SENATE BILL DRS25049-MG-95C* (03/16)

Short Title: Whole Woman's Health Act. (Public)

Sponsors: Senators Chaudhuri, Van Duyn, and Bryant (Primary Sponsors).

Referred to:

A BILL TO BE ENTITLED

AN ACT REPEALING LAWS IN CONFLICT WITH THE UNITED STATES SUPREME COURT DECISION IN WHOLE WOMAN'S HEALTH V. HELLERSTEDT.

Whereas, comprehensive reproductive health care, including safe abortion, is a vital component of a woman's overall health; and

Whereas, abortion is one of the safest medical procedures in the United States, as demonstrated by data, including from the CDC, showing that abortion has over a 99 percent safety record; and

Whereas, like other medical procedures, the safety of abortion is furthered by evidence-based practices developed and supported by medical professionals; and

Whereas, any regulation of medical care must have a legitimate purpose; and

Whereas, the goal of medical regulation should be to improve the quality of care and increase access to care; and

Whereas, in the landmark decision Whole Woman's Health v. Hellerstedt (Whole Woman's Health), the Supreme Court recently reaffirmed a woman's constitutional right to access safe, legal abortion, confirming over 40 years of precedent; and

Whereas, in Whole Woman's Health, the Court struck down two provisions of a Texas law, H.B. 2, which was designed to close abortion providers in the state; and

Whereas, Justice Ruth Bader Ginsberg concluded in her concurrence that given the safety of abortion, "it is beyond rational belief that H.B. 2 could genuinely protect the health of women, and certain that the law "would simply make it more difficult for them to obtain abortions"; and

Whereas, in Whole Woman's Health, the Court held that the Constitution "requires that courts consider the burdens a law imposes on abortion access together with the benefits those laws confer"; and

Whereas, in Whole Woman's Health, the Court further held that courts, "when determining the constitutionality of laws regulating abortion procedures," must place "considerable weight upon evidence...presented"; and

Whereas, in Whole Woman's Health, Justice Ruth Bader Ginsburg wrote in her concurrence that abortion restrictions that "do little or nothing for health, but rather strew impediments to abortion...cannot survive judicial inspection"; and

Whereas, according to the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists, the American Medical Association, American Academy of Family Physicians, and the American Osteopathic Association, leading public health organizations and amici curiae for the petitioners in Whole Woman's Health, "[w]omen's access to high-quality, evidence-based abortion should not be limited by laws enacted under the guise of patient safety but that, in fact, harm women's health"; and

Whereas, the 334 restrictions on abortion providers and their patients adopted

Whereas, the 334 restrictions on abortion providers and their patients adopted nationally since 2010 and the more than 30 restrictions in North Carolina that were enacted based on pretextual reasons are just a systematic attempt to eliminate access to safe and legal medical care; and

Whereas, in accordance with the United States Constitution, it is the intent of the General Assembly to prevent the enforcement of laws or regulations that burden abortion access and do not provide legitimate health benefits; Now, therefore,

The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:
