A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT TO ASSIST AN INNOCENT PERSON CHARGED WITH OR WRONGLY CONVICTED OF A CRIMINAL OFFENSE IN ESTABLISHING THE PERSON'S INNOCENCE AND TO AMEND THE LAW PROVIDING COMPENSATION TO THE PERSON FOR A WRONGFUL CONVICTION.

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

SECTION 1. G.S. 15A-266.5 is amended by adding a new subsection to read:

"(c) For criminal defense purposes, the defendant, including the representative of the defendant, in a criminal action or proceeding shall have access to information in the State DNA Database or Databank relating to the number of requests previously made for a comparison search and the name and identity of the requesting party."

SECTION 2. G.S. 15A-266.10(a) reads as rewritten:

- "(a) Any person whose DNA record or profile has been included in the State Database and whose DNA sample is stored in the State Databank may apply for expungement on the grounds that the felony conviction that resulted in the inclusion of the person's DNA record or profile in the State Database or the inclusion of the person's DNA sample in the State Databank has been reversed and the case dismissed. The person, either individually or through an attorney, may apply to the court for expungement of the record as provided in G.S. 15A-146. A copy of the application for expungement shall be served on the district attorney for the judicial district in which the felony conviction was obtained not less than 20 days prior to the date of the hearing on the application. A certified copy of the order reversing and dismissing the conviction shall be attached to an order of expungement.
- (a) Upon receipt of notification of a reversal of conviction and dismissal of the case or of the granting of a pardon of an individual whose DNA record or profile has been included in the State DNA Database and whose DNA sample is stored in the State

DNA Databank, the DNA sample shall be expunged. The DNA record, and any samples, analyses, or other documents relating to the record, whether in the possession of the State DNA Database or Databank, any law enforcement or police agency, or any forensic DNA laboratory, including any duplicates or copies, shall be returned to the individual, or to the attorney who represented the individual at the time the reversal or pardon was granted. The order reversing and dismissing the conviction or the instrument granting the pardon shall be accompanied by an order of expungement, and a certified copy shall be provided to the SBI. The SBI shall adopt procedures to comply with this section."

SECTION 3. Article 13 of Chapter 15A of the General Statutes is amended by adding the following new sections to read:

"§ 15A-267. Access to DNA samples from crime scene.

- (a) A criminal defendant or the defendant's representative shall have access before trial to any DNA samples and analyses performed in connection with the case in which the defendant is charged.
- (b) The court, in response to a motion for such comparison by a defendant, shall order that DNA information from a crime scene sample obtained in the course of the investigation of an alleged crime be checked against the DNA records and profiles maintained by or available through the State DNA Database and Databank and the national DNA index system, and that the results of the check be disclosed to the defendant and to the prosecutor whose jurisdiction includes the location of the alleged commission of the crime, upon a showing by the defendant that the analysis may be material to the defendant's defense and that the request is reasonable.

"§ 15A-268. Preservation of samples of biological materials.

- (a) Notwithstanding any other provision of law and subject to subsection (b) of this section, a governmental entity that, in the course of a criminal investigation, collects evidence containing DNA shall preserve any biological material secured in connection with the criminal case for the period of time the person remains incarcerated in connection with that case. The governmental entity may determine how the evidence is retained pursuant to this section, provided that the evidence is retained in a condition suitable for DNA testing.
- (b) The governmental entity may dispose of biological material before the expiration of the period of time described in subsection (a) of this section if all the conditions set forth below are met:
 - (1) The governmental entity notifies all of the following persons of the provision of this section and of the intention of the governmental entity to dispose of the material: any person, who as a result of a felony conviction in the case is currently serving a term of imprisonment and who remains incarcerated in connection with the case, any counsel of record, the public defender in the county of conviction, the district attorney in the county of conviction, and the Attorney General.
 - (2) The notifying entity does not receive, within 90 days of sending the notification, a request under penalty of perjury that the material not be destroyed or disposed of because the declarant will file within 180 days a motion for DNA testing pursuant to G.S. 15A-269 that is 1 2 followed within 180 days by a motion for DNA testing pursuant to 3 G.S. 15A-269, unless a request for extension is requested by the 4 convicted person and agreed to by the governmental entity in 5 possession of the evidence. 6 "§ 15A-269. Request for post-conviction DNA testing. 7 A defendant may make a motion before the trial court that entered the 8 judgment of conviction in the defendant's case for performance of forensic DNA testing 9 of any biological material that: 10 Is related to the investigation or prosecution that resulted in the (1) iudgment; or 11 12 (2) Meets either of the following conditions: It was not tested previously. 13 a. It was tested previously, but the requested DNA test would 14 b. 15 provide results that are reasonably more discriminating and probative of the identity of the perpetrator or accomplice or 16 17 have a reasonable probability of contradicting prior test results. 18 (b) The court shall grant the application for forensic DNA testing of such evidence upon its determination that if a DNA test had been conducted on the evidence, 19 20 and if the results had been admitted in the trail resulting in the judgment there exists a 21 reasonable probability that the verdict would have been more favorable to the defendant. 22 23 In cases in which the defendant has been convicted of first degree murder and (c) 24 is in custody awaiting imposition of the death penalty, the State shall perform forensic 25 DNA testing of any biological material that: Is related to the investigation or prosecution that resulted in the 26 (1) 27 judgment; or Meets either of the following conditions: 28 (2) 29 It was not tested previously. a. 30 It was tested previously, but the requested DNA test would b. provide results that are reasonably more discriminating and 31 32 probative of the identity of the perpetrator or accomplice or 33 have a reasonable probability of contradicting prior test results. At the request of either the prosecution or the defense, the testing shall be performed 34 35 before an execution date is set, and the results of the testing shall be provided to all counsel and to the Governor before the execution is carried out. 36 The court shall appoint counsel for the person who brings a motion under this 37 38 section if that person is indigent. 39 The cost of DNA testing ordered under this section shall be borne by the State or the applicant, as the court may order in the interests of justice, if it is shown that the 40 applicant is not indigent and possesses the ability to pay. 41 42 DNA testing ordered by the court pursuant to this section shall be done as soon as practicable. However, if the court finds that a miscarriage of justice will otherwise occur and that it is necessary in the interests of justice to give priority to the 43 44 DNA testing, the court may order that the SBI be required to give priority to the DNA testing ordered pursuant to this section.

