14 "§ 1-569.4. Effect of agreement to arbitrate; nonwaivable provisions.

15 (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (b) and (c) of this section, a party
16 to an agreement to arbitrate or to an arbitration proceeding may waive, or the parties
17 may vary the effect of, the requirements of this Article to the extent provided by law.

18 (b) Before a controversy arises that is subject to an agreement to arbitrate, a party 19 to the agreement may not:

20 (1) Waive or agree to vary the effect of the requirements of G.S.
21 1-569.5(a), 1-569.6(a), 1-569.8, 1-569.17(a), 1-569.17(b), 1-569.26, or 22 1-569.28;

26 disclosure of any facts by a neutral arbitrator; or

27 (4) Waive the right under G.S. 1-569.16 of a party to an agreement to 28 arbitrate to be represented by a lawyer at any proceeding or hearing
29 under this Article, but an employer and a labor organization may 30 waive the right to representation by a lawyer in a labor arbitration.

31 (c) A party to an agreement to arbitrate or to an arbitration proceeding may not 32 waive, or the parties shall not vary the effect of, the requirements of this section or G.S.
33 1-569.3(a), 1-569.3(c), 1-569.7, 1-569.14, 1-569.18, 1-569.20(d), 1-569.20(e), 1-569.22, 34 1-569.23, 1-569.24, 1-569.25(a), 1-569.25(b), 1-569.29, 1-569.30, 1-569.31.

35 "§ 1-569.5. Application for judicial relief.

36 (a) Except as otherwise provided in G.S. 1-569.28, an application for judicial 37 relief under this Article must be made by motion to the court and heard in the manner 38 provided by law or rule of court for making and hearing motions.

39 (b) Unless a civil action involving the agreement to arbitrate is pending, notice of 40 an initial motion to the court under this Article must be served in the manner provided
41 by law for the service of a summons in a civil action. Otherwise, notice of the motion 42 must be given in the manner prescribed by law or rule of court for serving motions in 43 pending cases.

44 "§ 1-569.6. Validity of agreement to arbitrate.

1       (a) An agreement contained in a record to submit to arbitration any existing or 2 subsequent controversy arising between the parties to the agreement is valid, 3 enforceable, and irrevocable except upon a ground that exists at law or in equity for 4 revocation of a contract.

5       (b) The court shall decide whether an agreement to arbitrate exists or a 6 controversy is subject to an agreement to arbitrate.

7       (c) An arbitrator shall decide whether a condition precedent to arbitrability has 8 been fulfilled and whether a contract containing a valid agreement to arbitrate is 9 enforceable.

10       (d) If a party to a judicial proceeding challenges the existence of, or claims that a 11 controversy is not subject to, an agreement to arbitrate, the arbitration proceeding may 12 continue pending final resolution of the issue by the court, unless the court otherwise 13 orders.

14 "§ 1-569.7. Motion to compel or stay arbitration.

15       (a) On motion of a person showing an agreement to arbitrate and alleging another 16 person's refusal to arbitrate pursuant to the agreement:

17           (1) If the refusing party does not appeal or does not oppose the motion, the 18           court shall order the parties to arbitrate; and

19           (2) If the refusing party opposes the motion, the court shall proceed 20           summarily to decide the issue and order the parties to arbitrate unless it 21           finds that there is no enforceable agreement to arbitrate.

22       (b) On motion of a person alleging that an arbitration proceeding has been 23 initiated or threatened but that there is no agreement to arbitrate, the court shall proceed
24 summarily to decide the issue. If the court finds that there is an enforceable agreement 25 to arbitrate, it shall order the parties to arbitrate.

26       (c) If the court finds that there is no enforceable agreement to arbitrate, it may 27 not, pursuant to subsection (a) or (b) of this section, order the parties to arbitrate.

28       (d) The court may not refuse to order arbitration because the claim subject to 29 arbitration lacks merit or because grounds for the claim have not been established.

30       (e) If a proceeding involving a claim referable to arbitration under an alleged 31 agreement to arbitrate is pending in a court, a motion under this section must be made in 32 that court. Otherwise a motion under this section may be made in any court as provided 33 in G.S. 1-569.27.

