22    agreement after it is signed. Subject to subsection (c) of this section and G.S. 1-647 and 24    law process as long as the parties are in that process.

25           (b)     The parties shall file promptly with the tribunal notice in a record when a collaborative
26    law process concludes. The stay of the proceeding under subsection (a) of this section is lifted

28    collaborative law process.

30    require the parties and collaborative lawyers to provide a status report on the collaborative law
31    process and the proceeding. A status report may include only information on whether the 32    collaborative law process is ongoing or concluded. It shall not include a report, assessment,
33    evaluation, recommendation, finding, or other communication regarding a collaborative law
34    process or collaborative matter.

35           (d)     A tribunal shall not consider a communication made in violation of subsection (c) of 36    this section.

37           (e)     A tribunal shall provide parties notice and an opportunity to be heard before 38    dismissing a proceeding in which a notice of collaborative law process is filed based on delay or 39    failure to prosecute.

40    "§ 1-647. Emergency order.

41           During a collaborative law process, a party may begin a proceeding and a tribunal may issue
42    emergency orders upon motion of a party in that or an already pending proceeding to protect the 43    health, safety, welfare, or interest of a party or otherwise preserve the status quo.

44    "§ 1-648. Approval of agreement by tribunal.

45           A tribunal may approve an agreement resulting from a collaborative law process.

46    "§ 1-649. Disqualification of collaborative lawyer and lawyers in associated law firm.

47           (a)     Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c) of this section and G.S. 1-647, a 48    collaborative lawyer is disqualified from appearing before a tribunal to represent a party in a 49    proceeding related to the collaborative matter.

50           (b)     Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c) of this section and G.S. 1-647, 1-650,
51    and 1-651, a lawyer in a law firm with which the collaborative lawyer is associated is disqualified

1 from appearing before a tribunal to represent a party in a proceeding related to the collaborative
2 matter if the collaborative lawyer is disqualified from doing so under subsection (a) of this 3 section.

4 (c) A collaborative lawyer or a lawyer in a law firm with which the collaborative lawyer
5 is associated may represent a party to do any of the following:

6 (1) To ask a tribunal to approve an agreement resulting from the collaborative law
7 process.

8 (2) To seek or defend an emergency order in either a pending or newly filed 9 proceeding to protect the health, safety, welfare, or interest of a party, or 10 otherwise preserve the status quo.

11 (d) If subdivision (c)(2) of this section applies, a collaborative lawyer, or lawyer in a law
12 firm with which the collaborative lawyer is associated, may continue to represent a party:

13 (1) Until the party is represented by a successor lawyer or for no more than 30
14 days after the date any action is taken under subdivision (c)(2) of this section, 15 whichever occurs first; or

16 (2) If the parties consent to continue the collaborative law process subject to any 17 emergency order which may have been entered, in which event, any 18 proceeding as referenced in subdivision (c)(2) of this section shall be stayed 19 as provided in G.S. 1-646.

20 "§ 1-650. Low-income parties.

21 (a) The disqualification under G.S. 1-649(a) applies to a collaborative lawyer
22 representing a party with or without fee.

23 (b) After a collaborative law process concludes, another lawyer in a law firm with which
24 a collaborative lawyer disqualified under G.S. 1-649(a) is associated may represent a party
25 without fee in the collaborative matter or a matter related to the collaborative matter if all of the 26 following apply:

27 (1) The party has an annual income that qualifies the party for free legal 28 representation under the criteria established by the law firm for free legal 29 representation.

30 (2) The collaborative law participation agreement so provides.

31 (3) The collaborative lawyer is isolated from any participation in the collaborative
32 matter or a matter related to the collaborative matter through procedures
33 within the law firm which are reasonably calculated to isolate the collaborative
34 lawyer from such participation.

35 "§ 1-651. Governmental entity as party.

36 (a) The disqualification under G.S. 1-649(a) applies to a collaborative lawyer
37 representing a party that is a government or governmental subdivision, agency, or 38 instrumentality.

39 (b) After a collaborative law process concludes, another lawyer in a law firm with which 40 the collaborative lawyer is associated may represent a government or governmental subdivision,
41 agency, or instrumentality in the collaborative matter or a matter related to the collaborative
42 matter if all of the following apply:

43 (1) The collaborative law participation agreement so provides.