"§ 15A-270. Post-test procedures.

- (a) If the results of DNA testing conducted under this section are unfavorable to the applicant, the court:
 - (1) Shall dismiss the application; and
 - (2) In the case of an applicant who is not indigent, may assess the applicant for the cost of the testing.
- (b) If the results of DNA testing conducted under this section are favorable to the applicant, the court:
 - (1) Shall order a hearing, notwithstanding any provision of law that would bar the hearing; and
 - (2) Shall enter any order that serves the interests of justice, including an order:
 - a. Vacating and setting aside the judgment;
 - b. Discharging the applicant, if the applicant is in custody;
 - c. Presentencing the applicant; and
 - d. Granting a new trial."

SECTION 4. G.S. 148-82 reads as rewritten:

"§ 148-82. Provision for compensation.

Any person who, having been convicted of a felony and having been imprisoned therefor in a State prison of this State, and who was thereafter or who shall hereafter be granted a pardon of innocence by the Governor upon any of the grounds listed below, that the crime with which the person was charged either was not committed at all or was not committed by that person, may as hereinafter provided present by petition a claim against the State for the pecuniary loss sustained by the person through his or her erroneous conviction and imprisonment, provided the petition is presented within five years of the granting of the pardon. pardon:

- (1) The crime with which the person was charged either was not committed at all or was not committed by that person.
- (2) The conviction of the person was reversed or set aside on the ground that the person was not guilty of the offense for which the person was convicted.
- (3) The person was found not guilty of the offense in a new trial or rehearing."

SECTION 5. G.S. 148-84 reads as rewritten:

"§ 148-84. Evidence; action by Industrial Commission; payment and amount of compensation.

At the hearing the claimant may introduce evidence in the form of affidavits or testimony to support the claim, and the Attorney General may introduce counter affidavits or testimony in refutation. If the Industrial Commission finds from the evidence that the claimant received a pardon of innocence for the reason that the crime was not committed at all, or was not committed by the claimant, the claimant's conviction was reversed, or the claimant was found not guilty of the offense at a new trial or rehearing, and that the claimant was imprisoned and has been vindicated in 1 2 connection with the alleged offense for which he or she was imprisoned, the Industrial 3 Commission shall determine the amount the claimant is entitled to be paid for the claimant's pecuniary loss and shall enter an award for that amount. The Director of the 4 Budget shall pay the amount of the award to the claimant out of the Contingency and 5 6 Emergency Fund, or out of any other available State funds. The Industrial Commission 7 shall award to the claimant an amount equal to ten thousand dollars ($10,000) for each 8 year or the pro rata amount for the portion of each year of the imprisonment actually 9 served, but in no event shall the compensation exceed a total amount of one hundred 10 fifty thousand dollars ($150,000). five hundred thousand dollars ($500,000). The Industrial Commission shall give written notice of its decision to all parties concerned. 11 12 The determination of the Industrial Commission shall be subject to judicial review upon appeal of the claimant or the State according to the provisions and procedures set forth 13 14 in Article 31 of Chapter 143 of the General Statutes." 15

SECTION 6. Article 3 of Chapter 114 of the General Statutes is amended by adding a new section to read:

"§ 114-10.2. Report on administration of capital punishment laws.

- (a) The Division of Criminal Statistics shall annually prepare and transmit to the General Assembly and the Governor a report concerning the administration of capital punishment laws by the North Carolina State government.
- (b) The report required under subsection (a) of this section shall include the following categories of information:
 - (1) The percentage of death-eligible cases in which a death sentence is sought and the percentage in which it is imposed by judicial district.
 - (2) The race of the defendants in death-eligible cases, including death-eligible cases in which a death sentence is not sought, and the race of the victims.
 - (3) An analysis of the composition of juries in capital cases, including the racial composition of the juries, and on the exclusion of otherwise eligible and available jurors from the cases.
 - (4) An analysis of the effect of peremptory challenges, by the prosecution and defense respectively, on the composition of juries in capital cases, including the racial composition of the juries, and on the exclusion of otherwise eligible and available jurors from the cases.
 - (5) The percentage of capital cases in which counsel is retained by the defendant and the percentage in which counsel is appointed by the court.
 - (6) An analysis of the rates of compensation paid in capital cases to appointed counsel by judicial district.
 - (7) The percentage of cases in which a death sentence or a conviction underlying a death sentence is vacated, reversed, or set aside and the reasons therefor.