34       (f) If a party makes a motion to the court to order arbitration, the court on just 35 terms shall stay any judicial proceeding that involves a claim alleged to be subject to the 36 arbitration until the court renders a final decision under this section.

37       (g) If the court orders arbitration, the court on just terms shall stay any judicial 38 proceeding that involves a claim subject to the arbitration. If a claim subject to the 39 arbitration is severable, the court may limit the stay to that claim.

40 "§ 1-569.8. Provisional remedies.

41       (a) Before an arbitrator is appointed and is authorized and able to act, the court,
42 upon motion of a party to an arbitration proceeding and for good cause shown, may 43 enter an order for provisional remedies to protect the effectiveness of the arbitration

1 proceeding to the same extent and under the same conditions as if the controversy were 2 the subject of a civil action.

3 (b) After an arbitrator is appointed and is authorized and able to act:

4 (1) The arbitrator may issue such orders for provisional remedies,
5 including interim awards, as the arbitrator finds necessary to protect 6 the effectiveness of the arbitration proceeding and to promote the fair 7 and expeditious resolution of the controversy, to the same extent and 8 under the same conditions as if the controversy were the subject of a 9 civil action; and

10 (2) A party to an arbitration proceeding may move the court for a 11 provisional remedy if the matter is urgent and the arbitrator is not able 12 to act in a timely manner or the arbitrator cannot provide an adequate 13 remedy.

14 (c) A party does not waive a right of arbitration by making a motion under 15 subsection (a) or (b) of this section.

16 "§ 1-569.9. Initiation of arbitration.

17 (a) A person initiates an arbitration proceeding by giving notice in a record to the 18 other parties to the agreement to arbitrate in the agreed manner between the parties or, 19 in the absence of agreement, by certified or registered mail, return receipt requested, and 20 obtained, or by service as authorized for the commencement of a civil action. The notice 21 must describe the nature of the controversy and the remedy sought.

22 (b) Unless a person objects for lack or insufficiency of notice under G.S.
23 1-569.15(c) no later than the beginning of the arbitration hearing, the person, by 24 appearing at the hearing, waives any objection to lack or insufficiency of notice.

25 "§ 1-569.10. Consolidation of separate arbitration proceedings.

26 (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (c) of this section, upon motion of 27 a party to an agreement to arbitrate or to an arbitration proceeding, the court may order 28 consolidation of separate arbitration proceedings as to all or some of the claims if:

29 (1) There are separate agreements to arbitrate or separate arbitration
30 proceedings between the same persons or one of them is a party to a
31 separate agreement to arbitrate or a separate arbitration with a third 32 person;

33 (2) The claims subject to the agreements to arbitrate arise in substantial 34 part from the same transaction or series of related transactions;

35 (3) The existence of a common issue of law or fact creates the possibility 36 of conflicting decisions in the separate arbitration proceedings; and

37 (4) Prejudice resulting from a failure to consolidate is not outweighed by 38 the risk of undue delay or prejudice to the rights of or hardship to 39 parties opposing consolidation.

40 (b) The court may order consolidation of separate arbitration proceedings as to 41 some claims and allow other claims to be resolved in separate arbitration proceedings.

42 (c) The court may not order consolidation of the claims of a party to an 43 agreement to arbitrate if the agreement prohibits consolidation.

44 "§ 1-569.11. Appointment of arbitrator; service as a neutral arbitrator.

1       (a) If the parties to an agreement to arbitrate agree on a method for appointing an
2 arbitrator, that method must be followed, unless the method fails. If the parties have not 3 agreed on a method, the agreed method fails, or an arbitrator appointed fails or is unable 4 to act and a successor has not been appointed, the court, on motion of a party to the 5 arbitration proceeding, shall appoint the arbitrator. An arbitrator so appointed has all the 6 powers of an arbitrator designated in the agreement to arbitrate or appointed pursuant to 7 the agreed method.

8       (b) An individual who has a known, direct, and material interest in the outcome
9 of the arbitration proceeding or a known, existing, and substantial relationship with a 10 party may not serve as an arbitrator required by an agreement to be neutral.

