Chapter, including, but not limited to, any threat, discharge, suspension, demotion, reduction of hours, any other adverse action against an employee for the exercise of any right guaranteed herein, or reporting or threatening to report an employee's suspected citizenship or immigration status or the suspected citizenship or immigration status of a family member of the employee to a federal, State, or local agency. Retaliatory personnel actions shall also include interference with or punishment for in any manner participating in or assisting an investigation, proceeding, or hearing under this Chapter.

- (14) Serious health condition. An illness, injury, impairment, pregnancy, recovery from childbirth, or physical or mental condition that involves inpatient care in a hospital, hospice, or residential medical care facility, or continuing treatment by a health care provider.
- (15) State average weekly wage. The average weekly insured wage as defined in G.S. 96-1(b)(2).

"§ 96A-2. Eligibility for benefits.

Beginning July 4, 2024, family and medical leave insurance benefits are payable to an individual who:

- (1) Meets the definition of "covered individual" as defined by G.S. 96A-1(b)(3); and
- (2) Meets one of the following requirements:
  - a. Because of birth, adoption, or placement through foster care, is caring for a new child during the first year after the birth, adoption, or placement of that child;
  - b. Is caring for a family member with a serious health condition;
  - c. Has a serious health condition;
  - d. Is caring for a covered service member who is the covered individual's next of kin or other family member; or
  - e. Because of any "qualifying exigency leave" arising out of the fact that the family member of the covered individual is on active duty (or has been notified of an impending call or order to active duty) in the Armed Forces.

"§ 96A-3. Duration of benefits.

- (a) An eligible covered individual is entitled to a maximum of:
  - (1) Twelve weeks of family and medical leave insurance benefits in any 12-month period for qualifying exigency leave;
  - (2) Twelve weeks of family and medical leave insurance benefits in any 12-month period for the birth, adoption, or placement through foster care of a new child; or
  - (3) Twenty-six weeks of family and medical leave insurance benefits during a single 12-month period to care for a family member with a serious health condition or to recover from the covered individual's own serious health condition.
- (b) In the case of leave taken to care for a covered service member, an eligible covered individual is entitled to a total of 26 weeks of family and medical leave insurance benefits in any 12-month period.
- (c) The amount of family and medical leave insurance benefits payable to a covered individual for family and medical leave is limited to a total of 12 weeks of family and medical leave insurance benefits in any 12-month period.
- (d) Family and medical leave insurance benefits are not payable for intermittent leave or leave on a reduced leave schedule taken for the birth, adoption, or placement through foster care of a new child or to care for the covered individual's family member with a serious health condition.

"§ 96A-4. Amount of benefits.

- (a) The weekly family and medical leave insurance benefit amount is equal to the covered individual's average weekly wage divided by the State average weekly wage, rounded to the nearest one-hundredth of a percent.
- (b) The minimum weekly family and medical leave insurance benefit amount is an amount equal to twenty percent (20%) of the State average weekly wage.
- (c) The maximum weekly family and medical leave insurance benefit amount is an amount equal to one hundred twenty percent (120%) of the State average weekly wage.
- (d) The weekly family and medical leave insurance benefit amount shall be reduced by the amount of any wages or wage replacement received by the covered individual from any other source during the same period for which family and medical leave insurance benefits are payable.

"§ 96A-5. Contributions.

- (a) Employers shall remit contributions to the Paid Family and Medical Leave Fund established pursuant to G.S. 96A-16 to cover the costs of family and medical leave insurance benefits.
- (b) Employer and employee contributions to the Paid Family and Medical Leave Fund shall be equal to the contribution rate established by the Division to finance the family and medical leave insurance program.
- (c) Employer and employee contributions shall be withheld from the wages of each covered individual in accordance with rules adopted by the Division.
- (d) The contribution rate established by the Division under this section shall be expressed as a percentage of the wages of each covered individual and shall not exceed the maximum contribution rate established by the Division.
- (e) Contributions shall be due and payable quarterly on the last day of the month following the close of the calendar quarter.
- (f) Each employer shall submit a report to the Division on a quarterly basis that includes a report of the wages paid to each covered individual during the preceding quarter, the amount of contributions withheld from the wages of each covered individual, and any other information required by the Division.
  - (g) The Division may require employers to submit reports and payments electronically.
- (h) All employer and employee contributions collected under this section shall be paid into the Paid Family and Medical Leave Fund on a quarterly basis.
- (i) The Division shall establish procedures for the administration of employer and employee contributions, including procedures for the collection, reporting, and remittance of contributions.
- (j) Contributions to the Paid Family and Medical Leave Fund are due and payable to the Division and constitute a debt owed by the employer to the Division.

"§ 96A-6. Reduced leave schedule.

- (a) A covered individual may take family and medical leave on an intermittent or reduced leave schedule.
- (b) A covered individual taking family and medical leave on an intermittent or reduced leave schedule shall make a reasonable effort to schedule the leave so as not to unduly disrupt the operations of the employer.

"§ 96A-7. Leave and employment protection.

