1

HOUSE JOINT RESOLUTION 1861*

Sponsors: Representatives Love; and Faison.

Referred to: Rules, Calendar, and Operations of the House.

April 23, 2007

1 A JOINT RESOLUTION HONORING THE EARLY SETTLERS OF LEE COUNTY
2 ON THE COUNTY'S ONE HUNDREDTH ANNIVERSARY.

3 Whereas, Lee County was formed from Chatham and Moore counties and 4 named for Confederate General Robert E. Lee; and

5 Whereas, Lee County was created on March 6, 1907, by the General
6 Assembly through legislation that required approval of the voters; and

7 Whereas, on July 2, 1907, a majority of the voters gave their approval for the 8 establishment of the State's 98th county; and

9 Whereas, on February 10, 1908, Governor Robert Broadnax Glenn appointed 10 J. L. Godfrey, J. F. Womble, J. F. Jones, J. R. Jones, and J. J. Edwards, who served as 11 Chair, to the Lee County Board of Commissioners; and

12 Whereas, the County's early inhabitants included Native Americans and 13 people from many countries and nationalities, including Highland Scots, Germans, 14 English, Africans, and Scotch-Irish; and

15 Whereas, Lee County's early economy centered on agriculture, naval stores, 16 and iron works, which supplied the State with necessary iron goods during the 17 American Revolution; and

18 Whereas, in 1853, coal was discovered in the Egypt community (now 19 Comnock), and in 1855, the Egypt Mine opened as the State's first commercial coal 20 mine; and

21 Whereas, expansion of the railroad in the area further contributed to the 22 County's growth and aided in the establishment of new industries, including tobacco 23 harvesting, brownstone quarrying, furniture making, brickworks, and textiles; and

24 Whereas, some of Lee County's notable citizens have included Reverend 25 William D. Paisley, a Presbyterian minister; Herman Husband, a pioneer and leader in 26 the Regulator Movement; Charles D. McIver, an educator and the first president of the 27 University of North Carolina at Greensboro; and A.A.F. Seawell, who served as North 28 Carolina's Attorney General and as a State Supreme Court justice during the 1930s; and

29 Whereas, Lee County has continued to grow and flourish, making significant 30 contributions to the State of North Carolina; and

1 Whereas, according to the 2000 census, Lee County had a population of 2 50,000, a significant increase above the 2,262 residents recorded in 1910; and

3 Whereas, plans have been made to celebrate the County's anniversary 4 throughout 2007, including a Centennial Celebration on July 2, 2007; and

5 Whereas, the County's anniversary is worthy of celebration and should be 6 enjoyed and supported by all North Carolinians; Now, therefore,

7 Be it resolved by the House of Representatives, the Senate concurring:

8 SECTION 1. The General Assembly honors the early settlers of Lee County
9 for their contributions to North Carolina.

10 SECTION 2. The General Assembly congratulates Lee County on its 100th 11 anniversary and encourages the people of this State to join the citizens of Lee County in 12 celebrating this historic occasion.

13 SECTION 3. The Secretary of State shall transmit a certified copy of this 14 resolution to the Chair of the Lee County Board of Commissioners.

15 SECTION 4. This resolution is effective upon ratification.
