COMMISSION PROCEEDINGS

[Back to Top]

The North Carolina Courts Commission met five times after the 2016 Regular Session of the 2015 General Assembly. The following is a brief summary of the Commission's proceedings. Detailed minutes and information concerning each Commission meeting is available in the Legislative Library.

August 22, 2016

The Commission met on August 22, 2016, at 10:30 a.m. in Room 415 of the Legislative Office Building. Representative Sarah Stevens presided. At this meeting, members discussed a number of topics for potential study by the Commission at its subsequent meetings, including: disclosure of personal identifying or contact information relating to victims and witnesses during criminal discovery; child pornography laws as they relate to teen sexting; classification of sex offenders; judicial and prosecutorial districts; magistrate appointment and supervision; court technology needs; issues with bills providing for automatic expunction of criminal offenses; raising the age of juvenile court jurisdiction; classification of motor vehicle offenses; resources available to poorer and smaller counties for dealing with drug addiction and mental health problems; resource allocation for judicial districts; and motions for appropriate relief.

Judge Athena Brooks agreed to lead a working group looking at the issue of magistrate appointment and supervision. Locke Bell, Bert Kemp, and Rep. Duane Hall were appointed to serve on a subcommittee to examine issues related to criminal and civil issues and report back to the Commission.

Before adjourning, the Commission agreed to hold additional meetings on September 16, 2016, October 21, 2016, December 9, 2016, and January 20, 2017.

September 16, 2016

The Commission met on September 16, 2016 at 10:00 a.m. in Room 543 of the Legislative Office Building, with Representative Sarah Stevens presiding.

During its morning session, the Commission heard a presentation by Will Robinson, Executive Director of the North Carolina Commission on the Administration of Law and Justice (NCCALJ) on the NCCALJ "Committee Interim Reports, Public Comment, and Next Steps."

Next, the Commission received a presentation from Rick Brajer, Secretary of the Department of Health and Human Services (DHHS) and Sonya Brown, Justice Systems Section Division of Mental Health, Developmental Disabilities, and Substance Abuse Services, DHHS, on the recommendations of the Governor's Task Force on Mental Health and Substance Use.
McKinley Wooten, Jr., Deputy Director, Program Services Division, Administrative Office of the Courts (AOC), discussed the Task Force's recommendation for continued funding of therapeutic courts, provided an updated chart on all of the problem-solving courts operating in the State, and expressed the AOC's support for the Task Force's recommendations.

Following these presentations the Commission discussed the issue of motions for appropriate relief (MAR). Messrs. Bell and Kemp discussed the history of the 2016 regular session's consideration of the bill recommended on this subject and suggested that the Commission recommend the bill again during the 2017 regular session.

Mr. Kemp also asked the Commission to again recommend funding for the North Carolina Legal Education Assistance Foundation (NC LEAF) program.

Before adjourning Chair Stevens announced that the MAR and NC LEAF matters would be taken up for a vote at the Commission's next meeting.

October 21, 2016

The Commission met at 10:00 a.m. on October 21, 2016, in Room 643 of the Legislative Office Building with Representative Sarah Stevens presiding.

The Commission first received a presentation by the Hon. Joseph M. Buckner, Chief District Court Judge, District 15B, and Caroline Ginley, Program Manager, Community Resource Court (CRC). Judge Buckner described the work of the CRC, a collaboration between Judicial District 15A and the Orange-Person-Chatham Area Program, which oversees and manages publicly funded mental health services in these three counties. Judge Buckner and Ms. Ginley also explained the eligibility requirements to participate in the Community Resource Court (CRC) and described CRC utilization and outcomes.

Commission member the Hon. Athena Brooks, Chief District Court Judge, District 29B, updated the Commission on the working group focusing on magistrate selection and supervision. Judge Brooks reported the working group may recommend action during the 2017 Session of the General Assembly to include: enacting a uniform code of conduct for magistrates; changing the date for clerks to nominate candidates for vacancies from December to January; changing the number of names that the clerk is required to present; changing the number of times the Senior Resident Superior Court Judge can ask for more names; determining whether or not there should be uniform jurisdiction for all magistrates; and establishing a grievance procedure and providing options for enforcement of the code of conduct short of removal.

