11 In recognition that the United States Constitution and the Constitution of North Carolina 12 constitute the supreme law of this State, the General Assembly hereby declares it to be the 13 public policy of this State to protect its citizens from the application of foreign law that would 14 result in the violation of a fundamental constitutional right of a natural person. The public 15 policies expressed in this section shall apply only to actual or foreseeable violations of a 16 fundamental constitutional right resulting from the application of the foreign law.

17 "§ 1-87.4. Nonapplication of foreign law that would violate fundamental constitutional 18 rights.

19 A court, administrative agency, arbitrator, mediator, or other entity or person acting under 20 the authority of State law shall not apply a foreign law in any legal proceeding involving, or

26 (a) In the interpretation or enforcement by a court, administrative agency, arbitrator,

33 foreign law would result in a violation of a fundamental constitutional right of one or more of 34 the natural persons who are parties to the contract or other agreement, the agreement or contract

45 proceeding, arbitration proceeding, or other similarly binding proceeding in this State, and if a 46 court of this State finds that granting a motion by another party to the proceeding to transfer the 47 proceeding to a foreign venue or forum would likely lead to the violation of a fundamental 48 constitutional right of the natural person who is the nonmovant in the foreign forum with 49 respect to the matter in dispute, the motion shall be denied.

50 "§ 1-87.8. Contracts not capable of modification to preserve fundamental constitutional

8 waiver shall be strictly construed in favor of preserving the constitutional rights of natural 9 persons in this State.