11 "§ 1-569.12. Disclosure by arbitrator.

12       (a) Before accepting appointment, an individual who is requested to serve as an 13 arbitrator, after making a reasonable inquiry, shall disclose to all parties to the 14 agreement to arbitrate and to the arbitration proceeding and to any other arbitrators any 15 known facts that a reasonable person would consider likely to affect the impartiality of 16 the arbitrator in the arbitration proceeding, including:

17           (1) A financial or personal interest in the outcome of the arbitration 18 proceeding; and

19           (2) An existing or past relationship with any of the parties to the 20 agreement to arbitrate or to the arbitration proceeding, their counsel or 21 representatives, a witness, or other arbitrators.

22       (b) An arbitrator has a continuing obligation to disclose to all parties to the 23 agreement to arbitrate and to the arbitration proceeding and to any other arbitrators any 24 facts that the arbitrator learns after accepting appointment which a reasonable person 25 would consider likely to affect the impartiality of the arbitrator.

26       (c) If an arbitrator discloses a fact required by subsection (a) or (b) of this section 27 to be disclosed and a party timely objects to the appointment or continued service of the 28 arbitrator based upon the fact disclosed, the objection may be a ground under G.S.
29 1-569.23(a)(2) for vacating an award made by the arbitrator.

30       (d) If the arbitrator did not disclose a fact as required by subsection (a) or (b) of 31 this section, upon timely objection by a party, the court under G.S. 1-569.23(a)(2) may 32 vacate an award.

33       (e) An arbitrator appointed as a neutral arbitrator who does not disclose a known,
34 direct, and material interest in the outcome of the arbitration proceeding or a known,
35 existing, and substantial relationship with a party is presumed to act with evident
36 partiality under G.S. 1-569.23(a)(2).

37       (f) If the parties to an arbitration proceeding agree to the procedures of an 38 arbitration organization or any other procedures for challenges to arbitrators before an 39 award is made, substantial compliance with those procedures is a condition precedent to 40 a motion to vacate an award on that ground under G.S. 1-569.23(a)(2).

41 "§ 1-569.13. Action by majority.

42       If there is more than one arbitrator, the powers of an arbitrator must be exercised by 43 a majority of the arbitrators, but all of them shall conduct the hearing under G.S.
44 1-569.15(c).

1 "§ 1-569.14. Immunity of arbitrator; competency to testify; attorneys' fees and 2 costs.

3 (a) An arbitrator or an arbitration organization acting in that capacity is immune
4 from civil liability to the same extent as a judge of a court of this State acting in a 5 judicial capacity.

6 (b) The immunity afforded by this section supplements any immunity under other 7 law.

8 (c) The failure of an arbitrator to make a disclosure required by G.S. 1-569.12
9 does not cause any loss of immunity under this section.

10 (d) In a judicial, administrative, or similar proceeding, an arbitrator or 11 representative of an arbitration organization is not competent to testify and may not be 12 required to produce records as to any statement, conduct, decision, or ruling occurring
13 during the arbitration proceeding to the same extent as a judge of a court of this State
14 acting in a judicial capacity. This subsection does not apply:

15 (1) To the extent necessary to determine the claim of an arbitrator,
16 arbitration organization, or representative of the arbitration
17 organization against a party to the arbitration proceeding; or

18 (2) To a hearing on a motion to vacate an award under G.S. 1-569.23(a)(1) 19 or (a)(2) if the movant establishes prima facie that a ground for 20 vacating the award exists.

21 (e) If a person commences a civil action against an arbitrator, arbitration 22 organization, or representative of an arbitration organization arising from the services of 23 the arbitrator, organization, or representative, or if a person seeks to compel an 24 arbitrator or a representative of an arbitration organization to testify or produce records
25 in violation of subsection (d) of this section, and the court decides that the arbitrator, 26 arbitration organization, or representative of an arbitration organization is immune from 27 civil liability or that the arbitrator or representative of the organization is not competent 28 to testify, the court shall award to the arbitrator, organization, or representative 29 reasonable attorneys' fees, costs, and other reasonable expenses of litigation.

