(b) A gun violence restraining order is an order, in writing, signed by the court, prohibiting and enjoining a named person from having in his or her custody or control, owning, purchasing, possessing, or receiving any firearms or ammunition. This Chapter establishes a civil restraining order process to accomplish that purpose. The district court division of the General Court of Justice shall have original jurisdiction over actions instituted under this Chapter.
(c) A petition for a gun violence restraining order shall describe the number, types, and locations of any firearms and ammunition presently believed by the petitioner to be possessed or controlled by the subject of the petition.
(d) A gun violence restraining order issued pursuant to this Chapter shall include all of the following:
(1) A statement of the grounds supporting the issuance of the order.
(2) The date and time the order expires.
(3) The address of the district court for the county in which the restrained party resides.
(4) The following statement:
"To the restrained person: This order will last until the date and time noted above. If you have not done so already, you must surrender all firearms and ammunition that you own or possess in accordance with G.S. 50E-8. You may not have in your custody or control, own, purchase, possess, or receive, or attempt to purchase or receive a firearm or ammunition, while this order is in effect. Pursuant to G.S. 50E-5, you have the right to request one hearing to terminate this order at any time during its effective period. You may seek the advice of an attorney as to any matter connected with the order."

(e) When the court issues a gun violence restraining order under this Chapter, the court shall inform the restrained person that he or she is entitled to one hearing to request a termination of the order, pursuant to G.S. 50E-5, and shall provide the restrained person with a form to request a hearing.

(f) A valid gun violence restraining order entered pursuant to this Chapter shall be enforced by all North Carolina law enforcement agencies without further order of the court.

§ 50E-2. Gun violence restraining order issued after notice and hearing.

(a) An immediate family member of a person or a law enforcement officer may request that a court, after notice and a hearing, issue a gun violence restraining order enjoining the subject of the petition from having in his or her custody or control, owning, purchasing, possessing, or receiving a firearm or ammunition for a period of one year.

(b) In determining whether to issue a gun violence restraining order under this Chapter, the court shall consider evidence of all of the facts listed under subdivision (1) of this section and may consider any other evidence of an increased risk for violence, including evidence of any of the facts listed under subdivision (2) of this section. For purposes of this subsection, the term "recent" means within the six months prior to the date the petition was filed.

(1) The court shall consider evidence of all of the following:

a. A recent threat of violence or act of violence by the subject of the petition directed toward another.

b. A recent threat of violence or act of violence by the subject of the petition directed toward himself or herself.

c. A violation of an emergency protective order issued pursuant to Chapter 50B of the General Statutes that is in effect at the time the court is considering the petition.

(2) The court may consider evidence of any of the following:

b. The history of use, attempted use, or threatened use of physical force by the subject of the petition against another person.

c. A prior arrest of the subject of the petition for a felony offense.

d. A history of a violation by the subject of the petition of an emergency protective order issued pursuant to Chapter 50B of the General Statutes.

e. Documentary evidence, including, but not limited to, police reports and records of convictions, of either recent criminal offenses by the subject of the petition that involve controlled substances or alcohol or ongoing abuse of controlled substances or alcohol by the subject of the petition.

f. Evidence of recent acquisition of firearms, ammunition, or other deadly weapons.

(c) At the hearing, the petitioner shall have the burden of proving, by clear and convincing evidence, that both of the following are true:

The subject of the petition, or a person subject to an ex parte gun violence restraining order, as applicable, poses a significant danger of causing personal injury to himself, herself, or another by having in his or her custody or control, owning, purchasing, possessing, or receiving a firearm or ammunition.

A gun violence restraining order is necessary to prevent personal injury to the subject of the petition, or the person subject to an ex parte gun violence restraining order, as applicable, because less restrictive alternatives either have been tried and found to be ineffective, or are inadequate or inappropriate for the circumstances of the subject of the petition, or the person subject to an ex parte gun violence restraining order, as applicable.

If the court finds that there is clear and convincing evidence to issue a gun violence restraining order, the court shall issue a gun violence restraining order that prohibits the subject of the petition from having in his or her custody or control, owning, purchasing, possessing, or receiving, or attempting to purchase or receive, a firearm or ammunition.

