38 "§ 15A-2005. ~~Mentally retarded defendants; Intellectual disability; death sentence~~
39 prohibited.

- 40 (a) (1) The following definitions apply in this section:
41 a. ~~Mentally retarded. Intellectual disability.~~ – A condition marked by 42 Significantly—significantly subaverage general intellectual 43 functioning, existing concurrently with significant limitations in 44 adaptive functioning, both of which were manifested before the age 45 of 18.
46 b. Significant limitations in adaptive functioning. – Significant 47 limitations in two or more of the following adaptive skill areas:
48 communication, self-care, home living, social skills, community use,
49 self-direction, health and safety, functional academics, leisure skills

1 c. Significantly subaverage general intellectual functioning. – An 2 intelligence quotient of 70 or below.

3 (2) The defendant has the burden of proving significantly subaverage general 4 intellectual functioning, significant limitations in adaptive functioning, and 5 that ~~mental retardation~~ intellectual disability was manifested before the age
6 of 18. An intelligence quotient of 70 or below on an individually
7 administered, scientifically recognized standardized intelligence quotient test 8 administered by a licensed psychiatrist or psychologist is evidence of 9 significantly subaverage general intellectual functioning; however, it is not 10 sufficient, without evidence of significant limitations in adaptive functioning 11 and without evidence of manifestation before the age of 18, to establish that 12 the defendant ~~is mentally retarded~~ has an intellectual disability. An 13 intelligence quotient of 70, as described in this subdivision, is approximate 14 and a higher score resulting from the application of the standard error of 15 measurement to an intelligence quotient of 70 shall not preclude the 16 defendant from being able to present additional evidence of intellectual 17 disability, including testimony regarding adaptive deficits. Accepted clinical 18 standards for diagnosing significant limitations in intellectual functioning 19 and adaptive behavior shall be applied in the determination of intellectual 20 disability.

21 (b) Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, no defendant ~~who is mentally~~ 22 ~~retarded with an intellectual disability~~ shall be sentenced to death.

23 (c) Upon motion of the defendant, supported by appropriate affidavits, the court may 24 order a pretrial hearing to determine if the defendant ~~is mentally retarded~~ has an intellectual 25 disability. The court shall order such a hearing with the consent of the State. The defendant has 26 the burden of production and persuasion to demonstrate ~~mental retardation~~ intellectual 27 disability by clear and convincing evidence. If the court determines that the defendant to be 28 ~~mentally retarded~~ has an intellectual disability, the court shall declare the case noncapital, and 29 the State may not seek the death penalty against the defendant.

30 (d) The pretrial determination of the court shall not preclude the defendant from raising 31 any legal defense during the trial.

32 (e) If the court does not find that the defendant to be mentally retarded has an 33 intellectual disability in the pretrial proceeding, upon the introduction of evidence ~~of the~~ 34 ~~defendant's mental retardation~~ raising the issue of intellectual disability during the sentencing
35 hearing, the court shall submit a special issue to the jury as to whether the defendant ~~is mentally~~
36 ~~retarded~~ has an intellectual disability as defined in this section. This special issue shall be 37 considered and answered by the jury prior to the consideration of aggravating or mitigating 38 factors and the determination of sentence. If the jury determines that the defendant to be 39 ~~mentally retarded~~ has an intellectual disability, the court shall declare the case noncapital and 40 the defendant shall be sentenced to life imprisonment.

41 (f) The defendant has the burden of production and persuasion to demonstrate ~~mental~~ 42 ~~retardation~~ intellectual disability to the jury by a preponderance of the evidence.

43 (g) If the jury determines that the defendant ~~is not mentally retarded~~ does not have an 44 intellectual disability as defined by this section, the jury may consider any evidence of ~~mental~~ 45 ~~retardation~~ intellectual disability presented during the sentencing hearing when determining 46 aggravating or mitigating factors and the defendant's sentence.

47 (h) The provisions of this section do not preclude the sentencing of a ~~mentally~~ 48 ~~retarded~~ an offender with an intellectual disability to any other sentence authorized by 49 G.S. 14-17 for the crime of murder in the first degree."

35 has biological evidence value and should be preserved, but is of a size, bulk, 36 or physical character as to render retention impracticable or should be 37 returned to its rightful owner. Upon such finding, the court may order that 38 the collecting agency take reasonable measures to remove or preserve, for

- 47 (6) At any time after a defendant is charged and prior to disposition, if the 48 evidence collected as part of the criminal investigation is of a size, bulk, or 49 physical character as to render retention impracticable or should be returned
50 to its rightful owner, then the State and the defendant may enter into a 51 consent motion providing for the retention of swabs or other items used for

1 processing evidence in lieu of the actual physical evidence and the court may 2 order that the collecting agency take reasonable measures to remove or 3 preserve for retention portions of evidence likely to contain biological 4 evidence related to the offense through cuttings, swabs, or other means
5 consistent with Crime Laboratory minimum guidelines in a quantity 6 sufficient to permit DNA testing before returning or disposing of the 7 evidence.

8 (7) Notwithstanding the foregoing preservation requirements, at the time of 9 conviction, the State and the defendant may enter into a consent motion 10 providing for the destruction or return of physical evidence not offered or 11 admitted into evidence during the criminal proceeding. The consent motion
12 shall include an inventory of the evidence. The court may order destruction