30 (f) Immunity under this section does not apply to acts or omissions that occur
31 with respect to the operation of a motor vehicle.

32 "§ 1-569.15. Arbitration process.

33 (a) An arbitrator may conduct an arbitration in such a manner as the arbitrator
34 considers appropriate for a fair and expeditious disposition of the proceeding. The 35 authority conferred upon the arbitrator includes the power to hold conferences with the 36 parties to the arbitration proceeding before the hearing and, among other matters, 37 determine the admissibility, relevance, materiality, and weight of any evidence.

38 (b) An arbitrator may decide a request for summary disposition of a claim or 39 particular issue:

40 (1) If all interested parties agree; or

41 (2) Upon request of one party to the arbitration proceeding if that party
42 gives notice to all other parties to the proceeding and the other parties 43 have a reasonable opportunity to respond.

1       (c) If an arbitrator orders a hearing, the arbitrator shall set a time and place and
2 give notice of the hearing not less than five days before the hearing begins. Unless a 3 party to the arbitration proceeding makes an objection to lack or insufficiency of notice
4 not later than the beginning of the hearing, the party's appearance at the hearing waives
5 the objection. Upon request of a party to the arbitration proceeding and for good cause
6 shown, or upon the arbitrator's own initiative, the arbitrator may adjourn the hearing
7 from time to time as necessary but may not postpone the hearing to a time later than that 8 fixed by the agreement to arbitrate for making the award unless the parties to the 9 arbitration proceeding consent to a later date. The arbitrator may hear and decide the 10 controversy upon the evidence produced although a party who was duly notified did not 11 appear. The court, upon request, may direct the arbitrator to conduct the hearing 12 promptly and render a timely decision.

13       (d) At a hearing under subsection (c) of this section, a party to the arbitration 14 proceeding has a right to be heard, to present evidence material to the controversy, and 15 to cross-examine witnesses appearing at the hearing.

16       (e) If an arbitrator ceases to or is unable to act during the arbitration proceeding, 17 a replacement arbitrator must be appointed in accordance with G.S. 1-569.11 to 18 continue the proceeding and to resolve the controversy.

19       (f) The rules of evidence do not apply in arbitration proceedings, except as to 20 matters of privilege or immunities.

21 "§ 1-569.16. Representation by lawyer.

22 A party to an arbitration proceeding may be represented by a lawyer or lawyers.

23 "§ 1-569.17. Witnesses; subpoenas; depositions; discovery.

24       (a) An arbitrator may issue a subpoena for the attendance of a witness and for the 25 production of records and other evidence at any hearing and may administer oaths. A 26 subpoena must be served in the manner for service of subpoenas in a civil action and,
27 upon motion to the court by a party to the arbitration proceeding or the arbitrator,
28 enforced in the manner for enforcement of subpoenas in a civil action.

29       (b) In order to make the proceedings fair, expeditious, and cost-effective, upon 30 request of a party to or a witness in an arbitration proceeding, an arbitrator may permit a 31 deposition of any witness to be taken for use as evidence at the hearing, including a 32 witness who cannot be subpoenaed for or is unable to attend a hearing. The arbitrator 33 shall determine the conditions under which the deposition is taken.

34       (c) An arbitrator may permit such discovery as the arbitrator decides is 35 appropriate in the circumstances, taking into account the needs of the parties to the 36 arbitration proceeding and other affected persons and the desirability of making the 37 proceeding fair, expeditious, and cost-effective.

38       (d) If an arbitrator permits discovery under subsection (c) of this section, the 39 arbitrator may order a party to the arbitration proceeding to comply with the arbitrator's 40 discovery-related orders, issue subpoenas for the attendance of a witness and for the 41 production of records and other evidence at a discovery proceeding, and take action 42 against a noncomplying party to the extent a court could if the controversy were the 43 subject of a civil action in this State.

1       (e) An arbitrator may issue a protective order to prevent the disclosure of 2 privileged information, confidential information, trade secrets, and other information
3 protected from disclosure to the extent a court could if the controversy were the subject
4 of a civil action in this State.