If the court finds that there is not clear and convincing evidence to support the issuance of a gun violence restraining order, the court shall dissolve any temporary emergency or ex parte gun violence restraining order then in effect.

A gun violence restraining order issued under this Chapter has a duration of one year, subject to termination by further order of the court at a hearing held pursuant to G.S. 50E-5 and renewal by further order of the court pursuant to G.S. 50E-6.

§ 50E-3. Temporary emergency gun violence restraining order.

(a) A temporary emergency gun violence restraining order may be issued on an ex parte basis only if a law enforcement officer asserts, and a judicial officer finds, that there is reasonable cause to believe both of the following:

(1) The subject of the petition poses an immediate and present danger of causing personal injury to himself, herself, or another by having in his or her custody or control, owning, purchasing, possessing, or receiving a firearm.

(2) A temporary emergency gun violence restraining order is necessary to prevent personal injury to the subject of the petition or another because less restrictive alternatives either have been tried and found to be ineffective or have been determined to be inadequate or inappropriate for the circumstances of the subject of the petition.

(b) A temporary emergency gun violence restraining order issued pursuant to this Chapter shall expire 21 days from the date the order is issued.

(c) A temporary emergency gun violence restraining order is valid only if it is issued by a judicial officer after making the findings required by subsection (a) of this section and pursuant to a specific request by a law enforcement officer.

(d) Except as provided in this subsection, the petition for a temporary emergency gun violence restraining order shall be obtained by submitting a written petition to the court. If time and circumstances do not permit the submission of a written petition, a temporary emergency gun violence restraining order may be issued in accordance with the procedures for obtaining an oral search warrant.

(e) A temporary emergency gun violence restraining order issued under this Chapter shall include all of the information set out in G.S. 50E-1(d).

§ 50E-4. Ex parte gun violence restraining order.

(a) An immediate family member of a person or a law enforcement officer may file a petition requesting that the court issue an ex parte gun violence restraining order.

(b) A court may issue an ex parte gun violence restraining order if the petition, supported by an affidavit made in writing and signed by the petitioner under oath, and any additional information provided to the court shows that there is a substantial likelihood that both of the following are true:

(1) The subject of the petition poses a significant danger, in the near future, of causing personal injury to himself, herself, or another by having in his or her custody or control, owning, purchasing, possessing, or receiving a firearm as determined by considering the factors listed in G.S. 50E-2(b).

(2) An ex parte gun violence restraining order is necessary to prevent personal injury to the subject of the petition or another because less restrictive alternatives either have been tried and found to be ineffective or are inadequate or inappropriate for the circumstances of the subject of the petition.

(c) An affidavit supporting a petition for the issuance of an ex parte gun violence restraining order shall set forth the facts tending to establish the grounds of the petition or the reason for believing that they exist.

(d) An ex parte order under this Chapter shall be issued or denied on the same day that the petition is submitted to the court, unless the petition is filed too late in the day to permit effective review, in which case the order shall be issued or denied on the next day of judicial business in sufficient time for the order to be filed that day with the clerk of the court.

§ 50E-5. Petition to terminate gun violence restraining order.

(a) A person subject to a gun violence restraining order issued under this Chapter may submit one written request at any time during the effective period of the order for a hearing to terminate the order.

(b) If the court finds after the hearing that there is no longer clear and convincing evidence to believe that the provisions of G.S. 50E-2(c) are true, the court shall terminate the order.

§ 50E-6. Petition for renewal of gun violence restraining order.

(a) An immediate family member of a restrained person or a law enforcement officer may request a renewal of a gun violence restraining order at any time within the three months before the expiration of a gun violence restraining order.

(b) A court may, after notice and a hearing, renew a gun violence restraining order issued under this Chapter if the petitioner proves, by clear and convincing evidence, that the provisions of G.S. 50E-2(c) continue to be true.

