1 A HOUSE RESOLUTION HONORING THE LIFE AND MEMORY OF ANTHONY EDEN
2 "TONY" RAND, FORMER MEMBER OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

3 Whereas, Anthony Eden "Tony" Rand was born on September 1, 1939, in Garner, 4 North Carolina to Walter Rand, Jr., and Geneva Yeargan Rand; and

5 Whereas, Tony Rand graduated from Garner High School in 1957, then enrolled at 6 the University of North Carolina, earning a BA degree in political science in 1961 and a JD 7 degree in 1964; and

8 Whereas, Tony Rand had a distinguished career as a lawyer, practicing for over 55 9 years, first in Washington, D.C., and then in Raleigh before settling in Fayetteville in 1968; and

10 Whereas, Tony Rand was an active member of his community, serving on numerous 11 boards and commissions, helping to build the Homeboys Condominiums, and supporting Fort 12 Bragg; and

13 Whereas, Tony Rand served as consultant for Sonorex, Inc., and as in-house counsel
14 to Lithotripters, Inc., a Fayetteville health care company that brought cutting-edge kidney stone 15 treatment to the Southeast; and

16 Whereas, Tony Rand was appointed by Governor Jim Hunt to a vacancy in the North 17 Carolina Senate in 1981 and he went on to serve more than 11 terms in the Senate from 18 1981-1988 and 1995-2009; and

19 Whereas, during his tenure in the Senate, Tony Rand served as Majority Leader from 20 1987 to 1988 and 2001 to 2009; Chair of Rules and Operations of the Senate; Co-Chair of the 21 Select Committee on Government and Election Reform; Vice-Chair of Commerce, Small 22 Business and Entrepreneurship; and as a member of numerous committees, including 23 Appropriations/Base Budget; Appropriations on Justice and Public Safety; Education/Higher 24 Education; Finance; Health Care; Judiciary I; and the Joint Select Committee on Emergency 25 Preparedness and Disaster Management Recovery; and

26 Whereas, Tony Rand focused on issues that benefited the State of North Carolina, 27 particularly public education and economic development, and legislation that helped the City of 28 Fayetteville, the University of North Carolina system, and the Law School at the University of 29 North Carolina at Chapel Hill; and

30 Whereas, during floor debates, Tony Rand was often awarded the "Oxmeter," which 31 was given to a Senator who had become "intoxicated with the exuberance of their own verbosity"; 32 and

1 Whereas, Tony Rand resigned from the General Assembly in 2009 and became Chair
2 of the North Carolina Parole and Post-Release Supervision Commission, serving in that position 3 until 2014; and

4 Whereas, Tony Rand then served a term as an Associate Vice President at Fayetteville
5 Technical Community College, where he coordinated the college's workforce development 6 program; and

7 Whereas, Tony Rand also spent several years as a member and Chair of the North 8 Carolina Lottery Commission; and

10 the Blowing Rock Civic Association and Blowing Rock Chamber of Commerce; and 11 Whereas, Tony Rand loved his alma mater and was an ardent supporter of his 12 fraternity, Alpha Tau Omega, and the athletic teams at the University of North Carolina at Chapel 13 Hill. He served as President and Treasurer of the University's General Alumni Association and 14 established, along with his brother, Walter Rand, a professorship at the University's Law School 15 in his mother's name; and

16 Whereas, Tony Rand was awarded the William Richardson Davie Award from the 17 University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in recognition of extraordinary service and the 18 Distinguished Alumnus Award from the University's Law School. He also received an Honorary 19 Doctor of Laws Degree from Fayetteville State University in 2000, Honorary Doctor of Laws 20 from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill in 2008, and Honorary Doctor of 21 Humanities from Methodist University in 2008; and 22 Whereas, Tony Rand died on May 1, 2020, at the age of 80, after a long and 23 distinguished career as a public servant and lawyer; and

24 Whereas, Tony Rand was predeceased by his parents; his brother, Walter Rand III; 25 his sister, Mary Parker Rand; and his sister, Rhea Rand, who died in infancy; and

26 Whereas, Tony Rand is survived by his wife, Karen Skarda Rand; his children, Ripley
27 Rand and Craven Rand; his grandchildren, Greene Rand and Arden Rand; and his sister, 28 Josephine Rand; and

29 Whereas, all who knew Tony Rand will miss his great sense of humor, sharp legal 30 mind, and devotion to North Carolina; Now, therefore,

31 Be it resolved by the House of Representatives:

32 SECTION 1. The House of Representatives honors the memory of Anthony Eden 33 "Tony" Rand and expresses its appreciation for his achievements as a former member of the