The Commission next heard a report from Bert Kemp on the work of the subcommittee he co-chairs with Locke Bell examining various civil and criminal procedure issues. Mr. Kemp reported that in its last meeting representatives of the AOC, the State Bureau of Investigation (SBI), and the Department of Public Safety (DPS) discussed non-legislative ways to shorten the expunction process to less than the current 3-6 months required to obtain an expunction. The subcommittee also discussed the sex-offender registry and various issues raised by the increasing number of persons subject to post-release supervision as sex offenders.
Next, the Commission approved a motion to recommend changes to the law governing motions for appropriate relief and an appropriation of $500,000 to the Department of Justice to continue funding the NC LEAF program, as the Commission recommended in 2016.

During its afternoon session, Staff Attorney Susan Sitze, NC General Assembly Legislative Analysis Division, presented a summary of North Carolina criminal statutes relating to gang activity. Rep. Allen McNeill then described the work being done by a subcommittee of the Joint Legislative Oversight Committee on Justice and Public Safety (JPS) and invited the Commission to assist in identifying and addressing the challenges faced by law enforcement in dealing with gang-related criminal activity. The Commission also received presentations on law enforcement efforts to combat gang criminal activity from the following: Jon-Paul Guarino, GangNet Administrator, NC State Highway Patrol; Zeb Stroup, with the NC Highway Patrol; and Chuck Hastings, Detective with the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Police Department. Rep. McNeill also summarized the recommendations of the JPS subcommittee relating to the definition of gangs, gang activities, gang leaders, and gang members.

December 9, 2016

The Commission met at 10:00 a.m. on December 9, 2016, in Room 643 of the Legislative Office Building with Representative Sarah Stevens presiding.

During its morning session Rep. Duane Hall presented on raising the age of juvenile court jurisdiction. Rep. Hall explained the issues that he had sought to address by the introduction of House Bill 399 during the 2015 Regular Session. Rep. Hall listed the organizations that now support the proposed reforms. He noted most recently the North Carolina Commission on the Administration of Law and Justice (NCCALJ) has issued a report with recommendations more comprehensive than those contained in his earlier bill. Rep. Hall requested the Commission to support the recommendations of the NCCALJ committee. After discussion, the Commission voted to adopt the NCCALJ recommendations to raise the age of juvenile court jurisdiction to include youthful offenders (16- and 17-year olds) for all crimes, except Class A-E felonies and traffic offenses.

John Byrd, Director of the North Carolina State Crime Laboratory summarized the Crime Lab's FY2015-16 Annual Report, and described the fiscal challenges facing the Crime Lab. The Commission agreed to endorse the Crime Lab's funding request to the General Assembly as set forth in its annual report.

Next Brad Fowler, Planning and Organizational Development Officer, Administrative Office of the Courts presented information on criteria for consideration by the Commission in any future effort to study the reorganization of judicial and prosecutorial districts. Chair Stevens noted as a practical matter that the 2020 elections would be the earliest in which there could be any changes to districts that may be made by the General Assembly based on recommendations resulting from further Commission study of this subject.
The Commission next voted to propose for 2017 enactment legislation changing the law governing motions for appropriate relief and appropriating funds for the NC LEAF program identical to that recommended for the 2016 session. (These votes ratified the actions previously discussed at the Commission's October 21 meeting.)

Next, the Commission heard from Kevin Kelly, Chief of the Child Welfare Section, Division of Social Services, Department of Health and Human Services. Mr. Kelly responded to the Commission's request to address concerns with the potential burden on court resources resulting from a change to the Safety Planning Policy for Safety Assessments (DSS-5132) and the use of Temporary Parental Safety Agreements scheduled to take effect on January 1, 2017. After hearing concerns expressed by members about the policy change, Mr. Kelly stated that his section would issue a notice temporarily suspending the effective date of the policy change for six months in order to further study its implementation. Chair Stevens noted for the record that the policy change would be suspended for six months and that the legislature would be recommended to review it.

During its afternoon session the Commission received a presentation by Dr. Maureen Berner, Professor of Public Administration and Government, UNC School of Government, on the results of a study of whether jury pools in Judicial District 15B reflect the demographic composition of the jury-eligible population in Chatham and Orange Counties. This study was requested by the Executive Council in District 15B.

