner, the information so obtained except in strict conformity with the 18           review process.

19           (f) All information, records of interviews, written reports, statements, memoranda, or 20           other data obtained by the Department, the committee, and other persons, agencies, or 21           organizations so authorized by the Department pursuant to this Part shall be confidential.

22           (g) All proceedings and activities of the committee pursuant to this Part, opinions of 23           committee members formed as a result of such proceedings and activities, and records
24           obtained, created, or maintained pursuant to this Part, including records of interviews, written 25           reports, and statements procured by the Department or any other person, agency, or 26           organization acting jointly or under contract with the Department in connection with the 27           requirements of this Part, shall be confidential and shall not be subject to statutes relating to 28           open meetings and open records, or subject to subpoena, discovery, or introduction into 29           evidence in any civil or criminal proceeding; provided, however, that nothing in this Part shall 30           be construed to limit or restrict the right to discover or use in any civil or criminal proceeding
31           anything that is available from another source and entirely independent of the committee's 32           proceedings.

33           (h) Members of the committee shall not be questioned in any civil or criminal 34           proceeding regarding the information presented or opinions formed as a result of a meeting or 35           communication of the committee; provided, however, that nothing in this Part shall be 36           construed to prevent a member of the committee from testifying to information obtained 37           independently of the committee or which is public information."

38           SECTION 2. This act becomes effective on December 1, 2015.