5       (f) All laws compelling a person under subpoena to testify and all fees for 6 attending a judicial proceeding, a deposition, or a discovery proceeding as a witness
7 apply to an arbitration proceeding as if the controversy were the subject of a civil action
8 in this State.

9       (g) The court may enforce a subpoena or discovery-related order for the 10 attendance of a witness within this State and for the protection of records and other 11 evidence issued by an arbitrator in connection with an arbitration proceeding in another 12 state upon conditions determined by the court so as to make the arbitration proceeding
13 fair, expeditious, and cost-effective. A subpoena or discovery-related order issued by an 14 arbitrator in another state must be served in the manner provided by law for service of 15 subpoenas in a civil action in this State and, upon motion to the court by a party to the 16 arbitration proceeding or the arbitrator, enforced in the manner provided by law for 17 enforcement of subpoenas in a civil action in this State.

18       (h) An arbitrator does not have the authority to hold a party in contempt of any 19 order the arbitrator makes under this section. A court may hold parties in contempt for 20 failure to obey an arbitrator's order, or an order made by the court, pursuant to this 21 section, among other sanctions imposed by the arbitrator or the court.

22 "§ 1-569.18. Judicial enforcement of preaward ruling by arbitrator.

23       (a) If an arbitrator makes a preaward ruling in favor of a party to the arbitration
24 proceeding, the party may request the arbitrator to incorporate the ruling into an award
25 under G.S. 1-569.19. A prevailing party may make a motion to the court for an 26 expedited order to confirm the award under G.S. 1-569.22, in which case the court shall 27 summarily decide the motion. The court shall issue an order to confirm the award unless 28 the court vacates, modifies, or corrects the award under G.S. 1-569.23 or G.S. 1-569.24.

29       (b) An arbitrator's ruling under subsection (a) of this section that denies a request 30 for a preaward ruling is not subject to trial court review; a party whose request under 31 subsection (a) of this section for a preaward ruling has been denied by an arbitrator
32 retains the right to seek relief under G.S. 1-569.20 and G.S. 1-569.21 from any final 33 award the arbitrator renders.

34       (c) There is no right of appeal from trial court orders and judgments on preaward
35 rulings by an arbitrator after a trial court award under this section, G.S. 1-569.19, and 36 G.S. 1-569.28.

37 "§ 1-569.19. Award.

38       (a) An arbitrator shall make a record of an award. The record must be signed or 39 otherwise authenticated as authorized by federal or State law by any arbitrator who 40 concurs with the award. The arbitrator or the arbitration organization shall give notice of 41 the award, including a copy of the award, to each party to the arbitration proceeding.

42       (b) An award must be made within the time specified by the agreement to 43 arbitrate or, if not specified therein, within the time ordered by the court. The court may 44 extend or the parties to the arbitration proceeding may agree in a record to extend the

1 time. The court or the parties may do so within or after the time specified or ordered. A 2 party waives any objection that an award was not timely made unless that party gives 3 notice of the objection to the arbitrator before receiving notice of the award.

4 "§ 1-569.20. Change of award by arbitrator.

5 (a) On motion to an arbitrator by a party to an arbitration proceeding, the 6 arbitrator may modify or correct an award:

7 (1) Upon a ground stated in G.S. 1-569.24(a)(1) or (a)(3);

8 (2) Because the arbitrator had not made a final and definite award upon a 9 claim submitted by the parties to the arbitration proceeding; or

10 (3) To clarify the award.

11 (b) A motion under subsection (a) of this section must be made and notice given 12 to all parties within 20 days after the movant receives notice of the award.

13 (c) A party to the arbitration proceeding must give notice of any objection to the 14 motion within 10 days after receipt of the notice.

15 (d) If a motion to the court is pending under G.S. 1-569.22, 1-569.23, or 16 1-569.24, the court may submit the claim to the arbitrator to consider whether to modify 17 or correct the award:

18 (1) Upon a ground stated in G.S. 1-569.24(a)(1) or (a)(3);

19 (2) Because the arbitrator had not made a final and definite award upon a
20 claim submitted by the parties to the arbitration proceeding; or

21 (3) To clarify the award.

22 (e) An award modified or corrected pursuant to this section is subject to G.S.
23 1-569.19(a), 1-569.22, 1-569.23, and 1-569.24.