- (a) Except as otherwise provided in this Chapter, any eligible covered individual who takes family and medical leave in accordance with this Chapter shall be entitled, on return from such leave:
  - (1) To be restored by the employer to the position of employment held by the eligible covered individual when the leave commenced; or

- 1 2 3
- (2) To be restored to an equivalent position with equivalent employment benefits, pay, and other terms and conditions of employment.
- (b) An employer is not required to restore the employment benefits or pay that accrued prior to the date on which the leave commenced.
- (c) Except as otherwise provided in this Chapter, an employer shall maintain health care benefits for an eligible covered individual on family and medical leave on the same terms as if the eligible covered individual had continued to work instead of taking family and medical leave.

"§ 96A-8. Retaliatory personnel actions prohibited.

- (a) Except as otherwise provided in this Chapter, any eligible covered individual who takes family and medical leave in accordance with this Chapter shall be entitled, on return from such leave:
  - (1) To be restored by the employer to the position of employment held by the eligible covered individual when the leave commenced; or
  - (2) To be restored to an equivalent position with equivalent employment benefits, pay, and other terms and conditions of employment.
- (b) An employer is not required to restore the employment benefits or pay that accrued prior to the date on which the leave commenced.
- (c) Except as otherwise provided in this Chapter, an employer shall maintain health care benefits for an eligible covered individual on family and medical leave on the same terms as if the eligible covered individual had continued to work instead of taking family and medical leave.

"§ 96A-9. Coordination of benefits.

- (a) Any family and medical leave insurance benefits payable under this Chapter shall be reduced by the amount of compensation, including salary, wages, or wage replacement, that a covered individual receives or is eligible to receive from any of the following:
  - (1) A disability or workers' compensation program or law.
  - (2) A State or federal temporary disability program or law.
  - (3) A State or federal plan that provides maternity or parental benefits.
- (b) Family and medical leave insurance benefits shall not be payable for any period of leave during which a covered individual receives compensation from a disability or workers' compensation program or law.
- (c) The amount of family and medical leave insurance benefits shall be reduced by any amount the covered individual receives from a State or federal temporary disability program or law or a State or federal plan that provides maternity or parental benefits.
- (d) Family and medical leave insurance benefits shall not be payable for any period of leave during which a covered individual receives compensation from a State or federal temporary disability program or law or a State or federal plan that provides maternity or parental benefits.
- (e) A covered individual shall notify the Division of any payment or prospective payment of compensation from a disability or workers' compensation program or law, a State or federal temporary disability program or law, or a State or federal plan that provides maternity or parental benefits, and the amount of the compensation.

"§ 96A-10. Notice.

- (a) Any covered individual intending to take family and medical leave shall provide the employer with not less than 30 days' notice, except in cases of emergency or unforeseen circumstances. If the covered individual is unable to provide 30 days' notice, the covered individual shall provide notice as soon as practicable.
- (b) When requesting family and medical leave for a foreseeable reason, a covered individual shall:
  - (1) Provide the employer with not less than 30 days' notice before the leave is to begin, except in cases of emergency or unforeseen circumstances.
  - (2) Make a reasonable effort to schedule the family and medical leave so as not to unduly disrupt the operations of the employer.

- 20 21
- Any health care provider designated or approved under this section shall not be (q) employed on a regular basis by the employer.
- 22 23
- If the covered individual provides the employer with a complete and sufficient certification, the employer may not request a second or third opinion.

24

"§ 96A-11. Records.

25 26 27

An employer shall make, keep, and preserve records pertaining to compliance with this Chapter, including records related to the administration of family and medical leave and medical certifications. The records shall include, but are not limited to:

28 29

- The dates family and medical leave is taken by each covered individual. (1)
- (2) The dates and duration of any leave or absence from work. The position and pay status of the covered individual.

37

(8) Any documents provided to employees as part of the employer's employee benefits or leave policies.

38 39

"§ 96A-12. Rulemaking.

41 42

40

(a) The Division shall adopt rules to implement and administer the provisions of this Chapter.

43 44 45

The rules shall be consistent with the provisions of this Chapter and may include (b) provisions concerning the administration of family and medical leave, the records to be made, kept, and preserved by employers, and any other matter necessary for the proper enforcement of this Chapter.

46 47

- The Division may adopt temporary rules to implement this Chapter. The temporary rules shall be in effect until the effective date of permanent rules adopted under this section. The Division shall adopt rules governing the operation of the family and medical
- 48 49 leave insurance program, including rules for the determination of employer contributions, the 50 establishment of procedures for the collection, reporting, and remittance of contributions, and the administration of the family and medical leave insurance program. 51

"§ 96A-13. Self-employed individuals.

- (a) A self-employed individual may elect coverage under the family and medical leave insurance program by submitting written notice of the election to the Division.
- (b) A self-employed individual may elect coverage under this Chapter beginning January 1 of any year by filing a written notice of election with the Division.
- (c) The Division shall establish procedures for the administration of the family and medical leave insurance program for self-employed individuals.
- (d) Self-employed individuals shall make contributions to the Paid Family and Medical Leave Fund on the same terms and conditions as employers.