(c) In determining whether to renew a gun violence restraining order issued under this Chapter, the court shall consider evidence of the facts identified in G.S. 50E-2(b)(1) and any other evidence of an increased risk for violence, including, but not limited to, evidence of any of the facts identified in G.S. 50E-2(b)(2).

(d) At the hearing, the petitioner shall have the burden of proving, by clear and convincing evidence, that the provisions of G.S. 50E-2(c) are true.

(e) If the renewal petition is supported by clear and convincing evidence, the court shall renew the gun violence restraining order issued under this Chapter.

(f) The renewal of a gun violence restraining order issued pursuant to this section shall have a duration of one year, subject to termination by further order of the court at a hearing held pursuant to G.S. 50E-5 and further renewal by further order of the court pursuant to this section.

(g) A gun violence restraining order renewed pursuant to this section shall include the information identified in G.S. 50E-1(d).

§ 50E-7. Notice that order has been entered.

A copy of any order entered and filed under this Chapter shall be issued to each party. Law enforcement agencies shall accept receipt of copies of the order issued by the clerk of court by electronic or facsimile transmission for service on the subject of the petition. In addition, a copy of the order shall be issued promptly to and retained by the police department of the city. of the restrained person's residence. If the subject of the petition does not reside in a city or resides in a city with no police department, copies shall be issued promptly to and retained by the sheriff, and the county police department, if any, of the county in which the subject of the petition resides.

§ 50E-8. Surrender and disposal of firearms.

(a) Upon issuance of a gun violence restraining order issued pursuant to this Chapter, the court shall order the restrained person to surrender to the local law enforcement agency all firearms and ammunition in the restrained person's custody or control, or which the restrained person possesses or owns and any permits to purchase pistols and concealed handgun permits possessed by the restrained person.

(b) The surrender ordered pursuant to this section shall occur by immediately surrendering all firearms and ammunition in a safe manner, and surrendering all permits to purchase pistols and permits to carry concealed firearms upon request of any law enforcement officer, to the control of the officer, after being served with the restraining order. A law enforcement officer serving a gun violence restraining order that indicates that the restrained person possesses any firearms or ammunition shall request that all firearms and ammunition be immediately surrendered. In the event that the firearms cannot be surrendered at the time the order is served, the surrender shall occur within 24 hours of being served with the order at a time and place specified by the sheriff. The law enforcement officer taking possession of any firearms or ammunition pursuant to this section shall issue a receipt to the person surrendering the firearm or firearms or ammunition or both at the time of surrender. A person ordered to surrender all firearms and ammunition pursuant to this section shall, within 48 hours after being served with the order, file with the court that issued the gun violence restraining order the original receipt showing all firearms and ammunition have been surrendered to a local law enforcement agency. Failure to timely file a receipt shall constitute a violation of the restraining order.

(c) Any firearms or ammunition surrendered to a law enforcement officer or law enforcement agency pursuant to this section shall be retained by the law enforcement agency until the expiration of any gun violence restraining order that has been issued against the restrained person. Upon expiration of any order, any firearms or ammunition shall be returned to the restrained person.

A restrained person who owns any firearms or ammunition that are in the custody of a law enforcement agency pursuant to this section and who does not wish to have the firearm or firearms or ammunition returned is entitled to sell or transfer title of any firearms or ammunition to a licensed dealer provided that the firearm or firearms or ammunition are otherwise legal to own or possess and the restrained person otherwise has right to title of the firearm or firearms or ammunition.

(d) If a person other than the restrained person claims title to any firearms or ammunition surrendered pursuant to this section, and he or she is determined by the law enforcement agency to be the lawful owner of the firearm or firearms or ammunition, the firearm or firearms or ammunition shall be returned to him or her.

Nothing in this Chapter shall be interpreted to require a law enforcement agency or a law enforcement officer to seek a gun violence restraining order in any case, including a case in which the agency or officer concludes, after investigation, that the criteria for issuance of a gun violence restraining order are not satisfied.

SECTION 15. This section and Section 13 of this act are effective when this act becomes law. The remainder of this act becomes effective December 1, 2017, and applies to offenses committed on or after that date.