44 (2) The collaborative lawyer is isolated from any participation in the collaborative
45 matter or a matter related to the collaborative matter through procedures
46 within the law firm which are reasonably calculated to isolate the collaborative
47 lawyer from such participation.

48 "§ 1-652. Disclosure of information.

49 (a) Except as provided by subsection (b) of this section or by law other than this Article,
50 during the collaborative law process, on the request of another party, a party shall make timely,
51 full, candid, and informal disclosure of all relevant information related to the collaborative matter

1 without formal discovery. A party also shall update promptly previously disclosed information
2 that has materially changed.

3 (b) The parties may define the scope and terms of the disclosure during the collaborative
4 law process.

5 "§ 1-653. Standards of professional responsibility not affected.

6 This Article does not affect the professional responsibility, obligations, and standards
7 applicable to a lawyer or other licensed professional, including rules governing the 8 confidentiality of information acquired by a lawyer during the professional relationship with a 9 client.

10 "§ 1-654. Informed consent.

11 Before a prospective party signs a collaborative law participation agreement, a prospective
12 collaborative lawyer shall do all of the following:

13 (1) Assess with the prospective party factors the lawyer reasonably believes relate 14 to whether a collaborative law process is appropriate for the prospective 15 party's matter.

16 (2) Provide the prospective party with information that the lawyer reasonably
17 believes is sufficient for the prospective party to make an informed decision 18 about the material benefits and risks of a collaborative law process as 19 compared to the material benefits and risks of other reasonably available
20 alternatives for resolving the proposed collaborative matter, such as litigation, 21 mediation, arbitration, or expert evaluation. The information provided shall 22 include the respective rules regarding privilege and confidentiality that apply
23 to each of the alternative means of resolving disputes.

24 (3) Advise the prospective party that:

25 a. After signing a collaborative law participation agreement, if a party
26 initiates a proceeding or seeks tribunal intervention in a pending
27 proceeding related to the collaborative matter, the collaborative law
28 process terminates, except as provided in G.S. 1-647.

29 b. Participation in a collaborative law process is voluntary and any party 30 has the right to terminate unilaterally a collaborative law process with 31 or without cause.

32 c. The collaborative lawyer and any lawyer in a law firm with which the 33 collaborative lawyer is associated shall not appear before a tribunal to 34 represent a party in a proceeding related to the collaborative matter,
35 except as authorized by G.S. 1-647, 1-649(c), 1-650(b), or 1-651(b).

36 "§ 1-655. No liability for decision to participate.

37 No person incurs liability, either individually or in any fiduciary, official, or other capacity,
38 with regard to the person's decision to participate or not to participate in a collaborative law
39 process.

40 "§ 1-656. Confidentiality of collaborative law communication.

41 A collaborative law communication shall not be disclosed to anyone other than a party, a 42 party's collaborative lawyer, or a nonparty participant except to the extent agreed by the parties
43 in a signed record or as provided by law of this State other than this Article.

44 "§ 1-657. Privilege against disclosure for collaborative law communication; admissibility;
45 discovery.

46 (a) Subject to G.S. 1-658 and G.S. 1-659, a collaborative law communication is 47 privileged under subsection (b) of this section, is not subject to discovery, and is not admissible
48 in evidence.

49 (b) In a proceeding, the following privileges apply:

50 (1) A party may refuse to disclose, and may prevent any other person from 51 disclosing, a collaborative law communication.

1           (2) A nonparty participant may refuse to disclose, and may prevent any other
2           person from disclosing, a collaborative law communication of the nonparty
3           participant.

4           (c) Evidence or information that is otherwise admissible or subject to discovery does not
5           become inadmissible or protected from discovery solely because of its disclosure or use in a
6           collaborative law process.

7 "§ 1-658. Waiver and preclusion of privilege.

8           (a) A privilege under G.S. 1-657 may be waived in a record or orally during a proceeding
9           if it is expressly waived by all parties and, in the case of the privilege of a nonparty participant,
10           it is also expressly waived by the nonparty participant.