Next, Judge Athena Brooks announced the working group focusing on the appointment and supervision of magistrates will meet again on January 12, 2017 to finalize the recommendations to be presented to the Commission for consideration at its meeting on January 20, 2017.

Bert Kemp also reported the criminal and civil matters subcommittee met to discuss expunction, sex offenders, and gang-related issues. This subcommittee plans to meet one more time to finalize proposed legislation for consideration at the Commission's January 20 meeting.

Commission staff explained a bill draft prepared for the (JPS) Oversight Committee revising gang laws standardizing criteria for classifying criminal gang membership. Chair Stevens asked the civil and criminal law subcommittee to review and provide any comments at the Commission's January 20 meeting.

Chair Stevens raised the issue of changing the criminal laws providing an enhanced punishment if a rape is committed while the perpetrator displays a firearm to also apply if the perpetrator threatens the use of a firearm whether or not he actually has one in his possession. Proposed language for a bill to do this will be presented for consideration by the Commission at the January 20 meeting.

January 20, 2016

The Commission met at 10:00 a.m. on January 20, 2017, in Room 643 of the Legislative Office Building with Representative Sarah Stevens presiding.
The Commission received a report from the subcommittee examining various civil and criminal law matters recommending legislation to:

- Limit the requirement that a court attempt to identify all outstanding warrants before entering an order in a criminal case to cases in which the defendant is in custody.
- Clarify that a defendant can be convicted of attempted robbery with a dangerous weapon regardless of whether or not personal property is taken from the victim.
- Protect crime victims and witnesses by ensuring that certain discovery materials remain in the control of defense counsel and are not disseminated by the defendant.
- Require the Division of Adult Corrections and Juvenile Justice Combined Records Section to expunge from its records all entries resulting from expunged charges or convictions or certain charges dismissed upon completion of a conditional discharge.
- Provide that a person who prevails in a civil action against a private entity for unlawfully disseminating criminal history records without first updating them has a right to recover a civil penalty in addition to any damages sustained.
- Make the requirement that a person convicted of sexual battery register as a sex offender discretionary with the court.

The working group examining the appointment and supervision of magistrates recommended legislation to:

- Grant chief district judges disciplinary authority over magistrates.
- Direct the AOC to draft a code of conduct for magistrates.
- Make changes to the deadlines for nomination and appointment of magistrates.
- Mandate designation of one chief magistrate in each county with higher pay and required training.
- Remove the "emergency only" restriction upon a chief district judge's authority to assign magistrates to temporary duty outside their county of residence.

After discussion, the Commission approved its final report to the 2017 Regular Session of the 2017 General Assembly, with recommendations for legislative action as described in the report.
1. In response to the request contained in the North Carolina Crime Lab's FY-2015-2016 Annual Report, the General Assembly should appropriate $4,747,460 to the North Carolina Crime Laboratory, comprising:

The General Assembly should direct the Department of Health and Human Services to obtain prior legislative review and approval from the House Appropriations, Justice and Public Safety Committee and the Senate Appropriations on Justice and Public Safety Committee, before implementing any proposed change to the Safety Planning Policy for Safety Assessments (DSS-5132) and the use of Temporary Parental Safety Agreements.
4. The General Assembly should require the court in a criminal case to attempt to identify all outstanding warrants against a defendant prior to entry of an order in a criminal case only when the defendant is in custody, as set forth in bill draft 2017-MSz-8, enclosed at page 16 of this report.

In undertaking this study, the Courts Commission should be requested to consider the cost of redistricting, the time needed to implement any recommended changes, and the desirability of achieving one or more of the following results: coterminous administrative districts (having the same counties in each of the superior court, district court, and prosecutorial districts); electoral parity (equal power of each vote); uniformity of election processes; and uniformity in procedures for filling vacancies of judicial officials.

magistrates shall be available for the performance of their duties; however, the chief district judge may in writing delegate his authority to prescribe times and places at which magistrates in a particular county shall be available for the performance of their duties to another district court judge or the clerk of the superior court, or the judge may appoint a chief magistrate to fulfill some or all of the duties under subdivision (12) of this section and the person to whom such authority is delegated shall make monthly reports to the chief district judge of the times and places actually served by each magistrate.