24 "§ 1-569.21. Remedies; fees and expenses of arbitration proceeding.

25 (a) An arbitrator may award punitive damages or other exemplary relief if:

26 (1) The arbitration agreement provides for an award of punitive damages
27 or exemplary relief;

28 (2) An award for punitive damages or other exemplary relief is authorized 29 by law in a civil action involving the same claim;

30 (3) The evidence produced at the hearing justifies the award under the 31 legal standards otherwise applicable to the claim.

32 (b) An arbitrator may award reasonable expenses of arbitration if such an award 33 is authorized by law in a civil action involving the same claim or by the agreement of 34 the parties to the arbitration proceeding. An arbitrator may award reasonable attorneys' 35 fees if:

36 (1) The arbitration agreement provides for an award of attorneys' fees; and

37 (2) An award of attorneys' fees is authorized by law in a civil action
38 involving the same claim.

39 (c) As to all remedies other than those authorized by subsections (a) and (b) of 40 this section, an arbitrator may order such remedies as the arbitrator considers just and 41 appropriate under the circumstances of the arbitration proceeding. The fact that such a 42 remedy could not or would not be granted by the court is not a ground for refusing to 43 confirm an award under G.S. 1-569.22 or for vacating an award under G.S. 1-569.23.

1       (d) An arbitrator's expenses and fees, together with other expenses, must be paid
2 as provided in the award.

3       (e) If an arbitrator awards punitive damages or other exemplary relief under 4 subsection (a) of this section, the arbitrator shall specify in the award the basis in fact 5 justifying and the basis in law authorizing the award and state separately the amount of 6 the punitive damages or other exemplary relief.

7 "§ 1-569.22. Confirmation of award.

8       After a party to an arbitration receives notice of an award, the party may make a 9 motion to the court for an order confirming the award, at which time the court shall 10 issue a confirming order unless the award is modified or corrected pursuant to G.S.
11 1-569.20 or G.S. 1-569.24 or is vacated pursuant to G.S. 1-569.23.

12 "§ 1-569.23. Vacating award.

13       (a) Upon motion to the court by a party to an arbitration proceeding, the court 14 shall vacate an award made in the arbitration proceeding if:

15           (1) The award was procured by corruption, fraud, or other undue means;

16           (2) There was:

17               a. Evident partiality by an arbitrator appointed as a neutral 18 arbitrator;

19               b. Corruption by an arbitrator; or

20               c. Misconduct by an arbitrator prejudicing the rights of a party to 21 the arbitration proceeding;

22           (3) An arbitrator refused to postpone the hearing upon a showing of 23 sufficient cause for postponement, refused to consider evidence
24 material to the controversy, or otherwise conducted the hearing
25 contrary to G.S. 1-569.15 so as to prejudice substantially the rights of a 26 party to the arbitration proceeding;

27           (4) An arbitrator exceeded the arbitrator's powers;

28           (5) There was no agreement to arbitrate, unless the person participated in 29 the arbitration proceeding without raising the objection under G.S.
30 1-569.15(c) no later than the beginning of the arbitration hearing; or

31           (6) The arbitration was conducted without proper notice of the initiation of 32 an arbitration as required in G.S. 1-569.9 so as to prejudice
33 substantially the rights of a party to the arbitration proceeding.

34       (b) A motion under this section must be filed within 90 days after the movant
35 receives notice of the award pursuant to G.S. 1-569.19 or within 90 days after the 36 movant receives notice of a modified or corrected award pursuant to G.S. 1-569.20, 37 unless the movant alleges that the award was procured by corruption, fraud, or other 38 undue means, in which case the motion must be made within 90 days after the ground is 39 known or by the exercise of reasonable care would have been known by the movant.

40       (c) If the court vacates an award on a ground other than that set forth in 41 subdivision (a)(5) of this section, it may order a rehearing. If the award is vacated on a 42 ground stated in subdivision (1) or (2) of subsection (a) of this section, the rehearing
43 must be before a new arbitrator. If the award is vacated on a ground stated in 44 subdivision (3), (4), or (6) of subsection (a) of this section, the rehearing may be before

1 the arbitrator who made the award or the arbitrator's successor. The arbitrator must 2 render the decision in the rehearing within the same time as that provided in G.S.
3 1-569.19(5) for an award.

