GENERAL ASSEMBLY OF NORTH CAROLINA SESSION 2017

Η

HOUSE BILL 587

Short Title:	Sanitary Districts/Projects Economic Impact.	(Public)
Sponsors:	Representatives Butler and Iler (Primary Sponsors). For a complete list of sponsors, refer to the North Carolina General Assembly we	ph site
Referred to:	State and Local Government II	b suc .

April 6, 2017

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

1	A BILL TO BE ENTITLED
2	AN ACT PROVIDING THAT THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT COMMISSION SHALL
3	CONDUCT AN ECONOMIC IMPACT STUDY OF SANITARY DISTRICT CAPITAL
4	PROJECTS THAT REQUIRE THE ESTIMATED EXPENDITURE OF TEN MILLION
5	DOLLARS OR MORE.
6	Whereas, counties and communities have an interest in providing clean water and
7	sanitary sewer services for their citizens; and
8	Whereas, it is important that water and sanitary sewer services shall be provided in
9	the most cost efficient manner; and
10	Whereas, in this State, there are often multiple sanitary districts and public
11	authorities in close proximity to one another that provide similar services; and
12	Whereas, it is appropriate to examine capital intensive projects carefully to ensure
13	that duplicitous infrastructure is not being constructed; Now, therefore,
14	The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:
15	SECTION 1. Article 2 of Chapter 130A of the General Statutes is amended by
16	adding a new section to read as follows:
10	adding a new section to read as follows.
10	" § 130A-63.1. Economic impact study required for certain capital projects.
	•
17	"§ 130A-63.1. Economic impact study required for certain capital projects.
17 18	" § 130A-63.1. Economic impact study required for certain capital projects. Prior to accepting bids on any capital project that requires the estimated expenditure of ten million dollars ($10,000,000) or more, a sanitary district board shall submit the details of the
17 18 19	" § 130A-63.1. Economic impact study required for certain capital projects. Prior to accepting bids on any capital project that requires the estimated expenditure of ten
17 18 19 20	" § 130A-63.1. Economic impact study required for certain capital projects. Prior to accepting bids on any capital project that requires the estimated expenditure of ten million dollars ($10,000,000) or more, a sanitary district board shall submit the details of the project to the Local Government Commission, which shall conduct an economic impact study
17 18 19 20 21	" § 130A-63.1. Economic impact study required for certain capital projects. Prior to accepting bids on any capital project that requires the estimated expenditure of ten million dollars ($10,000,000) or more, a sanitary district board shall submit the details of the project to the Local Government Commission, which shall conduct an economic impact study to determine the impact the completed project will have on the sanitary district's assets and
17 18 19 20 21 22	" § 130A-63.1. Economic impact study required for certain capital projects. Prior to accepting bids on any capital project that requires the estimated expenditure of ten million dollars ($10,000,000) or more, a sanitary district board shall submit the details of the project to the Local Government Commission, which shall conduct an economic impact study to determine the impact the completed project will have on the sanitary district's assets and expenditures and the assets and expenditures of neighboring local government units and public
17 18 19 20 21 22 23	" § 130A-63.1. Economic impact study required for certain capital projects. Prior to accepting bids on any capital project that requires the estimated expenditure of ten million dollars ($10,000,000) or more, a sanitary district board shall submit the details of the project to the Local Government Commission, which shall conduct an economic impact study to determine the impact the completed project will have on the sanitary district's assets and expenditures and the assets and expenditures of neighboring local government units and public authorities. The study shall also include the effect, if any, the capital project expenditures will
17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24	" § 130A-63.1. Economic impact study required for certain capital projects. Prior to accepting bids on any capital project that requires the estimated expenditure of ten million dollars ($10,000,000) or more, a sanitary district board shall submit the details of the project to the Local Government Commission, which shall conduct an economic impact study to determine the impact the completed project will have on the sanitary district's assets and expenditures and the assets and expenditures of neighboring local government units and public authorities. The study shall also include the effect, if any, the capital project expenditures will have on the cost of raw water in the sanitary district and areas served by neighboring local
17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25	" § 130A-63.1. Economic impact study required for certain capital projects. Prior to accepting bids on any capital project that requires the estimated expenditure of ten million dollars ($10,000,000) or more, a sanitary district board shall submit the details of the project to the Local Government Commission, which shall conduct an economic impact study to determine the impact the completed project will have on the sanitary district's assets and expenditures and the assets and expenditures of neighboring local government units and public authorities. The study shall also include the effect, if any, the capital project expenditures will have on the cost of raw water in the sanitary district and areas served by neighboring local government units and public authorities. The sanitary district shall submit the information
17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26	" § 130A-63.1. Economic impact study required for certain capital projects. Prior to accepting bids on any capital project that requires the estimated expenditure of ten million dollars ($10,000,000) or more, a sanitary district board shall submit the details of the project to the Local Government Commission, which shall conduct an economic impact study to determine the impact the completed project will have on the sanitary district's assets and expenditures and the assets and expenditures of neighboring local government units and public authorities. The study shall also include the effect, if any, the capital project expenditures will have on the cost of raw water in the sanitary district and areas served by neighboring local government units and public authorities. The sanitary district shall submit the information required by this section in the form and manner required by the Local Government
17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27	" § 130A-63.1. Economic impact study required for certain capital projects. Prior to accepting bids on any capital project that requires the estimated expenditure of ten million dollars ($10,000,000) or more, a sanitary district board shall submit the details of the project to the Local Government Commission, which shall conduct an economic impact study to determine the impact the completed project will have on the sanitary district's assets and expenditures and the assets and expenditures of neighboring local government units and public authorities. The study shall also include the effect, if any, the capital project expenditures will have on the cost of raw water in the sanitary district and areas served by neighboring local government units and public authorities. The sanitary district shall submit the information required by this section in the form and manner required by the Local Government Commission, which is authorized to adopt regulations to carry out its powers and duties under this section."
17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28	" § 130A-63.1. Economic impact study required for certain capital projects. Prior to accepting bids on any capital project that requires the estimated expenditure of ten million dollars ($10,000,000) or more, a sanitary district board shall submit the details of the project to the Local Government Commission, which shall conduct an economic impact study to determine the impact the completed project will have on the sanitary district's assets and expenditures and the assets and expenditures of neighboring local government units and public authorities. The study shall also include the effect, if any, the capital project expenditures will have on the cost of raw water in the sanitary district and areas served by neighboring local government units and public authorities. The sanitary district shall submit the information required by this section in the form and manner required by the Local Government Commission, which is authorized to adopt regulations to carry out its powers and duties under
17 18 19 20 21 22 23 24 25 26 27 28 29	" § 130A-63.1. Economic impact study required for certain capital projects. Prior to accepting bids on any capital project that requires the estimated expenditure of ten million dollars ($10,000,000) or more, a sanitary district board shall submit the details of the project to the Local Government Commission, which shall conduct an economic impact study to determine the impact the completed project will have on the sanitary district's assets and expenditures and the assets and expenditures of neighboring local government units and public authorities. The study shall also include the effect, if any, the capital project expenditures will have on the cost of raw water in the sanitary district and areas served by neighboring local government units and public authorities. The sanitary district shall submit the information required by this section in the form and manner required by the Local Government Commission, which is authorized to adopt regulations to carry out its powers and duties under this section."

- 33 34
- 35

