The General Assembly of North Carolina enacts:

A bundled transaction does not include the retail sale of any of the following:

a. A product and any packaging item that accompanies the product and is exempt under G.S. 105-164.13(23).

b. A sale of two or more products whose combined price varies, or is negotiable, depending on the products the purchaser selects.

Load and leave. – Delivery to the purchaser by use of a tangible storage media where the tangible storage media is not physically transferred to the purchaser.

Ringtone. – A digitized sound file that is downloaded onto a device and that may be used to alert the user of the device with respect to a communication.

SECTION 2. G.S. 105-164.4(a) reads as rewritten:

"(a) A privilege tax is imposed on a retailer at the following percentage rates of the retailer's net taxable sales or gross receipts, as appropriate. The general rate of tax is four and one-half percent (4.5%).

The general rate applies to the sales price of an item that is listed in this subdivision, is delivered or accessed electronically, and would be taxable under this Article if sold in a tangible medium. The retail sale of a digital code that is used to obtain any of the items taxed by this subdivision is considered a sale of that item. The tax applies regardless of whether the purchaser of the item has a right to redistribute it, to use it permanently, or to use it without making continued payments. The tax does not apply to an item that is taxed under another subdivision of this subsection or under G.S. 105-164.4C. A person who sells an item that is taxable under this subdivision is considered a retailer under this Article. The following items are subject to tax under this subdivision:

a. An audio work.

b. An audiovisual work.

c. A book.

d. Computer software.

SECTION 3.(a) G.S. 105-164.3(18) is recodified as G.S. 105-164.3(33g) and reads as rewritten:

"(18)(33g) Mail order Remote sale. – A sale of tangible personal property, ordered by mail, by telephone, computer link, via the Internet, or other similar method, to a purchaser who is in this State at the time the order is remitted, from a retailer who receives the order in another state and transports the property or causes it to be transported to a person in this State. It is presumed that a resident of this State who remits an order was in this State at the time the order was remitted."

SECTION 3.(b) The catch line of G.S. 105-164.8 reads as rewritten:
"§ 105-164.8. Retailer's obligation to collect tax; mail order–remote sales subject to tax."

SECTION 3.(c) G.S. 105-164.8(b) reads as rewritten:

"(b) Mail Order–Remote Sales. – A retailer who makes a mail order–remote sale is engaged in business in this State and is subject to the tax levied under this Article if at least one of the following conditions is met:

1. The retailer is a corporation engaged in business under the laws of this State or a person domiciled in, a resident of, or a citizen of, this State.
2. The retailer maintains retail establishments or offices in this State, whether the mail order–remote sales thus subject to taxation by this State result from or are related in any other way to the activities of such establishments or offices.
3. The retailer has representatives in this State who solicit business or transact business on behalf of the retailer, solicits or transacts business in this State by employees, independent contractors, agents, or other representatives whether the mail order–remote sales thus subject to taxation by this State result from or are related in any other way to such solicitation or transaction of business. A retailer is presumed to be soliciting or transacting business by an independent contractor, agent, or other representative if the retailer enters into an agreement with a resident of this State under which the resident, for a commission or other consideration, directly or indirectly refers potential customers, whether by a link on an Internet Web site or otherwise, to the retailer, if the cumulative gross receipts from sales by the retailer to purchasers in this State who are referred to the retailer by all residents with this type of agreement with the retailer is in excess of ten thousand dollars ($10,000) during the preceding four quarterly periods. This presumption may be rebutted by proof that the resident with whom the retailer has an agreement did not engage in any solicitation in the State on behalf of the seller that would satisfy the nexus requirement of the United States Constitution during the four quarterly periods in question.
4. Repealed by Session Laws 1991, c. 45, s. 16.
5. The retailer, by purposefully or systematically exploiting the market provided by this State by any media-assisted, media-facilitated, or media-solicited means, including direct mail advertising, distribution of catalogs, computer-assisted shopping, television, radio or other electronic media, telephone solicitation, magazine or newspaper advertisements, or other media, creates nexus with this State.
6. Through compact or reciprocity with another jurisdiction of the United States, that jurisdiction uses its taxing power and its jurisdiction over the retailer in support of this State's taxing power.
7. The retailer consents, expressly or by implication, to the imposition of the tax imposed by this Article. For purposes of this subdivision, evidence that a retailer engaged in the activity described in subdivision (5) shall be prima facie evidence that the retailer consents to the imposition of the tax imposed by this Article.
8. The retailer is a holder of a wine shipper permit issued by the ABC Commission pursuant to G.S. 18B-1001.1."

SECTION 4. G.S. 105-164.13(43a) is repealed.

SECTION 5. G.S. 105-467(a) is amended by adding a new subdivision to read:

"(8) The sales price of an audio work, audiovisual work, a book, and computer software that is subject to the general rate of tax under G.S. 105-164.4(a)(6b)."
SECTION 6. Section 4 of Chapter 1096 of the 1967 Session Laws, as amended, reads as rewritten:

"Sec. 4. Scope of Sales Tax. The sales tax which may be imposed under this division after the holding of a special election is limited to a tax at the rate of one per cent (1%) of: (1) the sale price of those articles of tangible personal property now subject to the general rate of sales tax imposed by the State under G.S. 105-164.4(a)(1) and (4b); 105-164.4(a)(1), (4b), and (6b); (2) the gross receipts derived from the lease or rental of tangible personal property when the lease or rental of the property is subject to the general rate of sales tax imposed by the State under G.S. 105-164.4(a)(2); (3) the gross receipts derived from the rental of any room or lodging furnished by any hotel, motel, inn, tourist camp or other similar public accommodations now subject to the general rate of sales tax imposed by the State under G.S. 105-164.4(a)(3); (4) the gross receipts derived from services rendered by laundries, dry cleaners, cleaning plants and similar type businesses now subject to the general rate of sales tax imposed by the State under G.S. 105-164.4(a)(4); (5) The sales price of food and other items that are not otherwise exempt from tax pursuant to G.S. 105-164.13 but are exempt from the State sales and use tax pursuant to G.S. 105-164.13B; and (6) The sales price of prepaid telephone calling service taxed as tangible personal property under G.S. 105-164.4(a)(4d). The taxes authorized by this division do not apply to sales that are taxable by the State under G.S. 105-164.4 but are not specifically listed in this section.

The exemptions and exclusions contained in G.S. 105-164.13 and the sales and use tax holiday contained in G.S. 105-164.13C apply with equal force and like manner to the local sales tax authorized to be imposed and levied under this division. The county shall have no authority, with respect to the local sales and use tax imposed under this division, to change, alter, add, or delete any exemptions or exclusions contained under G.S. 105-164.13.

The local sales tax authorized to be imposed and levied under the provisions of this division shall be applicable to such retail sales, leases, rentals, rendering of services, furnishing of lodging or accommodations and other taxable transactions which are made, furnished or rendered by retailers whose place of business is located within the taxing county. The tax imposed shall apply to the furnishing of rooms, lodging or other accommodations within the county which are rented to transients. The sourcing principles in G.S. 105-164.4B apply in determining whether the local sales tax applies to a transaction. Provided, however, no tax shall be imposed where the tangible personal property sold is delivered by the retailer or his agent to the purchaser at a point outside this State."

SECTION 7. Section 3 of this act is effective when it becomes law. The remainder of this act becomes effective January 1, 2010, and applies to sales made on or after that date.