"§ 96A-14. Employees on leave.

- (a) An employee on family and medical leave shall be deemed to be on leave status and shall not be considered an employee for purposes of employee benefits or seniority.
- (b) Nothing in this Chapter prohibits an employer from maintaining the employee's health benefits while the employee is on leave.
- (c) During a period of family and medical leave, an employer shall maintain coverage for an employee under any group health plan, group life insurance plan, or other employee benefits plan.
- (d) If an employee does not return from family and medical leave, the employer may recover the premiums paid by the employer for maintaining coverage for the employee under any group health plan, group life insurance plan, or other employee benefits plan, unless the reason the employee does not return is due to:
  - (1) The continuation, recurrence, or onset of a serious health condition that entitles the employee to leave under this Chapter; or
  - (2) Other circumstances beyond the control of the employee.

"§ 96A-15. Confidentiality.

- (a) An employer shall not interfere with, restrain, or deny the exercise of, or the attempt to exercise, any right provided by this Chapter.
- (b) Any information received by an employer or the Division about an employee or a covered individual pursuant to this Chapter shall be kept confidential and may not be disclosed except to the extent that disclosure is:
  - (1) Requested or consented to in writing by the employee or covered individual;
  - (2) Required by the Division for purposes of administering this Chapter; or
  - (3) Otherwise required by applicable federal or State law.
- (c) Information related to medical histories or records of employees or covered individuals obtained by employers or the Division under this Chapter shall be treated as confidential medical records.

"§ 96A-16. Paid Family and Medical Leave Fund.

- (a) The Paid Family and Medical Leave Fund is established as a special revenue fund within the Department of Commerce. The Fund shall consist of:
  - (1) All contributions collected under this Chapter.
  - (2) Any interest earned on the investment or deposit of monies in the Fund.
  - (3) Any gifts or grants accepted by the Department of Commerce for deposit to the Fund.
  - (4) Any other funds that may be appropriated by the General Assembly or directed to be credited to the Fund by the Division.
- (b) Monies in the Fund shall be used to pay family and medical leave insurance benefits under this Chapter and for the administration of this Chapter.
- (c) The Division may invest monies in the Fund in the same manner as provided under G.S. 147-69.2.
  - (d) Monies in the Fund shall not revert to the General Fund.

"§ 96A-17. Violations.

Page 8 DRS35351-LRf-139A

- (a) An employer who willfully violates any provision of this Chapter may be assessed a civil penalty of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each violation.
- (b) An employer who fails to remit contributions to the Paid Family and Medical Leave Fund as required by this Chapter may be assessed a civil penalty of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each violation.
- (c) An employer who fails to submit reports required by this Chapter may be assessed a civil penalty of not more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each violation.
- (d) An employer who intentionally provides false information to the Division under this Chapter may be assessed a civil penalty of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each violation.
- (e) Any person who willfully violates this Chapter may be assessed a civil penalty of not more than five hundred dollars ($500.00) for each violation.
- (f) Any person who fails to remit contributions to the Paid Family and Medical Leave Fund as required by this Chapter may be assessed a civil penalty of not more than one thousand dollars ($1,000) for each violation.
- (g) Any person who fails to submit reports required by this Chapter may be assessed a civil penalty of not more than one hundred dollars ($100.00) for each violation.
- (h) Any person who intentionally provides false information to the Division under this Chapter may be assessed a civil penalty of not more than five hundred dollars ($500.00) for each violation.
- (i) Any penalty imposed under this section shall be in addition to any other penalties that may be imposed by any other provision of law.
- (j) Penalties assessed under this section shall be paid into the Paid Family and Medical Leave Fund.
- (k) Penalties assessed under this section shall be recoverable in an action brought by the Division in any court of competent jurisdiction.
- (l) The Division may compromise, settle, or release any penalty imposed under this section.
- (m) The Division shall adopt rules to implement and administer the provisions of this section.

"§ 96A-18. Relationship to federal law.

- (a) Family and medical leave benefits provided under this Chapter are not a replacement for any leave required by the Family and Medical Leave Act, 29 U.S.C. §§ 2601, et seq.
- (b) Family and medical leave benefits provided under this Chapter shall run concurrently with any leave taken under the Family and Medical Leave Act, 29 U.S.C. §§ 2601, et seq.
- (c) Family and medical leave benefits provided under this Chapter shall not affect the determination of leave available to a covered individual under the Family and Medical Leave Act, 29 U.S.C. §§ 2601, et seq.
- (d) Family and medical leave benefits provided under this Chapter shall not affect the determination of leave available to a covered individual under any other state or federal law.
- (e) Nothing in this Chapter shall be construed to preempt, limit, or otherwise affect the applicability of any provision of federal law relating to family and medical leave, leave provided under State law, or any employer plan or program.

"§ 96A-19. Severability.

If any provision of this Chapter or its application to any person or circumstances is held invalid, the invalidity does not affect other provisions or applications of this Chapter that can be given effect without the invalid provision or application and, to this end, the provisions of this Chapter are severable."

SECTION 2. This act becomes effective July 4, 2024.