11           (b) A person that makes a disclosure or representation about a collaborative law 12           communication which prejudices another person in a proceeding shall not assert a privilege under 13           G.S. 1-657, but this preclusion applies only to the extent necessary for the person prejudiced to 14           respond to the disclosure or representation.

15 "§ 1-659. Limits of privilege.

16           (a) There is no privilege under G.S. 1-657 for a collaborative law communication that is 17           any of the following:

18           (1) Available to the public under Chapter 132 of the General Statutes or made 19           during a session of a collaborative law process that is open, or is required by 20           law to be open, to the public.

21           (2) A threat or statement of a plan to inflict bodily injury or commit a crime of 22           violence.

23           (3) Intentionally used to plan a crime, commit or attempt to commit a crime, or 24           conceal an ongoing crime or ongoing criminal activity.

25           (4) In an agreement resulting from the collaborative law process, evidenced by a 26           record signed by all parties to the agreement.

27           (b) The privileges under G.S. 1-657 for a collaborative law communication do not apply
28           to the extent that a collaborative law communication is sought or offered to prove or disprove a 29           claim or complaint of professional misconduct or malpractice arising from or related to a
30           collaborative law process.

31           (c) There is no privilege under G.S. 1-657 if a tribunal finds, after a hearing in camera,
32           that the party seeking discovery or the proponent of the evidence has shown the evidence is not 33           otherwise available, the need for the evidence substantially outweighs the interest in protecting 34           confidentiality, and the collaborative law communication is sought or offered in any of the 35           following:

36           (1) A criminal action involving the prosecution of a felony.

37           (2) A proceeding seeking rescission or reformation of a contract arising out of the 38           collaborative law process or in which a defense to avoid liability on the 39           contract is asserted.

40           (d) If a collaborative law communication is subject to an exception under subsection (b)
41           or (c) of this section, only the part of the collaborative law communication necessary for the 42           application of the exception may be disclosed or admitted.

43           (e) Disclosure or admission of evidence excepted from the privilege under subsection (b)
44           or (c) of this section does not make the evidence or any other collaborative law communication
45           discoverable or admissible for any other purpose.

46           (f) The privileges under G.S. 1-657 do not apply if the parties agree in advance in a 47           signed record or, if a record of a proceeding reflects agreement by the parties, that all or part of 48           a collaborative law process is not privileged. This subsection does not apply to a collaborative
49           law communication made by a person that did not receive actual notice of the agreement before
50           the collaborative law communication was made.

51 "§ 1-660. Authority of tribunal in case of noncompliance.

1       (a) If an agreement fails to meet the requirements of G.S. 1-644 or a lawyer fails to
2 comply with G.S. 1-654, a tribunal may nonetheless find that the parties intended to enter into a
3 collaborative law participation agreement if they did both of the following:

4           (1) Signed a record indicating an intention to enter into a collaborative law
5 participation agreement.

6           (2) Reasonably believed they were participating in a collaborative law process.

7       (b) If a tribunal makes the findings specified in subsection (a) of this section and the 8 interests of justice require, the tribunal may do all of the following:

9           (1) Enforce an agreement evidenced by a record resulting from the collaborative
10 law process in which the parties participated.

11           (2) Apply the disqualification provisions in G.S. 1-645, 1-646, 1-647, 1-649,
12 1-650, and 1-651.

13           (3) Apply a privilege under G.S. 1-657.

14 "§ 1-661. Alternative dispute resolution permitted.

15       Nothing in this Article prohibits the parties from using, by mutual agreement, other forms of 16 nonadversarial alternate dispute resolution, including mediation, to reach a settlement on any of 17 the issues included in the collaborative law participation agreement. The parties' collaborative 18 lawyers may also serve as counsel for any form of nonadversarial alternate dispute resolution
19 pursued as part of the collaborative law participation agreement so long as it is not a proceeding
20 as that term is defined in G.S. 1-642(10).

21 "§ 1-662. Uniformity of application and construction.

22       In applying and construing this uniform act, consideration must be given to the need to 23 promote uniformity of the law with respect to its subject matter among states that enact it.

24 "§ 1-663. Relation to Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act.

25       This Article modifies, limits, or supersedes the federal Electronic Signatures in Global and 26 National Commerce Act, 15 U.S.C. § 7001, et seq., but does not modify, limit, or supersede
