1 A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF DEAN EDWARDS
2 SMITH, LEGENDARY MEN'S BASKETBALL COACH OF THE UNIVERSITY OF 3 NORTH CAROLINA AT CHAPEL HILL.

4 Whereas, Dean Edwards Smith was born on February 28, 1931, in Emporia, Kansas, 5 to Alfred and Vesta Smith, both public school teachers; and

6 Whereas, Dean Smith graduated from Topeka High School in 1949, and attended
7 the University of Kansas on an academic scholarship, during which time he was a student 8 athlete, playing varsity basketball and baseball and freshman football, and was a member of the 9 Jayhawk basketball team that won the NCAA title in 1952, and finished second in 1953; and

10 Whereas, after graduating college in 1953, Dean Smith remained at the University 11 of Kansas, where he served as an assistant basketball coach to Phog Allen and Dick Harp; and

12 Whereas, in 1954, Dean Smith joined the U.S. Air Force, where he played and 13 coached basketball and served as an assistant basketball coach to Bob Spear, and was the head 14 coach of the Air Force Academy's baseball and golf teams; and

15 Whereas, in 1958, Dean Smith became an assistant coach to Frank McGuire at the 16 University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill (UNC) and, in 1961, at the age of 30, became the 17 head coach when Coach McGuire resigned to become head coach of the NBA's Philadelphia 18 Warriors; and

19 Whereas, in 1966, Coach Smith helped integrate UNC athletics by recruiting 20 Charles Scott, the first African-American scholarship player at the university, and one of the 21 first black athletes to sign at a major college in the South; and

22 Whereas, with a fierce winning spirit and talented players, Coach Smith guided the 23 Tar Heels in ACC play to a record of 364-136, and won 13 ACC Tournament titles, and 24 finished at least third in the ACC regular-season standings for 33 successive seasons, including 25 17 first place titles, 11 second place finishes, and five third place finishes; and

26 Whereas, the Tar Heels under Coach Smith's skilled hand, won at least 20 games in 27 each of his final 27 seasons, including 30 of his last 31, a record matched by no other coach;
28 and

29 Whereas, Coach Smith led his teams to 27 NCAA appearances, of which 23 were 30 consecutive; Sweet 16 appearances in each season from 1981 to 1993; 11 Final Four 31 appearances; NCAA championships in 1982 and 1993; and a NIT championship in 1971; and

32 Whereas, Coach Smith was instrumental in guiding the United States basketball 33 team to a gold medal at the 1976 Olympic Games; and

34 Whereas, on March 15, 1997, Coach Smith became the "all-time winningest coach"
35 in the history of NCAA Division I basketball by passing Adolph Rupp's record of 876 wins;
36 and

1 Whereas, Dean Smith retired from coaching on October 9, 1997, with a record of 2 879-254 and the distinction of having won more games than any other Division I men's 3 basketball college coach in history, a record that held until 2007; and

4 Whereas, at UNC, Coach Smith established a tradition of excellence during his 36
5 years as head coach, building an outstanding men's basketball program made up of young men
6 who succeeded not only on the basketball court but also in the classroom, where they achieved 7 a graduation rate of 95%; and

8 Whereas, Coach Smith created or perfected the run and jump and scramble 9 defenses, the team huddle before a free throw, the clenched fist to signal a needed rest from the 10 game, the acknowledgment of an assist on the court by pointing a finger at the teammate, and 11 the "Four Corners" offense that proved so effective the shot clock was instituted by the NCAA 12 in 1985; and

13 Whereas, many of Coach Smith's players went on to become professional basketball 14 players, basketball coaches, entrepreneurs, professionals, and other leaders, many of whom still 15 contribute to their communities throughout the world; and

16 Whereas, Coach Smith received numerous awards and honors, as he was named the 17 ACC coach of the year eight times, national coach of the year four times, and the Sportsman of 18 the Year by Sports Illustrated, and received the Arthur Ashe Award for Courage at the ESPY
19 Awards and the Naismith Good Sportsmanship Award; and

20 Whereas, Coach Smith was the first recipient of the Mentor Award for Lifetime
21 Achievement given by the University of North Carolina Committee on Teaching Awards for "a 22 broader range of teaching beyond the classroom," and was the recipient of the Order of the 23 Longleaf Pine in 1988 and the Presidential Medal of Freedom, the highest civilian award 24 granted by the United States government, in 2013; and

25 Whereas, Coach Smith was recognized by SportsCentury, an award winning 26 program on ESPN, as one of the top seven coaches of the 20th century, joining coaching
27 legends Red Auerbach, Bear Bryant, George Halas, Vince Lombardi, John McGraw, and John 28 Wooden; and

29 Whereas, Coach Smith was inducted into the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame in 30 1981, Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 1983, National Collegiate Basketball Hall
31 of Fame in 2006, and FIBA Hall of Fame in 2007; and

32 Whereas, Coach Smith was a very humble man who did not seek fame or fortune or 33 recognition for any of the things he did for others; and

34 Whereas, Coach Smith was a man of great character who believed in equality for 35 every citizen, and that was demonstrated over and over in his life's work, including when he, in 36 the late 1960s, integrated a segregated Chapel Hill restaurant when he walked in with his pastor 37 and black theology student; and

38 Whereas, Coach Smith was revered and loved by his players, coaching staff, and 39 members of the UNC basketball family, and was respected and admired by his peers, 40 colleagues, and UNC fans; and

41 Whereas, Coach Smith was a member of Binkley Memorial Baptist Church in 42 Chapel Hill, NC; and

43 Whereas, Dean Smith died on February 7, 2015, at the age of 83, leaving his wife,
44 Linnea; children, Sandy, Sharon, Kristen, Kelly, and Scott; seven grandchildren; and one 45 great-grandchild to mourn his loss; Now, therefore,

46 Be it resolved by the Senate, the House of Representatives concurring:

47 SECTION 1. The General Assembly honors the memory of Dean Edwards Smith,
48 former head coach of the men's basketball team at the University of North Carolina at Chapel
49 Hill, and expresses the appreciation of this State for his many contributions to the game of