4 (d) If the court denies a motion to vacate an award, it shall confirm the award
5 unless a motion to modify or correct the award pursuant to G.S. 1-569.24 is pending.

6 "§ 1-569.24. Modification or correction of award.

7 (a) Upon motion made within 90 days after the movant receives notice of the 8 award pursuant to G.S. 1-569.19 or within 90 days after the movant receives notice of a 9 modified or corrected award pursuant to G.S. 1-569.20, the court shall modify or correct 10 the award if:

11 (1) There was an evident mathematical miscalculation or an evident 12 mistake in the description of a person, thing, or property referred to in 13 the award;

14 (2) The arbitrator has made an award on a claim not submitted to the 15 arbitrator, and the award may be corrected without affecting the merits 16 of the decision on the claims submitted; or

17 (3) The award is imperfect in a matter of form not affecting the merits of 18 the decision on the claims submitted.

19 (b) If a motion made under subsection (a) of this section is granted, the court
20 shall modify and confirm the award as modified or corrected. Otherwise, unless a 21 motion to vacate is pending, the court shall confirm the award.

22 (c) A motion to modify or correct an award pursuant to this section may be 23 joined with a motion to vacate the award.

24 "§ 1-569.25. Judgment on award; attorneys' fees and litigation expenses.

25 (a) Upon granting an order confirming, vacating without directing a rehearing,
26 modifying, or correcting an award, the court shall enter a judgment in conformity
27 therewith. The judgment may be recorded, docketed, and enforced as any other 28 judgment in a civil action.

29 (b) A court may allow reasonable costs of the motion and subsequent judicial 30 proceedings.

31 (c) On motion of a prevailing party to a contested judicial proceeding under G.S.
32 1-569.22, 1-569.23, or 1-569.24, the court may add reasonable attorneys' fees and other 33 reasonable expenses of litigation incurred in a judicial proceeding after the award is 34 made to a judgment confirming, vacating without directing a rehearing, modifying, or 35 correcting an award.

36 "§ 1-569.26. Jurisdiction.

37 (a) A court of this State having jurisdiction over the controversy and the parties
38 may enforce the agreement to arbitrate.

39 (b) An agreement to arbitrate providing for arbitration in this State confers
40 exclusive jurisdiction on the court to enter judgment on an award under this Article.

41 "§ 1-569.27. Venue.

42 A motion pursuant to G.S. 1-569.5 must be made in the court of the county in which 43 the agreement to arbitrate specifies the arbitration hearing is to be held or, if the hearing
44 has been held, in the court of the county in which it was held. Otherwise, the motion

1 may be made in the court of any county in which an adverse party resides or has a place
2 of business or, if no adverse party has a residence or place of business in this State, in 3 the court of any county in this State. All subsequent motions must be made in the court 4 hearing the initial motion unless the court otherwise directs.

5 "§ 1-569.28. Appeals.

6 (a) An appeal may be taken from:

7 (1) An order denying a motion to compel arbitration;

8 (2) An order granting a motion to stay arbitration;

9 (3) An order confirming or denying confirmation of an award;

10 (4) An order modifying or correcting an award;

11 (5) An order vacating an award without directing a rehearing; or 12 (6) A final judgment entered pursuant to this Article.

13 (b) An appeal under this section must be taken as from an order or a judgment in 14 a civil action.

15 "§ 1-569.29. Uniformity of application and construction.

16 In applying and construing this Article, the Revised Uniform Arbitration Act, 17 consideration must be given to the need to promote uniformity of the law with respect to 18 its subject matter among states that enact it.

21 The provisions of this Article governing the legal effect, validity, and enforceability 22 of electronic records or electronic signatures, and of contracts performed with the use of 23 such records or signatures, conform to the requirements of section 102 of the Electronic 24 Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, 15 U.S.C. § 7001, et seq., or as 25 otherwise authorized by federal or State law governing such electronic records or 26 electronic signatures.