(10) Designating another district judge of his district as acting chief district judge, to act during the absence or disability of the chief district judge.

(11) Designating certain magistrates to appoint counsel and accept waivers of counsel pursuant to Article 36 of this Chapter. This designation does not give any magistrate the authority to appoint counsel or accept waivers of counsel for potentially capital offenses, as defined by rules adopted by the Office of Indigent Defense Services.

(12) Designating a full-time magistrate in each county to serve as chief magistrate for that county for an indefinite term and at the judge's pleasure. The chief magistrate shall have the derivative administrative authority assigned by the chief district court judge under subdivision (4) of this section. This subdivision applies only to counties in which the chief district court judge determines that designating a chief magistrate would be in the interest of justice.

(13) Investigating complaints against magistrates. Upon investigation and written findings of misconduct, a chief district court judge may issue a letter of caution, a written reprimand, or suspend a magistrate without pay for no longer than ten days within one pay period.

SECTION 3. G.S. 7A-173 reads as rewritten:

"§ 7A-173. Suspension; suspension pending removal; removal; reinstatement.

(a) A magistrate may be suspended from performing the duties of his office by the chief district court judge of the district in which his county is located, or removed from office by the senior regular resident superior court judge of, or any regular superior court judge holding court in, the district or set of districts as defined in G.S. 7A-41.1(a) in which the county is located.
Grounds for suspension pending removal or removal are the same as for a judge of the General Court of Justice.

(b) Suspension from performing the duties of the office may be ordered upon filing of sworn written charges in the office of clerk of superior court for the county in which the magistrate resides. If the chief district judge, upon examination of the sworn charges, finds that the charges, if true, constitute grounds for removal, he may enter an order suspending the magistrate from performing the duties of his office until a final determination of the charges on the merits. During suspension pending removal the salary of the magistrate continues.

c) If a hearing, with or without suspension, is ordered, the magistrate against whom the charges have been made shall be given immediate written notice of the proceedings and a true copy of the charges, and the matter shall be set by the chief district judge for hearing before the senior regular resident superior court judge or a regular superior court judge holding court in the district or set of districts as defined in G.S. 7A-41.1(a) in which the county is located. The hearing shall be held in a county within the district or set of districts not less than 10 days nor more than 30 days after the magistrate has received a copy of the charges. The hearing shall be open to the public. All testimony offered shall be recorded. At the hearing the superior court judge shall receive evidence, and make findings of fact and conclusions of law. If the judge finds that grounds for removal exist, the judge shall enter an order permanently removing the magistrate from office, and terminating his salary. If the judge finds that no such grounds exist, the judge shall terminate the suspension, if any.

d) A magistrate may appeal from an order of removal to the Court of Appeals on the basis of error of law by the superior court judge. Pending decision of the case on appeal, the magistrate shall not perform any of the duties of his office. If, upon final determination, the judge is ordered reinstated, either by the appellate division or by the superior court on remand, his salary shall be restored from the date of the original order of removal.

e) This section shall only apply to suspensions pending removal from office and does not apply to disciplinary suspension pursuant to G.S. 7A-146.

The term of office begins on the first day of January on the first day of February of the odd numbered year after appointment. The service of an individual as a magistrate filling a vacancy as provided in subsection (d) of this section does not constitute an initial term. For purposes of this section, any term of office for a magistrate who has served a two-year term is for four years even if the two-year term of appointment was before the effective date of this section, the term is after a break in service, or the term is for appointment in a different county from the county where the two-year term of office was served.

(c) If an additional magisterial office for a county is approved to commence on January February 1 of an odd-numbered year, even numbered year, the new position shall be filled as provided in subsection (b) of this section. If the additional position takes effect at any other time, it is to be filled as provided in subsection (d) of this section.
(d) Within 30 days after a vacancy in the office of magistrate occurs the clerk of superior court shall submit to the senior regular resident superior court judge the names of two (or more, if so requested by the judge) nominees for the office vacated. Within 15 days after

December 31January 31 of the even-numbered year, and thereafter the position shall be filled as provided in subsection (b) of this section."

At sentencing, the state shall provide all appropriate and competent evidence of the person's danger to the community. Evidence to be considered may include age, criminal record, relationship to victim, and a risk assessment conducted by the Division of Adult Correction.
